LOCAL NOTES.

Young as the Canadian confederation is, it has a debt of $281,000,000.

The opera ticket speculator is an abomination, but it seems next to impossible to abate the nuisance.

A small relic of civil service reform is kept for a show in the New York custom house.

As will be seen by our dispatches Parrell was defeated in his assault upon the Queen's speech.

The mining superintendents are once more congregating. This looks like business.

Mrs. Jos. Pachly entertained a party of her lady friends yesterday, it being the occasion of her birthday.

George Pithon, of Soldier Holes ranch, is rusticated among the boys in town.

The council voted to keep intact the office of commissioner of immigration. Farish did it with his little whip.

The democrats can shout louder and perform less than any other combination on earth outside of Forepaugh's circus.

While Germany and France are still talking peace, each is using every effort to outdo the other in getting ready for war.

Terrific storms and cyclones are traversing the western states at the present time, doing serious damage in their march.

H. M. Hartson, a well-known mining man of Arizona, arrived from the Cananea mines yesterday, and is registered at the Occidental.

The Board of Supervisors will hold an adjourned meeting, Monday next. It is thought that Theo. F. White will be here by that time.

J. H. White, superintendent of the Contention mine, and one of the sterling old-timers in camp, will arrive in Tombstone this evening.

It were easier to move a mountain with a crowbar than to induce ladies in the street cars to "move up" and make room for another lady.

Including Sundays the forty-ninth congress has twenty-eight days more of life. We suspect that it will shake off before the Chicago anarchists go hence.

T. L. Stiles, one of the brightest attorneys in Pima county, arrived in Tombstone yesterday. Mr. Stiles is here in attendance upon the District Court.

The labor troubles in the east are fast being brought to a close. The strikers are refused assistance from the men who are obliged to work to support their families.

Zalick carried the day against the combined wisdom of the house, but the assembly has the last say upon the appropriation bills, and there is a probability that he will yet receive a set back.

Cochise county can justly compliment itself upon its law abiding community. There are now only five persons confined in the county jail. This is without doubt a better showing than any county can show in the territory and we challenge comparison.

"The unregenerated old hypocrite from Massachusetts"—that's what the Atlanta Constitution calls Senator Hoar. The "new south" is very like the old, and Brer Grady is its prophet.

The Indiana republicans stick to their decision to contest Turpie's right to a seat in the senate. It remains to be seen whether the United States senate will consent to share the Turpitude of this transaction with the Indiana democrats.

Mr. Turpie owes his alleged election to the votes of one man who was never elected, and of two others who were counted in by outrageous fraud. But he is not seated yet.

A bill now pending in the Indiana legislature, proposes to make it merely a misdemeanor, punishable by fine, for a relative of a betrayed woman to kill her betrayer. The law had better be left alone as granting license to commit murder is a serious thing.

San Bernardino county, Cal., embraces a larger territory than the states of Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut and New Jersey. It would make "the eyes of Delaware" to protrude to gaze on such a county.

The Morris Comedy combination which performed here last night are accomplished stage people, having for the past fifteen years lived in most of the cities of the United States. While here our theater-loving people showed their appreciation by liberally patronizing them.

Quijotoa stocks which have been so low and at times not quoted on the stock board, are now being dealt in at San Francisco, by the stock brokers daily. It looks as if they were trying to boom the stock. By reference to our telegraph dispatches it will be observed that all of the Quijotoa stocks are now quoted.

The democratic council are very desirous of abolishing the different county courts in the territory on the flimsy pretext of economy, but yet they refuse to abolish a worthless office which costs the territory $4,500 a year, and does not bring her one dollar in return. Truly the ways of the reformers are difficult.

Messrs. Herrera & McClure have not gone out of business in Tombstone as before mentioned; they have simply taken Mr. Sydow into partnership, and the business will continue as of old. The past trifling difficulties of the firm have all been amicably arranged, and they are now in good condition to go on with their affairs.

Mr. Henry Watterson can't tear himself away from Washington. He is still there, making himself as agreeable as ever. Last Sunday evening he dined at Representative Hitt's with Miss Margaret Blaine, and in ten minutes after he was introduced to her he was sitting on a pale blue sofa by her side, talking music and Rossetti's poetry to her and winning over the daughter of his old enemy.

Once more has our three hundred pound President placed his seal of condemnation upon the proposition to assist the wives of dead Union soldiers, by vetoing a bill for their relief. This gallant man, who maintained his equilibrium in and around Buffalo, New York, during the late unpleasantness, is fierce in his efforts to cripple the Union soldier.

As the strike fizzles out the leader are getting desperate. They propose now to play their last trump—to call out all the stationary engineers and firemen in the city some cold night, and leave New York in frigid darkness. How this would help them does not appear to the ordinary mind. If rousing a just public anger against them would get back their places and procure them more wages and less work they would have had it before this.

During the past week Colonel Hafford added some ten birds to his collection of the feathered tribes of Arizona, among which is a very rare specimen of the hawk family by the name of "devil hawk" by the Mexicans. It is a bird of the handsomest plumage, at the same time it has a most ugly head and vicious talons, besides its beak is almost as sharp as a needle and nearly as strong as the largest hawk. This bird, but for its head, when on the wing would pass for a pigeon.

When seeking his prey he plays pigeon and flies in among them unnoticed on account of his similarity, and easily captures what he wants. He is the picture of grace, beauty and speed. Happily for our feathered family this kind are phenomenally rare, so rare that it is estimated that there are not more than a dozen of them in the territory. The Mexicans are superstitious about him and regard his appearance as an evil omen.

District Court.

Following are the proceedings in the District Court for the week ending Friday.

Reminded of Home.

"By gravity," said a Chicago man the other night at the Chinese ball, during supper, "This reminds me of my native health." "You don't have anything like this in your town, do you?" inquired a fellow saundwin.

"Well, not exactly; but we have some very fair-sized hogpacking establishments in our town you know."

The Tombstone foundry is doing more work than for a long time past. During the past month they have done considerable work for the Charleston miller. At present they are making a large pan of twenty-two hundred weight for the Girard mill. Business has so increased of late that they are now short of hands.

The Beginning Of The End.

The beginning of disease is a slight debility or disorder of some of the vital organs, the stomach, the liver or the bowels usually. There are desiccating symptoms, the liver is troublesome, the skin grows tawny and unhealthy looking, there are pains in the right side or through the right shoulder blade. The climax is often an utter prostration of the physical energies, perhaps a fatal issue. But if the difficulty is met in time with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is always effective as a remedy, and it should be resorted to at an early stage, there will be no reason to apprehend those injurious subsequent effects upon the system often entailed by entirely cured diseases. Far better is it, also, to employ this safe remedial agent in fever and ague and other malarial complaints, than quinine and other potent drugs, which even when they do prove effectual for a time, ruin the stomach and impair the general health.
