PROSECUTORS TO ORGANIZE

County Attorneys of State to Meet at Arizona Club Today to Form Association and Discuss New and Old Laws

To form an organization for mutual benefit and to consider some of the problems presented in the enforcement of recently enacted legislation, the county attorneys of the state will meet in conference this morning at the Arizona club. With but two or three exceptions, all the attorneys have arranged to be here for the meeting.

Although the enforcement of some of the new laws, including the prohibition amendment, will come up for discussion, the primary purpose of the conference is to form such an association of county attorneys as exists in many other states. These organizations, which serve to bring the members together for the solution of common problems, have been found to be beneficial in many ways.

"I do not know whether any action relative to the newly-enacted laws will be taken at this meeting, or not," said County Attorney C. B. Wilson of Coconino county last evening. "That will be for the attorneys to determine. There are, however, certain problems connected with some of the old laws, as well as the new ones, which will probably come up for discussion at this time. Those of us who have felt the need of such an association considered this an auspicious time for the newly-elected officials to get together and organize."

Just what stand the county attorneys will take on the proposal made by Governor Hunt to create the office of state defender, which is to come before this session of the legislature, is another matter that may be discussed today. A measure providing for such an official was introduced at the last session, but failed of adoption.

A series of meetings of special interest will open this week at the Nazarene church, under the direction of Rev. W. C. Wilson, district superintendent of the Pentecostal church of the Nazarene. The first meeting will be held Thursday evening.

It is the purpose of Supt. Wilson, who will conduct the meetings, to present the old-time gospel message, and an invitation is extended to all to attend. The services will be held at 7:30 o'clock each evening, with two meetings on Sundays. The church is at the corner of Jefferson street and Fourth avenue.

"BUNCOMBE"

It Don't Always Pay to be Skeptical.
When a newspaper writer and proof reader that works nights can find himself out of dyspepsia, which is most all that class suffer with, it is worth while to know the kind of food used. This man says: "Being a newspaper writer and proof reader, also a graduate in medicine as well, though not practicing, makes a combination that would produce a skeptic on the subject if anything would."

"Day after day I read the proof on the Grape-Nuts advertisements with the feeling that they were all 'buncombe.' All this time I was suffering from dyspepsia from the improper food I was eating at the restaurant. "One day I saw a package of Grape-Nuts at the restaurant and tried some with cream. The food took my fancy at once. After a few lunches on it at midnight I noted an improvement in my feelings, and had feelings that I thought were necessary adjuncts to night work disappeared, and I am able to do much more and better work with less effort than ever before."

"I have used Grape-Nuts as a regular diet since then, and have improved greatly. The old dyspepsia and bad feelings that I thought were necessary adjuncts to night work disappeared, and I am able to do much more and better work with less effort than ever before."

"I was nearly ready to give up and seek health in some other walk in life but thanks to my change in diet I am now all right." "There is a decision given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.
