MESA PLAYS HOMING WHITE SOX IN PHOENIX MARCH 31

Manager Langowski Arranges to Bring Chicago Americans to Riverside Park for Game Last of This Month

White Sox versus Mesa Jewels at Phoenix March 31. The schedule for the Chicago Americans' training trip visit to Phoenix this year has been changed since yesterday in just one particular, and that is the game will be played at Riverside park instead of at Mesa.

Infield of Connie Mack. Far from being a piece of flotsam from the wreck of the famous Athletics machine, Collins is said to be going better this year than ever before, and as the Sox second sacker, he will give Phoenix a sensation.

Langowski has not yet selected his own line-up against the Sox, but will have them all on parade within the next few days so as to pick the best of his outfit. He will probably pitch Herb Hall of Phoenix for at least part of the game.

BAND, RIFLISTS AND TENNIS SHARKS TO GO TO THE FAIR

Tucson Celebration Grows In Importance Every Day; Additions to Already Long Program Are Made

Everybody keeps coming and telling me something else to put in the paper about what they are going to do down at Tucson during the fair. Every once in a while some new feature is brought out.

On the first day there will be three matches: 1, for state secretary's cup; 2, individual all-comers' match at rapid fire; 3, individual match at 600 yards.

On the second day, the feature match will be for the governor's cup. There will also be an all comers' match slow fire, and a shoot for the officers' cup.

On the third day brings the adjutant general's match, the Arizona state match and the bull's eye match.

The rifle series will give a one far rate to Tucson for the fair and this will enable riflemen to go to the shoot rather economically.

Horrell will enter the state championship tournament in both singles and doubles—in the latter division with Jack Ainsworth as his probable partner. It was with Ainsworth that he won the doubles trophies in the Border States' contests at the Phoenix Country club last April.

A three day shoot of the Arizona Rifle association is one of the interesting things on the card. The shoot will be held on the famous Wilmot range March 18, 19 and 20.

BOIDO GETS A FACTORY JOB

Winner of San Diego to Phoenix Race Nominated As Rider With Indian Team In Venice 300 Mile Race

Lorenzo Boido's proud kid, for in his voluminous mail yesterday, he received a letter from the manager of the Indian Motorcycle racing team in the Venice Grand Prix event of 300 miles, appointing the winner of the San Diego-Phoenix race of his nomination as one of the factory riders.

Did he accept? Well, now, would a small and enthusiastic Indian in natatorial exercises in a batch of nice clean muddy water?

Paul J. C. Berkum, winner of the first desert race and one of the unlikely contestants in the mud ride last fall, is manager of the event. His preliminary announcement of the program has already received exclusive publicity in the Republican.

The race is set for March 17.

FINANCES AND MARKETS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH] NEW YORK, March 3.—Falling to know a better reason. Wall street was disposed to attribute the further rise in stocks to Berlin's acceptance of Washington's proposals regarding regulation of American exports to Europe.

The market, opening irregularly, soon became strong with an unusually large number of more diversified than recently, but speculative favorites led the movement throughout. Steel, Reading and seasoned dividend payers contributed over forty per cent of the whole.

Specialties moved in a contrary fashion. This was exemplified in the twenty-point rise of General Chemical and an eighteen point decline of Harvester Corporation preferred.

Long time money was easier, half year loans being made at 2 1/2 per cent and call loans at the surprising low rate of 1 1/2 per cent. Foreign exchange markets were irregular with a cessation of recent unsettled conditions.

Among the numerous railways, January returns of the New Haven reported a net increase of $607,000; Boston and Maine, $264,000; and Northern Pacific, a very slight increase. Reading lost $325,000 and Louisville and Nashville, $155,000.

Bonds as a whole advanced despite increased offerings for the European account. Missouri Pacific issues were especially strong. Total sales represented a par value of $2,850,000.

It is interesting to note the fact that the stage was wrong somewhere. Whatever the cause the Columbia has refuted the claim that "Phoenix is not a matinee city."

AMUSEMENTS ELLIS CO. ADDS MISS BABE LEWIS TO CAST

With the first appearance tonight of "Babe" Lewis at the Coliseum of the Ellis Musical Comedy Company will present a roster of principals of a caliber never before attained by any organization of the "tabloid" variety.

Miss Lewis is a recognized artiste of the Elsie Janis type, and is claimed by Manager McGreer as being the best sobriquet possible to secure. She comes with many laudatory press notices and a list of past theatrical engagements that stamp her as being a "big timer."

McGreer claims Phoenix is far ahead of any city of equal population, so far as theatrical events are concerned, and his combining with Homer King of Riverside Park fame, to present a season of high class comic operas and musical comedies this coming summer, with a complete large than any ever seen here, indicates that his idea that Phoenix theater-goers will support a company equally as large or expensive as Oakland or Los Angeles is correct.

The general personnel of the Ellis company now at the Coliseum, is far ahead of any musical comedy organization ever seen in a local playhouse in stock.

HUNDRED DOLLARS IS COST TO EACH CITIZEN TO MAINTAIN GOTHAM

(Special to The Republican) NEW YORK, March 3.—The cost of maintaining New York city in 1914 was $529,941,157 or over $100 for every inhabitant according to the annual report of the finance department just issued.

The report shows that the receipts from taxes, assessments, water rates, docks, ferries, subways and miscellaneous revenues aggregated $197,582,519. From other sources, such as interest on bank balances, and cash payments by the B. R. T. and the Interborough company on account of new railroad construction $481,084 was received.

The outlays on account of new construction aggregated $74,745,418. For the city pay roll there was expended $192,628,439. The pay rolls for educational purposes alone aggregated $34,116,672 and for the public service commission $2,404,183.

The report states that the city has $55,931,270 invested in subways now operating. The city's contribution to the new subways will aggregate $167,837,074 which there had been expended by December 31 last $69,785,116, indicating that the city still has to finance $98,051,962.

SECRET OF GOWNS OF ELAINE IS REVEALED

Lady Duff Gordon, the English gentlewoman, known far and wide as "Laelle," the daring originator of ladies' fashions, makes the gown for Fear White, the beautiful Pathe star who plays the part of Elaine Dodge in the "Exploits of Elaine," now playing at the Lamara theater. By the way four reels of this great serial or two episodes are being shown there today and tomorrow.

It has been a source of wonder to many who have followed this beautiful girl through the mazes of the first serial, "The Perils of Pauline. The secret of her costuming is now out. Miss White is fitted and planned for by Lady Duff Gordon of New York, London and Paris.

Another interesting feature of the picture at the Lamara today is the adventure of the "Twilight Sleep," another scientific wonder of the present century. The magazines all have been full of this for the past year. Its method is demonstrated in this reel. The clutching hand administers it first and then Craig Kennedy, scientific detective, administers it to the beautiful heroine the second time.

The third episode that of "The Vanishing Jewels" is equally interesting with the others. "Hushing a Scandal," a two reel Keystone comedy, is billed for today, also, making six reels in all at the Lamara.

The Regale The leading feature of the six-reel program at the Regale theater today will be the second installment of the Terence O'Rourke series of Universal pictures under the title of "The Empire of Illusion."

In this installment, in consequence of his allegiance to the Princess Terence journeys to Arabia to protect her interests, and to relieve her brother who is in dire circumstances, where he had previously established a Sahara empire. In the course of the expedition a severe battle takes place.

A certain section of the set have desert was chosen for the setting of this picture which was as near like the Sahara as it is possible to be. In addition to this there will be shown a single reel Imp "Within the Gates," with Violet Mersereau in the leading role; "Slow But Sure," a Rex comedy drama, with Ben Wilson and Frances Nelson in the leads, and a two reel Mutual with the headlines of that company leading.

Splendid Program at Lion Augustus Anderson and Chas. H. Maffee take the leading parts in "An Undying Fire" at the Lion theater today. This is a Biograph drama of more than usual interest as the plot is so different.

A governor of a state, his wife and a convict are the principal characters and the story is full of tense situations which are handled well. The Vitagraph two-reel comedy, "A Mix-Up in Dress Suit Cases," gets over well and is a clever film production in which Billy Quirk and a capable company make the most of things. Tom Mix, a general favorite in Phoenix is seen in a Selig comedy entitled "Cactus Jake, the Heartbreaker," and in which Tom Mix pulls off some stunts on horseback. The new General Film Service is making good at the Lion, and is pleasing large audiences.

Matinee Belief Refuted Some one once said in the dim and distant past that Phoenix was not and never would be a matinee city.

GOLDWATER'S have prepared for commencing today another shipment of snappy spring styles in Ladies' Waists of Batiste, French Lawn and Jap Silk—embroidered and daintily lace trimmed in venise and file effects—some have the new two-in-one collar which can be worn either as a high or low neck. FARM ADVISOR VISITS ROOSEVELT DISTRICT

Roosevelt district greeted the farm advisor last night with an enthusiastic meeting, and went further than that, to call another special meeting for a week from tonight, to bring out a still larger crowd to hear Mr. Armstrong detail his plans for helping the farmers help themselves.

HIGH SCHOOL CLUB HOLDS LAST BANQUET

The "Y" High School Club held its last 1915 banquet last evening at the Association building. About fifty boys were present. This is the last of the series of banquets and talks for High school boys.

Lloyd C. Elliott presided as toastmaster. A number of selections were given by the new High School Quartet. They were very clever and well rendered.

The Indian School Quartet under the direction of Mr. Stuey, rendered several selections in the Indian tongue. They were original and brought much applause from the audience.

Harold Stabler gave a toast to the Senior class. Jos. Doran responded to a toast to the Junior, Earl Galpin gave a talk on the future of the "Y" club.

Glenn Jones gave a selection on the cornet which was well received. Francis Geary, the popular coach gave a number of funny athletic reminiscences.

Dean Scarrlett and Lindley Morton, who were on the program were unable to be present at the last moment.

The "Y" club is made up of the leaders in the High School activities. This year was tried more as an experiment by the High School boys and worked out beyond expectations.

The same plan will be carried out next year only on a much larger scale.

Much credit is due to principal C. D. Jones and Lloyd C. Elliott for the success of the club.

PANAMA EXERCISES CLIPPED

WASHINGTON, March 3.—Many features of the elaborate exercises planned for the formal opening of the Panama Canal in July will be abandoned as the result of the action of Congress in refusing to make appropriations for the purpose asked by Senator Garrison. Even the President may not go to Panama.

as they are done at the Columbia will be popular in Phoenix. Tonight will see the same excellent society comedy with Miss Mac Cleary, Mr. Livingston, and the rest of the splendid Redmond cast in the Grace George play.

Paramount at the Arizona Tonight for the last time "The Country Mouse," from the Bosworth studios will be shown at the Arizona. "The Country Mouse" is one of the best pictures the Arizona has offered from the Paramount program in weeks.

Notwithstanding the bad weather the picture proved a great drawing card and owing to its being the last of this excellent feature, the Arizona should have capacity patronage tonight.

Tomorrow May Irwin will make her initial appearance to the Phoenix motion picture lovers in the famous comedy, "Mrs. Black is Back," released on the Paramount program.

At the Plaza "Called to the Front, or Europe at War," is the subject of a thrilling war picture, featuring the trials and tribulations of the belligerent nations of Europe. The picture is a thriller from start to finish.

In addition to this, there will be three other reels of good movies.

Pinto at the Empress All lovers of animals had a treat last night at the Empress, when Pinto, that wonderful little horse, that is making a tour of the United States, and has had the honor of having his picture taken in front of forty-five state capitols, made his appearance on the stage.

Nip, the faithful dog that has endured all of the hardships of the same long journey, received an equal amount of applause. This is a chance no one should miss seeing tonight.

Suppose You Thought You'd Killed Him!

"His hands clenched in an agony of culminating fear, Tom Gallon looked through the window. — —"

"Why had not his bullet gone through that dire face?— —"

Thus it is in this world that those whose arms are empty feel the fingers of fear at their throats; and only those whose arms are filled can look boldly into the night.
