Gala Night at Murray-Anderson's Will Provide Novel Entertainment for Lovers of Dancing—Special Exhibitions

It is "Gala Night" at Murray Anderson's tonight, and this newest and most popular amusement place will offer another of those entertainments which have already become the delight of Phoenix. In addition to the popular dancing, there will be a number of exhibitions by John Murray-Anderson, unquestionably the most wonderful dancer who has ever appeared in this part of the country. The "lucky dances," which made such a hit last week, will be repeated, and a number of other novelties introduced which will quickly become popular.

As usual on these occasions, several of the steps of the newest dances will be demonstrated and the floor thrown open to patrons, without charge, that they may test their skill. Equipped with a splendid dancing floor and a particularly good orchestra, the charming place which Mr. Anderson has provided for his patrons has become a mecca for the dancing public and a boon to amusement lovers seeking something new and attractive. It fills the same need in the winter amusements that Riverside park supplied through the summer months and it is conducted in such a manner as to be a real asset to the city.

All through the week it was thronged with people every evening and the attendance this week has demonstrated that it was not merely a passing fancy. Classes and clubs are now being formed, which will keep it open every night through the winter, excepting Sundays, and it is planned to have it open to the general public at least two and possibly three nights each week. Information regarding the classes may be obtained either from Mr. Anderson or Mr. Davies at 324 East Washington street.

Broncho Billy picture; an Edison detective reel and a split Lubin comedy. A good program all the way through.

The Arizona
Jack London's masterpiece "The Valley of the Moon" will be repeated again tonight at the Arizona theater. The story so well interpreted by Myrtle Steadman who is well known here, packed the house again last night in spite of the fact that the temperature suddenly cooled off unexpectedly. The picture is one of the finest that has ever been shown in Phoenix and will no doubt pack the house again tonight.

The Regale
A wealthy couple, who have lost their only child, decide to adopt an orphan. At the asylum they see many children, but one, little fourteen-year-old Ella wins an immediate way to their hearts. A few days after her adoption, a thief decides to raid the house. Leaving his pals, a woman and a dog friend, to watch outside, he enters the house. The child in her room above, hears a sound and creeps down. She finds no one and goes back to her room again. But the thief has seen her—she is his daughter. When his wife died, leaving him alone with the girl, he could not care for her and put her in the asylum. The father's heart is torn, but he realizes that she will be happier in the new home. And out of the darkness there comes to him a determination to be a better man.

The Darkies
This is the story of "Out of the Darkies", an exceptionally interesting Rex drama, the feature offering today at the Regale theater, 216-212 East Washington street. Robert Leonard, Ella Hall and Hazel Buckman are cast in the leading roles.

The Masked Rider
"The Masked Rider," a Powers drama, featuring Edna Maison, a Universal Reel comedy, "Almost a Hero" and "The Diamond Snipers," a Joker comedy, with Max Asher in the leading role, complete the excellent program.

WOULD HAVE CITIES PROVIDE SUBSTITUTE

Bill Authorizing Municipal, Club Houses to Take Place of Saloons Now Being Prepared

Among the measures suggested to provide a substitute for the saloon is a plan to have cities and counties construct and maintain club houses for men. A bill empowering this procedure on the part of municipal and county governments is now in course of preparation by Dr. W. W. Schenk of Flagstaff and will be presented in the next legislature. The bill will authorize the maintenance of social centers equipped with entertainment features for men, such as bowling alleys, pool rooms and other amusement devices. It is said that the measure is to be the change of show tonight at the Columbia. This time it will see under the somewhat ambiguous title of "Oh Baby". It is a well defined plot straight with laugh after laugh and deserves a place unique in the history of American made comedies.

Mr. Lewis has taken the original comedy set in a frame work of music interspersed it with chorus numbers and spiced the whole with plenty of singing and dancing to make it conform to the standard of a libretto, but we are to believe that he has but added to the original humor of the comedy and it should prove a splendid offering at the Columbia.

All of the cast will be seen in parts suited to them for the director is authority for the statement that there is not a bill in the repertoire that is as actor proof as his clever comedy. It is naturally an audience pleaser and will be held for the final half of the week.

JAPS IN CALIFORNIA

Many Own Farms and Valuable Town Lots

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 18.—California has 231 farms owned by Japanese according to the report of George Robertson, state statistician of the board of agriculture, rendered today. Besides the Japanese have under lease 282 farms and own 218 town lots in different parts of California. The total acreage owned by them in farm lands was 12,726, valued at more than $600,000. There are more than 40,000 Japanese in the state.

FIRE BUG GETS BUSY AT HANSEN JUNCTION

Destruction of Railroad Property South of Tempe Attributed to Incendiary.

(Special to The Republican)
HANSEN JUNCTION, Nov. 18.—Fire believed to be of incendiary origin tonight destroyed the best sugar loading platforms and part of the stock loading pens at this siding of the Arizona Eastern. When discovered the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to do much more than prevent the spread of the flames. Passengers on the night trains to and from Maricopa were greeted by a spectacular illumination. The train service was not delayed more than a few minutes in either instance.

The report of the fire at Hansen Junction, an Arizona Eastern siding a few miles below Tempe, on the line to Maricopa, created considerable of a stir in this city late last night, for it seemed to indicate that the firebug who caused seven or eight more or less disastrous fires in the eastern end of the city a few nights ago, has made his way down the line and may be leaving this section. His last attempts at starting fires in this city met with such a warm reception from the guns of the night watchmen, it is believed he became afraid to continue his nefarious work in this district.

CASE IS CONCLUDED.

Kidnaping Case Against Miners Is Ready for Jury.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH)
BOULDER, Mont., Nov. 18.—The prosecution concluded its case against "Muehle" McDonald, Joseph Bradley, and Joseph Shannon, Butte mine workers, charged with kidnaping. District Judge Clark adjourned court until tomorrow morning, taking under advisement the motion of the defense to dismiss the cases because of insufficient evidence. The defense maintains the prosecution had adduced nothing to support any charge more serious than false imprisonment. Former Sheriff Tim Driscoll, recently ousted because of alleged failure to perform his duty, declared on the witness stand he saw nothing to arrest any one for, although he admitted having seen three Western Federation miners deported by mine workers. He said he always arrested if occasion demanded.

BETTER TIMES WILL COME SURE

America, Storehouse of the World, Key to Supply to War-swept Europe, Whose Countries Must Buy Our Stuff

Of the several American organizations whose trade is world-wide, none is in better position to report on agricultural and foodstuffs conditions than the John Deere Plow company. The following statement prepared by the company is reprinted here through the courtesy of the Ryan Vehicle and Machinery company of this city, this concern being the exclusive Maricopa county distributors for the products of the John Deere company.

"In Europe great armies are engaged in a war of destruction; here at home we are looking to our finances, our shipping and upon new avenues of production to supply the ever increasing demand made upon us by the nations of Europe.

Europe is exhausting its supplies of all food-stuffs; horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, and her hunger for American products is daily becoming keener. The provident farmer is bound to become rich in the next few years if he will realize that now is the time to produce—to sell.

"Government reports show that the exports for the month of October just passed were double what they were in 1912 and 1913.

"Some idea of the tremendous demand upon the American farmer can be gained from the comparison shown in these interesting figures:

- Barley: Last month 2,800,000 bushels, bringing $1,750,000 into this country. One year ago 250,000 bushels, bringing in $163,000.
- Oats: Last month 10,750,000 bushels, bringing $5,600,000. Year ago 300,000 bushels, bringing $150,000.
- Rice: Last month, 10,500,000 pounds, bringing $475,000. Year ago 1,500,000, bringing $45,000.
- Wheat: Last month, 712,000 bushels, bringing $830,000. Year ago 146,000 bushels, bringing $92,000.
- Wheat: Last month, 26,000,000 bushels, bringing $25,500,000. Year ago 12,000,000 bushels, bringing $11,200,000.

Canned beef jumped from 365,000 pounds at $50,000 in 1913 to 2,885,000 pounds at $500,000 this year, and fresh beef from $35,000 at $75,000 to 7,000,000 at $979,000.

The total value of goods exported last month was $46,500,000 as against $18,500,000 a year ago, showing a difference to the credit of 1914 of $28,000,000.

"This great European war demand upon the American farmer should show him the absolute necessity of securing the largest crops possible from every tillable acre under his control—to farm more intensively than ever before. If ever there was a time for aggressiveness, it is now, for the American farmer must fill the bread-basket of the world.

Cannonading on North

PARIS, Nov. 18.—Tonight's official statement says: "The day was marked by a violent and almost uninterrupted cannonade on our front in the north. In the region of St. Mihiel, the Germans have blown up the west part of Chauvincourt, which they mined. There is nothing to report at the remainder of the front."

Send Germans Back

PETROGRAD, Nov. 18.—The following statement from the general headquarters was issued tonight: "Between the Vistula and Warthe our advance guard in an engagement with the Germans, who took the offensive, fell back in the direction of Izourie. The enemy succeeded in gaining a footing in the region of Lentelitza (Lenczyca), Orloff, throwing out advance guards in the direction of Piontek. In East Prussia our troops are going on near the Gumbinnen-Angersburg front, which the enemy is defending."

"In the trenches which we captured near Varschlagen the enemy abandoned more than 300 dead. Among the officers we took prisoners here was an artillery officer sent to the infantry because of a lack of officers in that branch. On the front among the Mazurian Lakes, our troops reached the wire entanglements of the enemy's position and forced them. On the front between Czestochowa and Cracow, we attacked important forces of the enemy detachments of which operating at Lodevitz were routed. In Galicia we occupied successfully two passes over the Carpathians. In the Black Sea our fleet bombarded the barracks and the Radio telegraph station at Trebizonda."

Destroy Kolubar Passages
LONDON (Thursday), Nov. 18.—An official statement issued at Vienna and transmitted by the Reuter Telegram company, says: "In the southeastern war theater several battles resulted in the destruction of the Kolubar passages, but our forces had already crossed to the opposite banks." The telegram, dated Monday, states that 1400 prisoners and much war material were taken. Operations of the Austrians and Germans in Russian Poland forced the Russian main forces in battle, which developed along the whole front under favorable conditions. The advance of the Russians in the Carpathians is of secondary importance.

Diamond Service In New Quarters

Buck Buckley of the Diamond Tiro agency, took his departure yesterday for the large and well tired city of Los Angeles, in order to purchase a set of new fixtures for the new service station that is being prepared in the Craig building, corner of Central avenue and Monroe street. In the above printed picture, Mr. Buckley is seen at the wheel of the Diamond service Studebaker, with his partner "Mack" Somers in the mechanic's seat.

AMUSEMENTS

"Until Death Do Us Part"
Introducing a number of well-known artists, the great multiple reel offering of the Mutual Film corporation, who especially secured the services of numerous new directors and actors under D. W. Griffith's guidance—will be shown today only, at the Plaza theater. "The Great Leap" or "Unto Death Do Us Part" is the title of the feature, which is a four part drama of feud life in the Kentucky mountains. It is remarkable for its large number of legitimate thrills—chief among which is a leap on horseback, made by the hero, with the leading woman clinging to his shoulders, from a high table rock into the deep waters of a raging torrent at the foot of a jagged cliff. Due to the successful photographing of this really death-defying feat of recklessness, the picture would command special attention as a thriller, even were it less valuable as a dramatic offering. But artistically staged by Christy Cabanne, with Mae Marsh and Robert Harron in the leading roles, supported by the great Indian rider, Eagle Eye, and a splendid cast, the production is one of the Plaza theater management is proud to show.

"The Cocoon and the Butterfly"
While "The Perils of Pauline" has been heralded as the feature at the Lion theater today, there is another picture shown that is worthy of top position on any program. "The Cocoon and the Butterfly" is a two act sociological drama featuring William Garwood and Vivian Rich. It contains a great moral lesson and the acting photography and settings are beyond criticism. The cast includes many film favorites, among whom are William Garwood, Jack Richardson, Vivian Rich, Afton Miner, Louise Lester, Harry Von Meter and W. J. Tedmarsh. "The Perils of Pauline" offers splendid entertainment, and the Keystone comedy, "Mabel's Latest Prank" is a scream from beginning to end. Friday and Saturday the Lion will show "The Varsity Race," a college story written by Philip Lonergan and featuring Muriel Ostriche and Irving Cummings. The Lion management strongly recommends this picture.

The Lamara
"The Lost Mail Sack" the Kalem two-reel picture featuring Helen Holmes, will be shown again today at this popular amusement emporium on East Washington street, next to the National Bank of Arizona. The picture is thrilling and the photography with the usual distinctness of the Kalem releases. There will be shown also a
