WOOLSEY RETURNS—F. A. Woolsey, a well known Phoenixian returned last evening from the coast.

A CHURCH BARBECUE—A barbecue dinner will be served at the C. M. E. church next Saturday, September 26.

MAGMA PROSPECTS—Superintendent Tom Tige of the Magna mine at Superior is in town with glowing reports of the fine prospects of the thousand foot level. A rich ore has been uncovered at that level.

BIG PRICE FOR CATTLE—Just to show the high prices which good cows are commanding, C. O. McMurry points to the sale at auction by him of 125 head of cattle for J. L. Parker two and a half miles south of Fowler school. Thirty head consisting of fine Holstein milk cows brought an average of $124 a head.

TO SELL HORSE TODAY—Chief of Police Brisbois will turn auctioneer for a few minutes at ten o'clock this morning, or long enough to sell from the rear of the city hall, a gray mare, 10 or 12 years old, weighing about 900 pounds, picked up by the police several days ago and for which no claimant has appeared.

SAME BUT DIFFERENT—A change in the leave of absence rule for homesteaders has been noted at the local land office. All the time, homesteaders have been allowed five months' leave out of each year, but only in one lot. Now they may make two trips away from their holdings, provided the aggregate time spent at large does not exceed the five-month limit.

IS "OUT OF POCKET"—Jerry Shook of Phoenix lost nearly thirty hundred dollars in a purse which he dropped on the streets of Tucson day before yesterday. Mr. Shook was moving his effects from a hotel to a rooming house, when he lost the wallet, which contained all but about sixty dollars of his wealth. He later found the empty purse on the sidewalk.

THE DEACONESS HOSPITAL—The Arizona Deaconess Hospital Association has secured the Phoenix hospital property, located at 215 North Third avenue and has opened an interdenominational institute under deaconess management. Miss Marilla Williams being superintendent. She is all ready in charge and very shortly everything will be in order for the service of the public.

FUNERAL OF WILSON SHEA—The funeral of Wilson Shea, whose death was announced yesterday, took place from Merryman Hayt's yesterday. The services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Northrup of the Glendale Baptist church. The father of the dead man, A. C. Shea of Butler, Mo., arrived in the city yesterday morning and left last night with the body of Butler. It will be laid away in the family cemetery at Morris. Mr. Shea was thirty-two years of age. About three weeks ago he fell from a sprinkling wagon at Glendale and injured his hip. The injury was not thought to be serious and it was not until a week ago that it apparently became so. He was removed to the hospital and an operation was performed, but it was then too late as blood poisoning had been set up. Mr. Shea leaves a wife and two babes. Mrs. Shea who is in ill health is stopping with relatives at Glendale but she will leave for the east about the holidays. Mr. Shea is survived by his father, a brother at El Paso, a sister, Mrs. Morgan of Butler, another, Mrs. Hooper of Midland, Texas, and another sister residing in Colorado.

TROOP MORAL
Aisne the German retirement has been hurried.

"There was a strong wind during the day accompanied by a driving rain. This militated against aerial reconnaissance.

"On Sunday, the 20th, nothing of importance occurred until afternoon when there was a break in the clouds and intervals of sunshine which were hardly enough to warm the soaking troops. The Germans took advantage of this brief spell of fine weather to make several attacks against different points. These were all repulsed with great loss to the enemy, but the casualties incurred by us were by no means light."

"In one section of our firing line occupants of the trenches were under the impression they heard a military band in the enemy's lines just before the attack developed. It is now known the German infantry started their advance with their bands playing. The offensive against one or two points was renewed at Gusk with no greater success. The brunt of the resistance has naturally fallen upon the infantry. In spite of the fact they have been drenched to the skin for many days, their trenches have been deep in mud and water and in spite of the incessant night alarms and almost continuous bombardment to which they have been subjected, they have on every occasion been ready for the enemy's infantry when the latter attempted to assault, and they have beaten them back with great loss. Indeed the sight of troops coming up has been a positive relief after the long and trying hours of inaction under shell fire.

"The object of the great proportion of the artillery the Germans employ is to beat down the resistance of their enemy by a concentrated and prolonged fire, and to shatter their nerve with high explosives before their infantry attack launched. They seemed to rely on doing this with us, but they have not done so, though it has taken them several costly experiments to discover this fact.

"From the statements of prisoners it appears they have been greatly disappointed by the fact the moral effect produced by their heavy guns and despite the actual losses inflicted, has not been at all commensurate with the colossal expenditure of ammunition which really has been wasted. But this is not to imply their artillery fire is not good, for it is more than good; it is excellent. But the British soldier is a difficult person to impress or depress, even by immense shells filled with high explosive, which detonate with terrific force and form craters large enough to act as graves for fire horses.

"The German howitzer shells are from eight to nine inches in calibre, and on impact they send up columns of greasy black smoke. On account of this they have been irreverently dubbed 'coal boxes,' 'black marias,' or 'Jack Johnsons' by the soldiers.

"Men who take things in this spirit, it seems, likely to throw out calculations based on the loss of morale so carefully framed by the German military philosophers.

"A considerable amount of information has been gleaned from prisoners. It has been gathered that our bombardment on the fifteenth produced a great impression. The opinion was also reported that our infantry makes such good use of the ground that the German companies are decimated by our rifle fire before our soldiers can be seen.

MATRIMONIAL—A marriage license was issued yesterday to David H. Bonnell, of Gila county and Anna Louise Mason, of Maricopa county.

HERE FROM CINCINNATI—David Kern of Cincinnati arrived in the city on Wednesday to visit his friend, W. H. Uhley. Mr. Kern has already fallen in love with Phoenix.

PRESBYTERIAN LADIES AID—The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold a meeting this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church parlors. All ladies are urged to be present.

AGAINST HANGING—This is the night when Robert S. Fisher will address a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. court in favor of the constitutional amendment for the abolition of capital punishment.

WILL LOCATE HERE NOW—Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McKinley, of Brookings, Oregon, have, after an absence of twelve years, returned to the Salt River valley to locate. Mr. McKinley is fully convinced that this section has it on any Oregon section that he has seen.

QUIETLY MARRIED—Miss Anna Louise Mason and D. H. Bonnell were quietly married yesterday evening by Rev. Dr. Ray C. Harkow. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mason while the groom is an expert accountant with the Ray Consolidated Mining company at their Hayden office. The couple will make their home in Hayden.

A PROUD PRESSMAN—George G. Fox, stereotyper and pressman at The Republican office, is one of the proudest young men in the city right now over the advent of a bouncing young son at his home at the corner of Taylor street and North Third Wednesday at noon. The youngster weighs 9 3/4 pounds and is one of the finest looking babies in these parts. Both the young mother and son are doing well.

ROTARIANS MEET TODAY—The Rotary club will meet today at the American Kitchen at ten minutes past the noon hour. The following is the order of the day: Harry M. Blair, chairman; "Vici Kid of East Leather," H. A. Diehl, H. A. Diehl Shoe Co.; "Hot Water Pris' Any Time," H. A. Eye, Southwestern Solar Heater Co.; "Service," Dr. John Dennett, Hassayampa Creamery Co.; "Those Fixtures," T. J. (Tom) Coston, So. Calif. Hardwood & Fixture Co.

FILED ANSWER—The Southern Pacific company yesterday filed an answer to the complaint of the Tucson Shipper's association against the switching charge of $2.25 on freight taxed against each car that is switched by the company either to the other railroad or to an industry track. The company excuses the charge on the ground that it is recognized by the interstate commerce commission. The original complaint was filed some time since before the Arizona corporation commission.

WILL COMPLETE WHO'S WHO—Jo Conners will leave tonight for a trip through the north in the interests of Who's Who in Arizona. The final edition of the book, the 1914 De Luxe edition will be ready for the press within a month. Jo says that although he cannot use his own picture as a candidate for the legislature on the democratic ticket, the work will be issued in time to get those who are candidates before the people late in October. Practically the entire edition is ready for the binder, but it will be kept open for a few days longer in order to allow the candidates nominated at the primary to present their claims through the state boast book.

A DAYLIGHT BURGLARY—The residence of Henry L. George was burglarized yesterday sometime between ten o'clock and noon. An entrance was made through a rear door which was not locked. The house showed evidence of having been thoroughly ransacked but the thief took nothing away except what he could conceal in his pockets. Among the missing articles were two pairs of cuff buttons, same having the initials "S. B. T." and the other only "S.". They were the property of S. B. Taggart of the reclamation service who has rooms at the residence of Mr. George. There were also stolen a set of pearl shirt buttons, a stolen pin with a green oblong stone and several other small articles. The silver was put into a deposit vault at one of the banks early in the summer and had not been brought back. About two months ago the house was burglarized in precisely the same manner wherefore Mr. George fears that somebody has formed an evil habit.

Miss Pauline Reeves, member of the Armstrong Baby Dolls company, appearing at the Columbia theater, is at the Phoenix Hospital, suffering from severe neuritis about the head and body possibly induced by an automobile accident. She was struck by an automobile early this morning, while standing at the side of the car in which she and another girl of the company and two young men had ridden out on North Central avenue, four miles from town, after the close of the night's performance at the West Adams street play-house.

The young woman from the theater accepted an invitation to take a ride along Central avenue when the engine stopped at the intersection of Central and North Central avenue, four miles from town, after the close of the night's performance at the West Adams street play-house.
