BISHOP AT HUACHUCA—Right Rev. J. W. Atwood, bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Arizona, was at Fort Huachuca yesterday, where he held Sunday service.

FOUND HAND BAG—Two bits in cash and a million dollars' worth of beauty patches, constituting the wealth found in a handbag, picked up on North Third street last night. The find was brought to The Republican office, where it can be claimed by its owner.

ST. PATRICK BALL—Phoenix Circle of the Woodmen of the World, will hold a St. Patrick's ball at Patrick Hall on Wednesday evening, March 17. The arrangements have been in the hands of a committee of three, with Mrs. Clinton Lauver at the head and no pains are being spared to make the affair a glorious success. There will be refreshments and a general good time is promised all who attend.

AGED RESIDENT DIES—Camilo Ramel, one of the best known and most highly respected Mexican citizens of Phoenix, died at the family residence, 447 East Monroe street, Friday afternoon. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church. He was fifty-five years old and for several years had been in the employ of the city. He leaves a wife, five children and two or three brothers and sisters. The cause of death was pneumonia, which he contracted over a week ago. He was a member in good standing of the Hispano-American Society.

BRADFORD IN TOILS—W. S. Bradford around whom a glamor has hung for several weeks because of his open opposition to the automobile license tax and the bond requirements of the traffic ordinance, was arrested on Saturday afternoon by Policeman Skidmore on a charge of carrying passengers for hire without having first secured a license and filled the required bond. Officer Skidmore says he discovered Bradford in the act of receiving money from three passengers in front of the Del Ray hotel. The case will be heard in police court this afternoon.

I will receive sealed bids till Saturday March 20, 1915 for the A. H. Brewer & Sons stock of hardware, goods and inventory at Rich Hardware Co., Phoenix. Terms cash to highest bidder without reserve. F. E. Rich, Assignee.—Advertisement. 1m

VESPER RECITAL AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The Vesper recital at the Arizona School of Music Sunday afternoon was altogether enjoyable. The young ladies reflected credit upon their teachers and the school. Lucile Banta and Ermine Hackbart, pupils of Maude Pratt Gate of the piano department played with much musical feeling and no small degree of artistry while Edith Liebenow, pupil of Frank Lloyd Stuchal, teacher of violin proved herself a true artist. She was ably assisted by Carmelita Ward as accompanist. The following was the program:

The Fountain Schytte
Lucile Banta

ANOTHER "BABE LEWIS"—Another Babe Lewis arrived in town yesterday and made her initial bow. She weighs nine pounds and is the property of Archie Lewis, the popular porter at Stearns' Adam's hotel barber shop.

IN SUPREME COURT—The case of the Leadville Mining company vs. George E. Hemphill, an appeal from the superior court of Cochise county and the case of Frank Powers et al vs. R. R. Earhart, treasurer of Santa Cruz county are set for hearing today in the supreme court.

CLARENCE ICE IMPROVING—Word was received yesterday from the home of Clarence Lee, South Central avenue, that he is slowly recovering from the severe attack of pneumonia which has kept him in bed for more than two weeks. His condition is such now, it is stated, that it would seem there would be little to interfere with his rapid recovery.

MESA DANCE SUCCESS—The dance given at Mesa in the Vance Auditorium, by the First Regiment Band, was an unqualified success. So pleased were the residents of the south side with the music and general good time enjoyed, that Mr. Vance has invited the band to come back on the evening of the seventeenth, and celebrate the birthday of St. Patrick in a fitting manner.

VACUUM SWEEPER WORKING—The vacuum street sweeper, which has been out of commission for sometime, has been again placed at work at night, augmenting the work of the "squeegee" apparatus which has been in successful operation for many months. The work of cleaning the paved streets is being carried out in the best possible manner and at the minimum of cost.

CLEANING UP—Although the general clean-up movement which had been set for Saturday, March 20, has been officially postponed for one week, there are scores of property owners throughout the city who have already taken the hint and are putting their residence lots and vacant properties in the best possible condition. There are still hundreds of lots that are overgrown with weeds and are covered with accumulated brush and other debris.

WOODMEN INITIATION—The meeting of the Woodmen of the World to be held this evening in Knights of Pythias Hall promises to be of more than usual interest. There will be initiation of a number of candidates and as the degree team is under the direction of a new captain, there is every reason to believe it will be especially effective. A new uniform rank company has been organized and there will be drilling. All members of the order are urged to attend.

FRACTIOUS HORSE—A horse harnessed to a light buggy at the rear of the city hall last evening proceeded to make things interesting for the firemen and the members of the police department. The animal became uneasy and started to kicking. He kept this up for several minutes until the police and firemen joined forces and attempted to take him from the buggy. Before they succeeded in doing this he had made kindling wood of the best part of the buggy and was still kicking. Finally the harness was removed and the animal quieted down.

AMUSEMENTS
FIELDING-JOYCE IN DOUBLE ATTRACTION

A strong double feature at the Empress Monday and Tuesday again finds the Empress with a strong vaudeville program, with two of the screen favorites taking leading parts. Romaine Fielding, who is a favorite with the Phoenix people, will appear in a new role, as in this picture he has turned his thoughts toward comedy, which will show that his talent is not all in one direction. Beside this Kalem we present Sheridan's famous four-act comedy, featuring one of the best known actresses of the present time, in the person of Alice Joyce, and when her name is mentioned there is little else to say. In this great feature entitled, "A School for Scandal," she is ably supported by Guy Coombs and a number of other actors, who are of no mean reputation. As in most cases of scandal, the facts are all founded on falsehood, which make many complications which look to be of a serious nature, but something unforeseen happens at the right moment to help the unfortunate ones out, and at last all ends happily. This is one comedy that will keep the audience interested from start to finish, and is one that should not be missed.

THE ESCAPE IS NEW COLUMBIA OFFERING

Tonight will see the first presentation in Arizona of one of the most widely discussed plays in the past twenty years, "The Escape," by Paul Armstrong. This dramatic story of the east side of New York city, is founded upon the question of eugenics. The play, while it deals with scientific mating of the human race, is a gripping love story with a peep at the other side of the wall. The story is of a girl who escapes from a hovel in the slums to fall into a snare even greater when she accepts the "friendship" of a senator and is only saved by the love of a good man who is attracted to her by her beauty and position. The eugenic feature of the play is the example set by the offspring of a brutal father drink crazed and half-demented who has imparted to his offspring the defects in his physical make-up. Paul Armstrong, who wrote the Deep Purple, Jimmy Valentine and other plays dealing with the underworld has made "The Escape" one of the most virile and gripping dramas to be staged in the decade past. Mr. Richmond has taken much pains to provide for "The Escape," a production that will lend much local color to it and bring out the scenes of the slums of New York in which it is set. All of the regular cast is employed in good parts and several augmenting members will be seen in the characterization.

BARRYMORE SCORES IN "NIGHTINGALE"

Hundreds of people appreciated yesterday Augustus Thomas' great scenery, "The Nightingale," as written by that talented American playwright, and played by that equally talented American actress, Ethel Barrymore, shown at the Lamara. It is an exceptional story replete with thrilling climaxes, in which the interest is kept up through the entire, five acts of splendid photography, and excellent stage settings. It will be shown again today. The story is typically American. Probably in no other country could it be so true to life, for in no other country do the conditions exist under which it can be imagined than in America.

"SAINT AND SINNER" NEW ELLIS OFFERING

Tonight's offering of the Ellis Musical company at the Coliseum will be the much discussed George Ade comedy, "Saint and Sinner," and, although the play which was first presented in Boston, was a trifle too risqué for the city culture, in its present form it is said to be disappointing in its lack of naughty lines and situations. The comedy is of the inimitable Ade kind while the situations are ludicrous in the extreme, the plot of the play giving great chance for some excellent comedy. It is a mix-up between a very dignified parson and a tutor of children, and an up-to-date lady who owns a string of race horses, the lady mistaking the parson for a newly engaged horse trainer, and the parson mistaking the lady for the mother of several children he has been engaged to care for. A feature of the program will be an eccentric whirl-wind dance number by Alice Lewis and Eddie Young, while a score of new specialties will be introduced by the balance of the cast.

very good and it is attractively staged. The story is interesting and will hold the attention of any audience. In the majestic offering, today, called, "His Lesson" George Seigman, Billie West and Olga Gray, play the leading parts. This picture shows the regeneration of a gang leader and the closer is a Keystone called "Run and Wall, Paper" and Chas. Murray furnishes most of the fun, which runs throughout, the reel. It is a consistently good program of Mutual Movies, the kind that make time fly.

At the Plaza
The adaptation of the great plays of Shakespeare to the motion picture has given an opportunity for the producers to put before rich and poor alike, the full interpretation of the works of the master playwright of all time. Possibly no one of all the great dramas of the Bard of Avon shows better than "A Winter's Tale," which is scheduled for the Plaza Theater today and tonight. The great play has been produced in three reels of interesting, exciting, beautiful pictures. The exploits of Antigonus and Leontes, the burning of the ship—old-fashioned though it was—all give the picture great interest. In addition the Kalem single, "The Race With the Limited," "Fanny's Melodrama," and "Lucky Hoodoo," making six reels. Watch for the great war picture "King vs. Kaiser," on Thursday.

"The Pit" at the Arizona
Not in weeks has the Arizona offered a more acceptable program than "The Pit," with Wilton Lackaye in the title role. The cast is well selected and the story and speaking production needs no mention as it was one of the greatest successes of the great theatrical magnate W. A. Brady, who offered it for several years. This will be shown at the Arizona tonight for the last time and a rare treat is offered lovers of good pictures. Tomorrow "The Ghost Breakers," from the Paramount program with H. B. Warner, will be shown.
