

NIGHT SCENE AT THE SAN DIEGO EXPO

Night crowd at San Diego exposition.

The Panama-Pacific exposition at San Diego is now in full blast and thousands crowd the grounds day and night. This photo was taken from the Science and Education building, looking toward the Foreign and Domestic Arts and Commerce and Industries buildings. The picture was taken not by flashlight but by the glare of lamps. This is the center of the exposition grounds.

FOOLS CHICKENS; CHICAGOAN INSTALLS ELECTRIC LIGHTS, HENS WORK OVERTIME

Interior and exterior views of Newell's chicken house.

George G. Newell of Chicago says he has increased the daily average of his 150 hens from 26 to 83 eggs by lighting their coop with electricity. He expects to increase this average to an egg every other day from each hen. Without the lights Newell says the fowls eat less and retire earlier.

MARTINEZ OUT; AND IN AGAIN

Witness in Famous Garcia Case Said to Have Been Released by Friends of Convicted Man, Fearing Further Testimony

Freed from the county jail, where he has been held for 19 months, testimony by a witness, Ignacio Martinez, was immediately rearrested yesterday on a felony charge, which, according to County Attorney F. H. Lyman, will be pressed to the limit.

Martinez was the incriminating witness in the case of the state against Garcia, who is now under sentence of death for the murder of Officer Harris in the railroad yards here a year and a half ago. Lyman stated last night it was friends of Garcia, working in order to get Martinez out of the way, who had invoked the habeas corpus in his behalf. Martinez, he said, did not care about getting out of jail. He is a "hard lumber", with charges of robbery and assault hanging over his head. All the while he was being held as a witness, he understood that he would be spared prosecution under the two felony charges if he would speak on the Harris incident. As the Garcia people are appealing the case to the supreme court, Martinez was still being held as a witness when friends of Garcia got him out. The understanding that existed between Martinez and the prosecutor was broken, when Martinez was freed yesterday, and now he faces a prison term for having, as it is alleged, robbed a man named Connory. An assault upon a woman is another charge that may be pressed against him.

An attempt was made at the time of Martinez' first detention as a witness, to get him out on bond, but he could not furnish the money, and so, was compelled to remain in jail. Sympathy for his so-called undesired 19 months in the county jail, was said to be the reason for the invoking of habeas corpus proceedings, but the county feels that it was merely an attempt to get the man out of the way before the case of Garcia comes up on appeal.

ROTARIANS HOLD WEEKLY MEETING

Eyes and Paint Are Considered, and Col. Coggins Has a Double Celebration at Yesterday's Luncheon

"Paint" and "Eyes" were the subjects presented for the consideration of the Rotary club yesterday by L. C. Taylor and Dr. D. D. Northrup, who read the service papers. The meeting was held at the Adams hotel.

A combined birthday party and the nineteenth wedding anniversary of Col. L. W. Coggins was one of the features of the meeting, yesterday being the anniversary of both of those important events. After a presentation speech by Rotarian Blair, Col. Coggins was made the recipient of a cake with nineteen burning candles.

Among the visitors were Postoffice Inspectors C. F. Dutton and C. D. Lowe, both of whom referred to the rapid growth of Phoenix as shown by postoffice receipts and needs, and compared the present force of the Phoenix office with that of six and one-half years ago.

Other guests of the club at yesterday's luncheon were: Representative William Marler of Flagstaff, W. B. Howard of Colorado, Ernest W. Lewis, Manager Savage of the Phoenix

Try this easy way to heal your skin with Resinol

If you are suffering from eczema, ringworm or similar itching, red, unsightly skin affection, bathe the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, then gently apply a little Resinol Ointment. Resinol Ointment is so nearly flesh-colored that it can be kept on the face, hands or other exposed surface without attracting undue attention.

Robber Breaks in and After Looking Through Office, Cuts Open Mail Pouches—Inspector on Trail

(Special to The Republican) ASH FORK, Jan. 15.—An unknown robber entered the Santa Fe depot here last night, and after ransacking the place, slashed open a number of mail pouches, apparently with no other object than to abstract a few letters. Registered and valuable mail matter was locked up at the time and was not disturbed.

Dutton Investigates Inspector C. F. Dutton left last night for Ash Fork to investigate the robbery, which was reported to the Phoenix postoffice yesterday. Information that reached here during the day had it no great loss was sustained. A number of letters, addressed to Phoenix, were taken, however.
