his paper is published at 406 Alamo street, under Occidental Hotel, San Francisco, Cal., where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

LOCAL NOTES.

Have you seen the circus?
No Eastern mail last night.
Who has not heard of the snow-clad hills of Arizona?
The cold snap has played sad havoc with the water pipes.
The sessions of the public schools were resumed yesterday.
There was not a single case before the police court during the holidays.
The skating rink is being well patronized by the ladies of Tombstone.
The injunction suit against the county will be heard before Judge Street to-day.
Herman Summerfield is expected to arrive in Tombstone from San Francisco in a few days.
The salaries of the various county officers were paid in coin to-day—and yet they are not happy.
The EPITAPH was awarded the contract for doing the county advertising and job printing for the year 1886.
An entertainment for the benefit of the public library was given last evening at the residence of Mr. Robert Eccleston.
The city council will hold their regular meeting to-morrow evening. The annual reports of all city officers will be presented at that time.
The small boy was happy yesterday when the circus band-wagon paraded the streets, crowded with the gaily uniformed musicians.
The Mail and Express says: Senator Robb has been sent to France to study forestry. Has the administration "taken to the woods" again, or is it up a tree?
Chicago has a new magazine. It is called The Hog, and the Chicago Inter-Ocean says its "enterprising" publishers are pushing it to the front.
Frank Abbott and Tom Ewing are on their way from Nogales with several hundred Mexican horses, which they will place upon the Tombstone market for sale.
C. S. Abbott and J. E. Durkee will take their departure this morning for Tucson, for the purpose of examining some mining property in that neighborhood that is said to be very promising.
Mayor Thomas has received a letter from the party in Tucson holding the $10,000 city bonds. The holder of the bonds wants the money. The city has no money. What are we going to do about it?
The Bisbee stage brought in the report last night that four Apaches were seen in the neighborhood of Sandy Bob's ranch yesterday. They are evidently laying in wait for the purpose of capturing the squaw, which was taken prisoner there last Friday by Charley Crouch.
Judge A. O. Wallace yesterday tendered his resignation as clerk of the board of supervisors and the same was accepted by the board. Judge Wallace has made a most efficient and obliging clerk, and retires with the best wishes of all with whom his official position brought him in contact.
Joseph Tasker, an old and substantial citizen of Cochise county, is visiting Tombstone. "Joe" has renounced merchandizing and taken to raising fat cattle. The Soldiers Hole ranch, with which Mr. Tasker is connected, is one of the best cattle ranches in Arizona, having water and grass in abundance.
Our old townsman, A. E. Fay, has purchased a one-half interest in the Morning Hour, a daily paper published in San Bernardino. Fay is one of the best journalists in the country, a genial, good fellow, and B. O. Scanland was fortunate in securing such a partner. The EPITAPH wishes the new firm abundant success, and trusts the good people of that charming city will give them the patronage they deserve.

Facts from across the Line.

SAN PEDRO, January 3, 1886.
It is said that Chief Engineer Keefe, while on his way to the interior of Sonora, partook of some of "Montezuma's delight."

That mescal affects "gringos" in a queer manner.

That Tom Atchison must have a bonanza in Sonora, judging from the outfit that he put through the custom house a short time ago.

That the irrepressible George Warren is a very lucky prospector, and that he was at the helm in the aforesaid outfit.

That two Americans were tied and taken to Bacnachi, accused of setting fire to Wm. Miller's house, but for want of evidence were discharged.

That San Pedro ought to be the "Nogales" or "El Paso" of this portion of the frontier, in time.

That Mr. E. A. Price, the thorough business manager of the Cananea properties, is taking a pump and a good lot of supplies into the country to prosecute developments.

That the Sonora Land company keeps "ye bloated Aztec land owner" hopping around very lively, proving up titles and surveys.

That the Elias Brothers have fine cattle for sale at reasonable figures; and also fine lands in this state which can be acquired.

That the Mexican Treasury Department has imposed fines on every importer through this custom house for the months of September and October, on such technicalities as omitting a number or a mark on a package, even on lots that can be packed on a burro.

That the treasury officials realize a handsome sum thereby, and on being interrogated on the wherefore, answer that, according to the new laws, their wages were subject to a discount, and that they must make up some way.

That Xmas was observed at Marks & Dowell's in true orthodox style.
That the famous Pesqueira hacienda is in a bad way since the old gentleman's illness.
That a smelter would be a paying institution at the head of the Sonora river.

That this custom house is devoid of regular officers, with the exception of a collector.
That gold placers are said to exist at a short distance from the San Pedro.
That the Mexican government employs about 1,000 mounted custom inspectors, besides the regular custom-house guards, at an enormous outlay, with no reasonable returns.

That the Monitor, of Mexico, publishes a list of newspapers that are subsidized by the government to defend it, at a cost of $50,000 a month.
That the Mexican press is at a disadvantage, as one half of its editors languish in limbo most of the time, for criticizing official acts.

That there are rumblings heard in the underground workings of Mexican politics, and that an earthquake is not far distant.

That Crook's darlings, after stealing Sandy Bob's stock, came into the San Jose mountains and killed one of Mr. M. Elias' vaqueros, at a spring not further than five miles from this place. The herder had left his cattle and gone to the spring for water. He drank and sat down to rest, when the red devils shot him at short range, putting four bullets into him. They then took his pistol and horse and retreated into the heart of the San Jose mountains. The trailers report them to be twenty in number, with large, well shod horses.

That Uncle Sam's blues are in pursuit of the Indians and that there was heavy firing heard in the mountains.

That the "beautiful" fell in large quantities in San Pedro and surroundings, and that a poem on that subject would not be appreciated in this country.

GRAFT.
Wanted.
Two thousand feet of second-hand inch or inch and a half pipe. Inquire at Joe Hoefler's, Tombstone.

L. W. Blinn left yesterday for California. He will be absent some two weeks.

The Apache squaw will have a hearing before Judge Easton to-day at 10 o'clock, in the county court room.

The soldier who killed the Mexican cattle thief at Fort Huachuca was tried before Commissioner Adam yesterday, and was held to answer before the United States grand jury.

In the selection of Mr. Vickers as their clerk, the board of supervisors made a first-class appointment. Mr. Vickers possesses splendid clerical ability and will give satisfaction to all.

Max Marks arrived in town from the Custom House to-day. Messrs. Marks & Dowell are doing a splendid mercantile business at that place. They are both deserving gentlemen, and the EPITAPH wishes them success.

A DARING DEED.

Well Planned and Successfully Carried Out.

Safe of the Treasury of Apache County Robbed of $11,166.54 by Five Masked Men.

(St. Johns Herald.)

On Sunday evening about 7 o'clock five masked men went to the house of Francisco Baca, deputy treasurer, and forcing in the door, made a rush for the bed where he was sleeping, and grabbing his pants, commenced searching the pockets, taking the keys of the inside door and vault of the safe. They then at the point of the pistol compelled him to get up and dress; two of the party remaining to prevent the inmates from giving an alarm. The others took him to the treasurer's room in the court house and compelled him to open the safe, the outside doors of which is worked by a combination lock. After the safe had been opened the robbers ransacked the contents, taking over eleven thousand dollars in cash, about two thousand of which was in gold and silver coin. At the time there was over five thousand dollars in checks which the robbers did not get, probably not wishing to take the risk of negotiating them, they all being for sums ranging from $100 to $500.

After taking the funds from the safe, the robbers went out the door of the treasurer's room, and Mr. Baca immediately gave the alarm, but the night being dark and stormy, no trace could be found of them. As near as can be ascertained the guard who stopped at the house of Mr. Baca, left about the same time as did the persons who did the robbery at the court-house. The robbery was evidently well planned, as every movement seems to have gone as smooth as clock work; the whole transaction occupying less than half an hour.

The safe in which the county money is kept is of the Baird make, combination lock on the outside doors, with inside or day doors, and an inside screw door, iron and steel vault, to which is fastened a time-lock attachment, but the latter has never been put in working order since its arrival here.

Up to the present time, as far as we can learn, no news has been obtained as to who the robbers were, what direction they took, or whether they have left the town or not. Although the night was stormy and it had rained just before the robbery, no tracks have been found, leaving the town in any direction, the entire town having been circled just after day-break the next morning.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Hubbell, with a party of men have been almost constantly in the saddle since Monday morning scouring the country for miles around, with hopes of getting some clue or information as what manner the robbers left the town and in what direction.

Several warrants have been issued directing the sheriff to search houses both in St. Johns, Springville and adjacent ranches, but returns from those executed fail to elicit any clue.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of several parties, on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery. Five arrests have so far been made, with warrants out for several more. The gentlemen who have been so unfortunate as to be arrested on suspicion of being connected with the robbery are Messrs. Phin Clanton, Ike Clanton, Ebin Stanley and Lee Renfrow, of Springville, and Mr. Buck Henderson, of St. Johns. These gentlemen will probably have a hearing on Friday or Saturday, the district attorney not being able to get the information desired or witnesses before that time.

City Wood and Coal Yard.

Is now running and offers for sale all kinds of wood, in any quantity, and coal by the ton or sack, at moderate prices, for cash. Satisfaction given. Wood sawed to order. Leave orders at the office, Toughnut and Fourth streets, at Joe Hoefler's store, or with A. J. Brown's stand at Cochise Hardware store.

Job Seamans & Son announce to their many patrons that they have in stock the most elegant and artistic display of diamonds and Christmas presents, etc., that has ever been offered to the citizens of Tombstone. They desire further to inform the public that their reputation for upright, square and legitimate dealing is so well established that they are not driven to resort to deception—hanging out the "red flag," or advertising "snide prize packages," but on the contrary, they give a "fee simple" to every article sold by them. A No. 1 goods, genuine articles and small profits for cash is their motto.

The following are the lucky numbers that drew the prizes on exhibition at Schmieding's jewelry store: 112, 173, 63, 122, 200, 75, 130, 416, 385, 137, 167, 219. Parties holding these numbers will please call at Mr. Schmieding's and present their tickets and receive their respective prizes.

PROSECUTE THE SQUAW.

Gov. Zuleta Says She will be Vigorously Prosecuted Against.
PRESCOTT, Jan. 4, 1887.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAVAGE, Tombstone: SIR—The squaw reported captured with the stolen horses of Sandy Bob should be promptly confined in the county jail and proceeded against vigorously according to law, which recognizes no distinction of race or sex for crime. C. MEYER ZITLICK, Governor.

The Phoenix Herald says Dilda, the murderer of Deputy Sheriff Murphy, was sentenced at 4 o'clock p. m., to-day, by Chief Justice Shields to be hung February 5th, between 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. Dilda said that his trial was so speedy that he had no time to get his most important witnesses, and that he was innocent of the crime for which he was convicted. During the time that sentence was being passed upon him he remained absolutely unmoved.
