CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

THE hard times have had one good effect in Pima county. A number of men have set to work chloriding around the Santa Rita and the ore shipments are now quite considerable from that district.

GOV. ZULICK, in his endeavors to explain away that proclamation, is like a man trying to struggle out of a mud-hole. Every step he takes sends him deeper into the mire.

IN our telegraphic column will be found an interesting message from London, which intimates that the government contemplate the introduction of a bill imposing moderate duties on imports.

TUCSON is now promised, for certain, the commencement of her two proposed railroads—the Calabasas and Narrow Gauge—within a few weeks.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Citizen, writing from Gila county, says that it is universally believed among the settlers in that neighborhood that the renegades will soon make an attack on the reservation in force, for the purpose of regaining possession of their squaws.

IT appears that the Apache squaw, now in durance vile in this city, was held by the Indians against her will and desired to get away, so that we cannot regard this as a legitimate capture.

THE EPITAPH trusts that the city council will make a proper showing to Mr. Sanford, the holder of city bonds, at their meeting this evening.

OUR evening contemporary announces in a very prominent manner that it is the official paper of Cochise county. Our e. c. is a little premature in this matter.

Zulick on the "Thirteenth."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—In reply to a request from Senator Morrill, chairman of the Senate committee on territories, Gov. Zulick of Arizona has furnished a statement of the territorial debt and how incurred.

A Chinese banker, Han Qua, of Canton, is said to be the wealthiest man in the world. He pays taxes upon an estate of $450,000,000, and is estimated to be worth $1,400,000,000.

Some one wrote Gen. Sherman a letter requesting a lock of his hair and an autograph. In reply the general said: "I regret to state that, as my orderly is bald, and as the man who formerly wrote my autographs has been dismissed, I cannot comply with your request."

At the recent meeting of a philosophical association in New York, the president, Mr. Latimer, read a paper on the "Migration of Races," in which he maintained that the Anglo-Saxons are the remains of the lost tribes of Israel.

Protection for Great Britain

LONDON, Jan. 4.—It is rumored that the cabinet has reached a decision on the tariff question. A bill, it is asserted, is to be prepared for introduction into parliament authorizing the imposition of duties on imports into Great Britain from countries imposing duties on British goods.

The EPITAPH was in error yesterday in its statement, that the soldier had been held to answer before the U. S. grand jury. The facts are that Commissioner Adam had his case under advisement yesterday morning turned him loose.

Harry Brook, one of the most widely and favorably known newspaper men on the coast, accepted a position on the EPITAPH to-day, and in the future will chronicle the good deeds of our christian inhabitants.

The French government would like to give the army the privilege of wearing beards, but feels the necessity of first consulting several high military authorities, as the opinions on the subject are contradictory.

A Good Illustration.

A Marietta, Ga., correspondent writes to the Atlanta Constitution the following: Cobb superior court met here last Monday, Judge Joel Branham, of Rome, presiding. Judge Brown was disqualified from presiding. Judge Branham has won many golden opinions from our people by the impartial charges to the juries and his just but lenient sentences.

The charge of Judge Branham to the grand jury was strikingly forcible, and particularly so in expounding the duties of working the public roads. In regard to breaking up the practice of carrying concealed weapons, he gave an illustration that came under his observation while a practicing attorney in Rome. He had a clerk in his office who was in the habit of carrying a derringring pistol in each of his vest pockets.

Man for Master.

A good story is told about town at this moment, says a Pittsburg Dispatch correspondent. There is a great demand for persons connected with the foreign legation. They are invited everywhere. Young attaches who could not get inside of a fashionable door in London, Paris, Berlin, or the city from whence they came, are here lionized to a degree that makes their heads swim.

"Give it to your valet," said his merry friend. "I'll wager they will never discover the difference; he's such a bloody Englishman. They don't know you. All they want is somebody there, you know. By Jove! what a lark!"

What transpired there may be imagined, from the fact that among the dinner guests given in the society papers was the name of the young secretary, and from the account of the affair which has leaked out through other servants to whom the valet confided the story, it would seem from the latter that the valet got along very well until the wine began coming around to him too frequently.

In his recent talk to the Yale Kent Club Prof. Sumner said that no State should be compelled to educate the children of its citizens. "And no man should marry," he continued, "unless he can afford to support and educate his possible children. People talk about the rights of the parent and the duty of the child, but I tell you that a man who is the cause of his child's existence owes the child everything instead of being owed everything by the child."

Mr. Howells is catching it again. A number of Boston women are rising up and saying that all his female characters are like the sex, and asking him what he means by such conduct. Such a storm always arises after Mr. Howells has written a book.

One man was asked by another, with whom he was not on the best of terms, where he had taken up his abode. "Oh," he replied, "I'm living by the canal. I should be delighted if you would drop in some evening."

NOTICE!

To the Occupants of Lots on the "Way Up" Mining Claim Surface.

I have heretofore notified you that I own three-fifths of the surface ground of the Way Up mine. I now notify you that I claim no right to said ground against any one who has been in possession of a lot or lots thereon for five years, as I think the five years statute of limitation commenced to run on September 22, 1880, when the patent to the townsite issued.

But, as to all of the lots on said Way Up mine now vacant or unoccupied, or that have lately been settled on or bought from the townsite claimants, or claimants under the Way Up mine, I will assert my rights, but will sell at a reasonable price, reserving my right to refuse to sell to any one who, by purchasing lots as aforesaid from other claimants and paying for more than two-fifths thereof has identified himself with the frauds.

N. B. The two-fifths interest in said Way Up surface which I do not own or claim, does not belong to any one in Tombstone, as near as I can find out by the records of the county.
