WINCHELMAN EVENTS

The linen shower given by Mrs. P. L. Hutton, in honor of her son's fiancée, Miss Laura Dunlop, of Hayden, Ariz., proved to be one of the most pleasurable events of Winkelman's eventful social season, and a warm welcome to a charming bride-elect.

Guests to the number of thirty assembled at the Hutton Hall at 2 p. m., the 7th inst. and were entertained at cards and in a guessing contest until 7 o'clock, when all repaired to the spacious summer dining hall of the Vendome hotel, beautifully decorated for the occasion, where luncheon and punch were served. Mrs. Judge Snider offered as a toast the pledge of the kindest thoughts of all present to the lady who was to be Mrs. Fred Cornelius.

All are cordially invited to attend church services.

The place-cards of double hearts made fine mementoes. The presents covered the list of all things beautiful and useful in that line. The guests were: Mrs. J. J. Dunlap, Mrs. Everett McClaskey, Mrs. Frank Pool, Mrs. W. T. Armstrong, Mrs. Harry Stanton, Bailey, Mrs. Dr. Marden, Mrs. William Ruple, Mrs. Bernice D. Davenport, Mrs. Marvin Scott, Mrs. Royal Berry, Mrs. Norman Morrison, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Lindsey Griffin, Mrs. Luke Reay, Mrs. Miles Reay, Mrs. Eugene Bailey, Mrs. Judge Roberts, Mrs. Harriet Hess, Mrs. E. ### HAVE PRETTY HAIR

Soft, Fluffy, Abundant—Use Parisian Sage—It Stops Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

If your hair is not as soft and heavy as that of some friend, do not despair—do as she does—give it daily attention. Beautiful hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin, make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage and all dandruff disappears. Parisian Sage, sold in fifty-cent bottles at drug and toilet counters, is just what you need. It quickly stops itching head, cleanses the hair of dust and excessive oil; takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes it seem twice as abundant, and beautifies it until it is soft, fluffy and lustrous. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage. Always sold by any druggist on money back if not satisfied plan.—(Advertisement)

To The Voters Of Phoenix:

Realizing the impossibility of a personal interview with each of you, I take this method to make a simple statement of fact pertinent to my candidacy for Mayor of the City of Phoenix:

I have been just as consistent in my campaign since the Primary Election as before.

A plurality of the voters of Phoenix, at the Primary Election, expressed their confidence in me. Knowing these votes were voluntary, I would be less than human not to be truly grateful and really proud.

I was THE original independent candidate, unsupported by either of the leading newspapers of Phoenix, and was not brought forth by any individual, clique, faction or the "political machine" of Phoenix.

I made no promise before the Primary to any person or faction, nor have I made any since. Neither do I intend to make any promises, and any such report spread over the city is a base fabrication.

The spreading over the city of any tickets, containing the names of any four of the candidates for Commissioners, with my name for Mayor, will be for the purpose of confusing or deceiving my friends and the voters in general. The election of the Commissioners is the people's business—not mine—and I have no word to say as to whom they should elect.

Beyond advocating a free employment agency and rest rooms for women, I have made no statement as to what I would do as the Mayor of Phoenix. I fully realize that if elected to that honorable position, I would be but twenty per cent. of the city government, and I am neither so egotistical as to assume nor so ignorant as to presume I, as the Mayor of Phoenix, would be looked upon by the intelligent people of Phoenix as the entire City Government.

ORIGINAL INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR

I have no canvassers out. Be not deceived.

(This is a paid advertisement)

By a recent Supreme Court decision, defining the powers of the State Corporation Commission, the Phoenix Street Railway question is no more within the jurisdiction of the Mayor of Phoenix than it is of any other citizen.

The water question is one of the details of government, and any specific treatment of it is simply "splitting hairs" or the proverbial "straining at a gnat and swallowing a camel."

These are mere details of the whole question. The real problems now confronting Phoenix, the most important ones for its people and business men to solve, are:

- How to increase the number of payrolls.
- How to get profitable employment for more men.
- How to get the best results with the most economical expenditure of public money.
- How to encourage new enterprises.
- How to reduce taxation.
- How to get a cleaner and more beautiful city without bankrupting the property owners.
- How to get a respectable city hall, parks—in the proper places—public drinking fountains, a police and fire department in keeping with the dignity of the city, rest rooms for women, and other municipal improvements without bond issues.

How to get people busy—for busy people are happy people. Men who struggle with payrolls and expense accounts have knowledge of how to do these things. My payrolls and expense accounts, contributory to Phoenix, are open for inspection.

Upon this basis, and no other, do I solicit your votes at the General Election next Thursday, March 19th.

GEORGE U. YOUNG.
