STUDEBAKER MAN HAS HIGH REGARD FOR HABITS OF NOGALES PEOPLE

H. L. Palmer, state representative of the Studebaker Corporation, directing the management of the Arizona Motor Company, has a high regard for the habits of Nogales people.

He states that the cigars and cigarettes were passed out generously during the opening of the new concern Wednesday evening, and the rooms were hazy with smoke the greater part of the time, not a single cigar or cigarette butt was found on his newly enamelled floor on the following morning.

Mrs. O. L. Cornwall, former Assistant Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, has resigned her position with the Southern Pacific Railroad and will be employed as stenographer for the Santo Niño Mining Company at their holdings near Duquense.

Gilbert Wieland has been added to the list of employees of the local Shell Oil Company. He was formerly connected with the office of the City Engineer.

Ralph Gonzales, who has been spending a months' vacation in Santa Fe, New Mexico, will arrive home the first of next week.

FOR RENT

Two new houses, latest modern styles, have garages. These houses have all the latest commodities, situated on Potrero and Pajarito streets. The locality is the most beautiful and hygienic in all Nogales, Arizona. Due to their modern construction they need 25 percent less heating than other residences during winter, and in summer they are cooler than old houses. Rented furnished or unfurnished. If rented unfurnished there is an open fireplace as is customary in the living room, and if more heating is desired by the occupant, it must be at his cost and provided no damage is done to the building. Apply Eduardo Guerrero, 209 Potrero avenue. Phone 462-W. tlc 19
