Death of D. H. McNeil.

At half past seven this morning D. H. McNeil breathed his last. He had been suffering for the past three years and the cold weather was too much of a strain on his lungs. He had been confined to the house for but three days and was conscious till his last moments. He was a resident of Virginia City long before coming here and had been a resident of Tombstone for ten years. He was a blacksmith by trade and followed that profession off and on during his life time. He was 51 years of age and leaves a wife and two children beside a multitude of friends to mourn his loss.
 The funeral will take place from Masonic Hall, tomorrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

Co. G. N. G. A. Ball.

Christmas eve was enlivened by one of the most successful balls of the year, given by Co. G. The Armory was very tastefully decorated. The walls and ceiling were almost hidden from view by bunting and pictures. The latter called forth much enthusiastic admiration from "fair women and brave men." The music was divine and the Huachuca band seemed to be imbued with a spirit of desire to capture an unoffered prize for eclipsing all previous efforts, and succeeded. It was nearly daylight when the last couple said good morning. The memory of the occasion will linger like a pleasant dream in the minds of those who mingled in its pleasure.

A Stranger Foiled.

J. M. Nichols went home about ten o'clock Christmas eve, and on the way noticed that a man followed him at a short distance behind. He entered the house and as usual went to the bath room to bathe before retiring. He had not been in the house more than ten minutes before a knock at the back door called his daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Nicolls there, who asked him who it was. The answer came "It's a stranger." She immediately called her father who, without unlocking the door, asked what was wanted. The stranger answered "I want a drink of water." Mr. Nichols ordered the fellow off, advice which was taken. There is scarcely any doubt but had the door been opened, it would have been followed by an order to give up what money there was in the house. Mr. Nichols had carelessly taken a pocket book from his pocket down town just before he came home, in which he had a couple of hundred dollars and several men standing by, who were strangers must have seen it and followed him, bent upon having it.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

PALACE.
 Mr and Mrs E Oates, Benson; Mrs M E Steel, Fairbank; Jas Allen Fairbank.
 M. D. Scribner came home to eat his Christmas dinner. He was snowed in at Raton for two days and describes the beautiful snow as being anything but pleasant.
 The mercury in the thermometer went down to 17 degrees on Christmas eve and last night went one better registering 16 degrees. Since the establishment of a government service here, four years ago, this is the coldest weather recorded.
 The Florence Enterprise will be issued hereafter from Tucson where the entire plant is being moved. The field in Florence is open to some one, and Mr. Brown's sons are going to take advantage of the opportunity to start a republican paper there to be called the "Florence Sentiment."

A Small Haul.

The New York restaurant kept by Julius Ceazar, was broken into last night and robbed of a half mince pie, a half custard pie and a glass or two of wine. It was not the fault of the thieves that they did not make a bigger haul, for they unlocked the money drawer which they broke open with a hatchet. They found nothing there however that they wanted. An entrance was effected by pushing the front doors. They overlooked a Winchester rifle and several boxes of new cutlery going to show that they are after money and in all probability the same outfit that attempted the robbery of Napa Nick.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions adopted by Rathbone Lodge No. 10, K. of P., Bisbee, Arizona Dec. 18, 1891, on the death of Bro. R. A. Holmes.
 Whereas, Brother Knight, Richard A. Holmes, being shot on Saturday night Dec. 12th inst. died the following day from the effects of his wounds,
 Resolved, 1.—That we greatly deplore the sad death of our brother, and mourn his loss from the membership of this lodge.
 2.—That this lodge deeply sympathize with, and tender its sincere condolence to the parents and friends of our deceased brother in their sorrow.
 3.—That these resolutions be sent for publication in the Tombstone PROSPECTOR, and copies of the same mailed to the sorrowing friends.
 CHAS STRONG,
 T. M. VAUGHN,
 J. G. PRITCHARD,
 Committee.

Another Canal Contract.

Another crew will begin work on the Santa Cruz canal next Monday morning.
 A. J. Davidson has just taken a contract to construct two miles. Mr. Davidson does not believe in very large contracts. He will begin near Amado's field, ten miles from the head of the canal, and does not know how long he will be engaged. He will put on twenty teams—mostly his own—and fifty men. Mr. Davidson's makes the third contract, the others being in charge of Mr. Davis and Mr. Igo.—Citizen.

Yesterday and last night were lively hours in Tombstone. The mines closed down, and between 200 and 300 men took the opportunity to rejoice and be exceedingly glad.

There are quite a number of black-tail deer in Southern California, markets, shipped from Mexico. Some of them are quite large weighing over 100 pounds dressed.

The ore being shipped from the Golden Rule mine pays $40 over all expenses at the mill at Pinos Altos. Another grade of smelting ore pays over $80 at Pueblo where it is smelted.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Tomlinson vs the S. P. road for $50,000 damages for the killing of her husband, could not agree and were discharged.

As Ayer's Sarsaparilla outstrips all other blood purifiers in popular favor, so Ayer's Almanac is the most universally familiar publication in the world. It is printed in ten languages, and the annual issue exceeds fourteen million copies. Ask your druggist for it.

The special quality of Ayer's Hair Vigor is that it restores the natural growth, color and texture of the hair. It vitalizes the roots and follicles, removes dandruff, and heals itching humors in the scalp. In this respect, it surpasses all similar preparations.

Slaughter and Hudson have placed their cattle at La Junta, Colorado for the winter. They are feeding alfalfa at $3 per ton. Mr. Slaughter, who has just returned from there says that the eastern cattle market is stronger, and improving, without much probability of any back set.
