LOCAL NOTES.

Democracy an on the "kick." Keep quiet boys, keep quiet! Snow still lies in a few sheltered places around Tombstone.

Judge Street made the constables of this county happy by his decision yesterday.

Joe Brown has been confined to his bed for several days past with an attack of bilious fever.

Dr. D. McSwegan is rapidly recovering from the serious injury he received from falling on the ice.

The raffle for the crazy quilt will take place to-morrow evening at 7:30 at the Occidental Hotel parlors.

The Tombstone Amateurs will hold a rehearsal at 8 o'clock sharp this evening at Schiefflin Hall. All are requested to attend.

The Apache squaw was allowed to sun herself in the jail yard this afternoon, a privilege which the child of freedom seemed to appreciate.

The supreme court of the territory ordered a rehearing in the case of the Copper Queen vs. the Copper Prince. This will undoubtedly reopen the entire case.

Charley Nichols, son of our fellow townsman "Nappa Nick" arrived in the city last evening from Oregon. Mr. Nichols is a plumber by trade, and will work with Mr. Fredricks.

J. V. Vickers has for free distribution at his office on Fremont street some magnificent calendars for the year 1886. Mr. Vickers will be pleased to accommodate parties calling for same.

Travel is very light on the Southern Pacific road. The recent change in the time schedule of the Atchison road has diverted considerable travel to the Atlantic & Pacific.

Mrs. Elizabeth Billings, an aged lady, died last evening at her residence, between Safford and Bruce streets on Fourth street. Mrs. Billings will be buried this afternoon at half-past two from her late residence.

A Cohen, of the New York Store, has employed ten policemen for the purpose of preserving perfect order amongst the eager surging crowd that surrounds his establishment daily. This proves what advertising in the EPITAPH will bring forth.

When it comes to talking about a sanitarium, no place in the Territory can compare with Tombstone. Her bracing mountain air is a perfect corpse reviver. Travelers in search of health should not fail to visit the mining metropolis of Arizona.

Prof. John A. Church and wife, well and favorably known to the people of Tombstone, are about to quit the sacred precincts of the capital. The Courier says, Prof. Church and wife will very soon bid their many friends good-by and start for the Atlantic states.

The annual report of the City Auditor shows that the floating indebtedness of the city on the first of the present year was $5,692.10, as against $8,670.52 on January 1, 1885, showing a reduction during the year just ended of $2,978.42. The bonded indebtedness remains at $10,000.

Will Nichols departed yesterday for Tucson for the purpose of meeting his wife who arrived at that place last evening. Mrs. Nichols has been visiting friends in California. The couple will arrive in Tombstone this evening. The EPITAPH welcomes the little lady back to her home.

Clum says if there is a better looking squaw-interpreter in town, turn him loose, Why, Clum, you have succeeded by your interpretation of the Apache language, in holding the poor thing to answer to a charge of which she knows absolutely nothing. What in the old Harry would the other fellow do?

THOSE $10,000 BONDS.

How, When and Why They Were Issued.

A brief statement of facts in relation to the $10,000-city bond question, which is now agitating the Council, may be interesting to EPITAPH readers.

The Twelfth Legislature, in 1883, passed an act "to provide for the erection of public buildings in the city of Tombstone and other matters relating thereto." This act authorized the Common Council of Tombstone to issue bonds not exceeding in the aggregate $10,000, for the purpose of erecting a city hall and jail, bonds to bear interest at a rate not to exceed ten per cent, payable half-yearly, the Mayor and Council to levy annually a tax sufficient to pay interest and a further additional tax as may be required, to raise a sum sufficient to pay and redeem not less than $2,000 of these bonds on January 1st of every year, until the whole are paid and the Treasurer of the city is required to set apart, out of the general fund, every year a sufficient sum to redeem $3,000 of said bonds. The moneys so set apart not to be used for any purpose other than the redemption of said bonds.

These bonds were purchased by D. A. Sanford of Tucson. The proceeds were applied to the building of the city hall, $6,000; engine house, $1,000, and the balance to the water works. The old Council set apart a fund for redemption, in accordance with the law, but the present Council has omitted to do so. The consequence is that now, when the bonds are due, there is no money in the treasury with which to pay them.

Mr. Sanford appeared before the Council yesterday evening, on behalf of the holders of these bonds. On hearing his statement, it was, on the suggestion of the Mayor, resolved that the Council should meet this morning at ten o'clock, with Mr. Sanford, in committee of the whole, to talk the matter over and endeavor to arrive at some satisfactory arrangement.

The squaw captive. The county court-room was again filled at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, the hour fixed for resuming the examination of the Apache squaw, Nadi-ough.

Mr. Keith Preston was sworn for the prosecution. He testified that he had been employed as herder for Mr. Crouch, and was engaged on his ranch in the Mule mountains. Was at the ranch on December 30th, the day the Indians raided the ranch. He saw some of the Indians. The next day he saw the prisoner riding one of the horses stolen from the ranch by the Indians. He was one of the parties who captured the squaw.

This completed the evidence for the Territory and the prosecution rested. The defense objected to the jurisdiction of the court and submitted the case without offering evidence or argument.

Judge Easton thereupon ordered that the prisoner be held to answer before the next county grand jury, and that her bail be fixed at $1,000, which at this writing she has failed to furnish.

Mr. Clum, who is acting as interpreter in the case, sent the following dispatch to San Carlos yesterday morning:

"TOMBSTONE, Jan 6, 1886. Captain Pierce, Acting Indian Agent, San Carlos, A. T.:

Apache squaw in jail here says she was captured during a recent attack on Reservation Indians by renegades. Says her name is Na-dis-ough. Is relative of Es-kin-os-pas. Can you verify this statement with aid of Es-kin-os-pas? Is Klow-ga-kai Apache name for Fort Apache or vicinity? How many were killed and captured in renegade attack? (Signed) JOHN P. CLUM.

This telegram was sent with a view of identifying the prisoner, as well as to test the truth of her statements. In the afternoon Mr. Clum received the following reply:

SAN CARLOS, Jan. 6, 1885. John P. Clum, Tombstone, A. T.:

Two squaws were captured, Nai-dis-ah and Tea-tazy. The first is related to Es-kin-a-zhab-say and Goo-day-goo-yah. Twenty-one White Mountain Indians were killed. Klow-ga-ka means Fort Apache and vicinity. The squaw's story is undoubtedly true.

(Signed) PIERCE, Captain Acting Indian Agent.

This telegraphic correspondence at least fixes the identity of the captured squaw Na-dis-ough or Nai-dis-ah. Of course there is no correct spelling of Apache names. The sounds are represented as nearly as possible. She told Mr. Clum that her name was Na-dis-ough, and that she was captured by the renegades during a fight near Klou-ga-ka which Mr. Clum understood, from further conversation, was the Apache name for Fort Apache. Captain Pierce in his telegram says: "Nai-dis-ah was the name of one of the squaws captured, and that Klow-ga-ka means Fort Apache." The captive had also mentioned as her relatives the Indians whose names are given by Capt. Pierce. All her statements are undoubtedly true. He says her father and two brothers were killed in the attack on the camp and that her mother escaped. When asked why she did not escape from the renegades sooner she said it was impossible, as at night she was placed between two of her captors and they grasped her by the wrists to prevent her escape. In the day time they led her horse or else one or two of the Indians would precede the captive on the trail and the remainder would follow to hurry them along and prevent their escape. A rough sketch of the Reservation was drawn by Mr. Clum and the prisoner quickly located Fort Apache, Black River, San Carlos, the Gila, the scene of the fight, trails, roads, etc. She says the captain of her band is named Piel-lee. who is an Indian well known to Mr. Clum and who has been upon the reservation at least since 1874.

There is no doubt but that Nadi-ough has suffered as much at the hands of the renegade Chiricahuas as has her pale-face neighbors.

A Variety Possibility.

Tombstone may soon again enjoy the delights of a variety theater. A representative of the Frush circus troupe appeared before the city council last night and asked that body to make a reduction in the monthly tax of $/5 asked for a variety show. Should the council agree to do this, the troupe would open such an entertainment in the Bird Cage. They want to winter somewhere and would try and make expenses this way, but say they cannot afford to pay so high a license. The matter was referred to the license committee with power to act.

In Good Standing.

The present financial condition of Cochise county is very flattering. The contingent fund stands at par, the general fund at 90 and upwards, salary warrants are cash, and all other warrants cash, or nearly so. This state of affairs shows a gratifying amount of confidence in our wonderful resources on the part of capital—and capital is proverbially very careful and timid.

At a regular meeting of the Rescue Hose Company held last evening, the following-named officers were elected for the ensuing term: G. S. Bradshaw, President; A. J. Ritter, Vice-President; James Coyle, Foreman; First Assistant, H. K. Lee; Second Assistant, John Noble; Treasurer, A. T. Jones; Secretary, Lewis Aaron; Steward, Frank Ryan; Committee of Finance—Thomas Summerfield and Cooke. The meeting was very harmonious throughout, and the best of feelings prevailed during the election of officers. This company is one of the best in the country, all being active, energetic firemen, and are deserving well of our citizens whose property they so sacredly protect. The EPITAPH wishes the boys success.

Mrs. Jones, of the International, and Miss Nellie Cashman, of the Russ House, are both going to embark in the hotel and restaurant business at Nogales. Tombstone will be sorry to lose these popular ladies.

H. Summerfield, senior member of the firm of Summerfield Bros., arrived in Tombstone from San Francisco yesterday. Herman is an old and reliable citizen of Tombstone and the EPITAPH takes pleasure in welcoming him to our city.

CITY COUNCIL.

The City Fathers Transact Considerable Business.

A regular meeting of the city council was held at 8:30 o'clock last evening. An unusual feature of the meeting was the presence of the full city council and the further fact that the honorable body was present in the council chamber fully one-quarter of an hour before the time appointed for the meeting.

After the reading of the minutes, the monthly and annual reports of the city officers were read and ordered on file.

The following bills were then read and referred to the finance committee:

- J. J. Patton & Co.....$ 12 00
Record-Epitaph P. & P. Co.... 31 00
Huachuca Water Co..... 10 00
Huachuca Water Co..... 137 00
John Alby..... 16 00
Tombstone Gas Co..... 137 00
W. D. Monmonier..... 5 00
Button Fire Engine Co..... 11 30

A warrant in favor of W. D. Coleman for $5 was ordered drawn on the contingent fund, for board of prisoners.

A warrant for $6 was ordered drawn on the salary fund, for pay of special policeman on duty Christmas night.

The finance committee reported favorably on the bill of the Maison Doree, for $12.50, and a warrant was ordered drawn on the general fund in payment thereof.

It was ordered that two warrants, drawn on the general fund, in favor of the Cochise Hardware and Trading Co., amounting to $16, be canceled and a new warrant for the amount be drawn on the contingent fund.

The drawing of a warrant for $8 on the contingent fund, in payment of expense on fire apparatus, was approved.

A communication was received from the Library committee and referred to the building committee, with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The committee on water works reported progress and were instructed to take more effective action.

It was ordered that $150 be transferred from the general to the contingent fund.

Mr. Sanford then appeared, in regard to the $10,000 city bonds, now payable. Further reference to this matter will be found in another column of the EPITAPH.

A representative of Mr. Taylor Frush appeared before the council, in reference to the license for a variety show. The matter was referred to the committee on licenses, with full power to act, and instructions to report at next meeting.

Council adjourned to meet at 10 a. m., January 7th.

Frush's circus will depart to-day for Bisbee.
