

The Wagon For You

In buying a wagon you should always look for one of strength, light draft, and one of durability. You find all in a Winona, as it has a hickory axle which is clipped on, leaving no holes through the axle to weaken it, a large skein giving light draft, Iron Clad Hubs which protect the wheels. CALEDONIANS PLAN BOBBY BURNS NIGHT

Will Meet to Arrange Program and Other Incidents of their Annual Evening

With the approach of the birth of Bobby Burns, the Scotch of this city and district are again preparing for their celebration of the day, and have issued their call for a meeting of all members of the Caledonian society, all Scotch, and all interested in the move and desirous of becoming members of the local organization. The meeting will be held at the office of Jeffries Advertising company, 129 North First avenue, Monday evening, December 28, at 8 o'clock.

The date for the celebration which the society will stage is set as January 26. Last year an interesting program with many Scotch features and customs was presented and given on that day, and an even more interesting and complete program is being prepared for this year's occasion. Speeches, addresses, recitations of the famous works of the object of the day's festivities, songs of the Scotch, and solos on the bagpipes of the land, will be included.

An especial invitation is extended to the Scotch of the city who wish to affiliate with the organization. They are especially urged to attend this meeting, become acquainted with the other members, and tell what they will be able to contribute toward the evening in the shape of entertainment.

Already the society has a large membership of the Scotch of this district of the state. Since the occasion of the last meeting of the society there have been found many additional natives who are more than anxious for the date when they may become members. The Caledonians have been one of the most active of the local societies, and they plan to have an even more interesting and intensive series of celebrations and meetings this year than during the years past.

DAVID HARUM WILL VISIT PHOENIX TONIGHT

Perhaps no character in an American play has been more enjoyed than the lovable old Yankee "David Harum," in the stage version of the story of the same name.

Founded on a character who actually lived, the builded better than he knew when he gave to the world "Uncle David." Coupled with his native shrewdness and fondness for a horse trade the old fellow has so many good traits that his propensity for "skinning the deacon" is overlooked in the good he does and the cheer he spreads.

Wm. H. Crane used the old fellow as one of the most successful vehicles in all of his long career and tonight Ed Redmond will serve the play done especially for the Columbia clientele with special sets for the offering, and if the success that has attended the past performances in coast cities is duplicated, the Columbia won't hold the audience.

Mr. Redmond is conceded by even his opposition in stock to be the best David Harum, aside from Mr. Crane, who has played the old fellow, and if the real laugh of the year is wanted, a visit on one of the three nights it is to be offered will bring the result.

David Harum will be the offering also at the Wednesday matinee.

NEAR DATE LOOMS LARGE ON SOCIAL CALENDAR

Smartest Ball of the Year For Benefit of St. Luke's Home.

January 6 looms large on the social calendar, for this is the date set for the smartest ball of the year. For the benefit of St. Luke's home a group of prominent society matrons are planning a charming dance at the Women's club Wednesday a week. Landley Calhoun Morton, president of the Bachelor's club will act as master of ceremonies.

In all the large cities the charity ball is looked forward to as the most important social event of the season and it is planned to make this dance take that position here. The entire proceeds will be devoted to St. Luke's, and no more deserving cause could be found. The tickets are three dollars per couple, or two dollars single, and include a buffet supper which will be served at midnight.

With dancing at the very height of its popularity, the first charity ball is an assured success.
