AMUSEMENTS

"Million Dollar Mystery" at Lion
A six-reel program composed of two pictures of two reels each and two pictures of one reel length and every one good, is the offering at the Lion theater today. "The Million Dollar Mystery" is probably the most attractive as this episode is very interesting and when Flo LaBelle jumps from the swiftly moving motor boat into the ocean she does something that few men would dare to attempt. Another good picture is the Domino production called "Nipped," which is a two-reel story of a fishing village of Mexico, with warfare between Japs and Americans as the theme. The cast is exceptionally good and embraces the Japanese actress, Tsuri Aoki, who took the leading part in the "Wrath of the Gods." "Our Mutual Girl" this week is every interesting as it shows a football game between Yale and Princeton, making a picture out of the ordinary. The comedy number today is a Keystone entitled "His Talented Wife," which contains many very laughable situations.

Coliseum
Tonight will offer the last opportunity to see the vaudeville show which has been the talk of the town for the entire week. The two Harrys in their skating number, followed by Dave Johnson in a period of wooden shoe dancing, with Young and Lee in a distinct novelty offering complete the bill.

Tomorrow night is the regular change night, with everything will be new, both acts and people. Collins and Abbott will offer a line of comedy singing, dancing and talking. The Roiman Kids will be here with their famous program of fencing, dancing and contortions. The Russells, who style themselves the Imperial Equilibrista and the bill. The picture program will embrace both comedy and drama from the best studios of the Mutual forces.

"When Broadway Was a Trail," Arizona Tonight
Good pictures of olden times in America are wanted by present day American audiences which was proven at the Arizona theater last night at two performances of capacity houses for the offering of "When Broadway Was a Trail," in which Barbara Turnant, who played opposite Robert Warwick in "The Dollar Mark," also A. O. C. Lund, the author of the production and of Broadway fame, does splendid work in the feature. The story is laid around Manhattan when it was occupied by Iroquois Indians and the
