NO NEED TO HURRY

Many people have curious hobbies, and Potter was one of them. He had a perfect passion for going over prisons, and, being a determined person, managed to get permission to do so. One day he had just completed a tour of inspection around one of the biggest prisons in the country, when he remembered that he wanted to telephone to his wife. He was shown into an office, where there was a telephone and a convict doing something with a hammer. "Would you mind stopping your hammering for a second or two?" asked Potter. "Not a bit, gov'nor!" replied the convict. "I've got twenty years to finish this job in."
