WEEKLY KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, April 10, 1916.—Scant supplies of cattle at all points last week forced buyers into the market, and all of recent losses were regained. Today there are a few thousand too many cattle offered, and buyers were quick to seize their opportunity, steers 10 to 15 lower, some sales off 25 cents, cows and heifers steady to 15 lower, stockers and feeders steady to 15 lower. Yearling steers and heifers sold at $9.40 today, heavy steers $9.35 and $9.40, a string of six cars of steers from Frankfort, Kansas, 1446 lbs. average, selling at the latter price. A fair number of steers sold at $9 and upwards, and medium steers brought $8.35 to $8.75. There was a light supply of pulp fed cattle, about 20 loads in all, the best selling at $8.90, 8 cars of Sugar company steers from Garden City, Kansas, 1160 lbs. average, at $8.80, as compared with $8.75, for some of the same steers last Monday. There were no quarantine cattle today, but a number of shipments of North Texas steers sold here last week at $8.15 to $8.35. Best cows sell up to $8, and most of the medium cows bring $6.25 to $7.50. Stockers and feeders are in strong demand, Illinois buying more heavily in the last week than heretofore. Good feeders sell around $8, and stock steers mostly at $7 to $7.75, a few yearlings up to $8.30, and calves $9.

Hog Supply Getting Shorter

Hogs at seven western markets dropped off $6,000 head last week from the previous week, local receipts showing a loss of 10,000 head. This was a complete reversal of the recent trend, as total hogs marketed so far this year at eleven leading markets is slightly above ten million head, as compared with 9,400,000 head at the same markets, same period in 1908, biggest previous year. Prices were uneven, packers insisting on lower prices, but order buyers made strong competition, the week closing 15 cents below high point. Receipts here today are 11,000, market 10 to 15 lower, packers having the top $9.45, at the close. Order buying is heavy, this trade taking a liberal number today, and half the hogs one or two days last week.

Sheep Are 50 cents Higher

Sheep and lambs are 50 higher than the middle of last week, receipts 5000 today. Prices are on 15 to 25 cents today, following a big rise Friday, which puts values back up to the high time. All classes of live stock seem to be selling at prices that are justified by conditions, and reverses are short lived. Most of the lambs sold at $11.40 to $12.65 today, and clipped lambs brought $9.70. No good ewes were included, but they would go to $8.60. Texas brusher goats of poor grade sold at $5.10. Texas clipped wethers worth around $7.50, fat goats up to $6, good brushers $5.50.

J. A. RICKART,
Market Correspondent.

L. L. Deuell, with 12 expert sheep-shearers and his battery of steam plants, arrived from the desert on Thursday, en route to Mayer to begin shearing about 4,000 head. He expects to complete the contract by May 1st.

He stated this season has been by far the best he ever experienced in the sheep shearing business, and to date has handled with his small but expert crew over 70,000 head at different places in the south. It has been an exceptionally fine winter in grazing. No losses have occurred. The price of wool has soared to a high water mark never before known.—Prescott Journal Miner.

Henry J. Platt, acting under instructions of the Apache County Livestock Association, of which he is secretary, has posted notices throughout Apache county offering a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons unlawfully handling any cattle or horses belonging to any member of said association.—St. Johns Observer.

Arizona sheep men should be very careful about selling their 1916 lamb crop at home. All indications point to extremely high prices this summer. All packer buyers at this market agree that Arizona spring lambs will sell at $12.00 per hundred. A band of clipped ewes would now bring $7.00. Don't forget this when figuring with country buyers.—Swift and Henry.

Bobbie—"Not if the dentist is going to put it on."

MEAT PRODUCERS ARE AFTER MEAT PACKERS

A former Kansas Governor, W. R. Stubbs, and a former Missouri judge, W. H. Wallace, who said they had learned by raising cattle that meat packers, by price fixing combinations were crushing live stock growers, pleaded with a House judiciary subcommittee for sweeping reforms in the packing industry. They appeared as counsel for western growers and feeders.

Speaking on the Bordland resolution now before the committee, which would order a federal trade commission inquiry to determine whether the packers are violating the anti-trust laws, they endorsed the proposals and suggested making laws, prohibiting the restraint of trade in general, more stringent.

Mr. Wallace, who prosecuted the James train robbers heatedly denounced the alleged packing commission.

"We are now after a worse crowd than the James boys," he declared. "These fellows steal more money in a week than the James boys did in their whole careers."

By affidavits and testimony as to his personal experiences, the Judge sought to prove that combinations had existed among packers in the Kansas City yards within the last few years. He submitted an affidavit from Leo Burns, a former stockyard employee, declaring that Kansas City and Chicago packing houses were in constant communications regarding proposed purchases from speculators. An affidavit signed by Earl Cooper declared that before the packers came into "Kansas City yards he used to visit the yards at night and supply them with information as to the number of livestock on hand prior to the opening of market."

On one occasion, the judge asserted he received only one bid on a bunch of cattle at the Kansas City yards and learned later that they were divided between two packing concerns.

Arthur Meeker, vice president of Armour & Co., promptly questioned the accuracy of the judge's statement regarding one buyer for two houses. Walter L. Fisher, attorney interjected the declaration that he would be able to prove that there was no combination. Once during the day Mr. Meeker declared that he was willing to have an inquisitorial body with subpoena powers conduct the examination, but later he insisted on his original proposed investigation to the department of agriculture.

The hearing will continue when representatives of the packers are expected to present their side of the case.

A Mexican Meat Order

General Calles, governor of Sonora, promulgated a decree on April 1, in Hermosillo, raising the duty on the exportation of cattle to a prohibitive rate. One year olds will pay an export duty of 25 pesos silver; two year old thirty pesos; three year old, forty pesos.

Officers of the border are made responsible for the collection of the tax on every cow exported, a fine of five hundred pesos and jail sentence of two months being the penalty for failure to collect. Similar penalties are pronounced against the owner of cattle and those temporarily in charge of any smuggled across the boundary.

General Calles says in the decree that the exportation of cattle has been so heavy during the last few years that meat has reached a very high price and in order to bring it within reach of the poor people, he has promulgated the decree.

Apache Trailers After Villa

Apache Indians, skilled to a high degree in the following of trails, will be employed by Uncle Sam in his efforts to track Pancho Villa to his lair in the Sierra Madres. Fourteen braves, selected for this task, will be sent from Columbus, N. M., to join General Pershing's army at Chihuahua.

The Indians came from Fort Apache, Arizona. An army officer accompanied them. Some of them were reported to have taken part in the running down of the old warlike chief, Geronimo.

A Family Man

"Notice—I understand there are a few old-long-tongued tattling women and some half-raised men telling that I have deserted my family and run off with another woman. I want to say that it is a lie and the people that are talking this are more apt to do that than I am. I have not deserted my family nor never will. You can find me at the Jeffries and Jones livery-barn at all times."
