

GOULD DICTATES NEW HEAD OF MO. PACIFIC

Makes the Rockefeller-Kuhn Faction Drink Tamely from His Hand

NEW YORK, April 18.—Although forced out of the position himself, Geo. J. Gould, opposing the Rockefeller-Kuhn, Loeb interests, caused the elevation today of B. F. Bush, as president of the Missouri Pacific railroad, defeating David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri. Mr. Bush is president of the Western Maryland railway. The victory of the Gould faction was followed by the announcement of Kuhn, Loeb and company's withdrawal as bankers for the system, and by the resignation of Paul M. Warburg, the company representative on board, and of Cornelius Vanderbilt, as attorney.

Edgar L. Marston, representing Blair & Co., Fred T. Gates, representing John D. Rockefeller, and E. D. Adams, representing the Deutsche bank, voted against Mr. Bush, but did not sever their connection. It is rumored that they also will resign, although this cannot be confirmed. George Gould and Kuhn, Loeb Co. issued statements explaining their side of the case. Mr. Gould regretting withdrawal by Kuhn, Loeb, Co., but congratulating the road on the selection of Bush.

Kuhn, Loeb & Co. stated that they did not favor Mr. Bush and because of his election, Warburg and Vanderbilt felt "unwilling to share responsibility in the management of the company under these circumstances." Missouri Pacific was the pivot of an excited and demoralized market all day. Wall Street had intimations that the board meeting would not be harmonious and the who's market declined violently as a consequence.

SOUTH CAROLINA MEDICAL MEN
CHARLESTON, S. C., April 18.—The South Carolina Medical Association opened its annual meeting in Charleston today with a good attendance of leading men of the profession from all parts of the state. The program covers three days and provides for addresses by Dr. Alexander Lambert of New-York, Dr. Judson DeLand of Philadelphia and several other physicians and surgeons of national reputation.

Our Position Is This

If you can afford to buy anticipations we have naught to say. Continue with the tailor-man and his word-pictures of how you will (?) look in the fabric you pull from the little pile. But if you would have a garment with all the earmarks of "custom-made" at a third to one-half the custom price, we present our case strong in the conviction that Washington Company Suits will give you the actual satisfaction which the tailor-bound man anticipates but seldom realizes. In these ready-for-service clothes the final result is before you—and the tortures of the "try-on," the delays and disappointments are eliminated. We are showing today—styles of Washington Suits for Spring among which is your particular fabric and style.

REPUBLICAN SCHEME TO EMBARRASS THE PRESIDENT USELESS

Democrats Refuse to Tack Free List on Canadian Reciprocity Bill

G. O. P. PLEA IS TOO THIN

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 18.—Democratic leaders are prepared for an attempt by the republicans who oppose Canadian reciprocity to embarrass the democratic majority in the passage of the bill by proposing an amendment embodying all of the free list that the democratic ways and means committee have prepared.

Republicans have charged that if the democrats were in earnest to have this free list passed, they would offer it as a part of the reciprocity bill, so that President Taft could not find occasion to veto it even though it did not meet with his approval.

Chairman Underwood said today that such an amendment would be at once ruled out of order as it could not be considered germane to the bill, under the house rules permitting the offerings of amendments. Cannon will speak at the opening of the session tomorrow, and the other speeches also are scheduled. If Mr. Underwood is successful in bringing general debate to a close tomorrow night, the bill will be brought up for final consideration Thursday.

Henry George, Jr. of New York, in his maiden speech in the reciprocity debate proclaimed himself a free trader and said he had aligned himself with the democratic party because he believed the only great party that was "moving toward the light." Mr. George endorsed the Canadian agreement, as tending toward free trade and believed eventually that the United States would have absolute free trade with the world.

His speech, though closely followed by democrats and republicans, did not arouse and enthusiasm on the democratic side. Later Representative Pickett of Iowa used Mr. George's words to show the democratic party was urging the reciprocity agreement in the belief that it would tend toward free trade. In an anti-reciprocity speech, Representative Hamilton, of Michigan, a republican, quoted Secretary Wilson to the effect that the farm gets only 50 per cent of what the consumer pays for farm products.

part of Sonora and would continue pending the arrangements of a peace conference. Dr. Gomez will not be able definitely to reply to the Mexican government until he receives word from the forces in the field that an armistice is acceptable.

Danger of Complications.
The proposals went forward to Mexico City today after a long conference by Dr. Gomez with friends here last night. It was pointed out to Dr. Gomez that international complications might result from a continuation of hostilities along the American border and that much time was being lost by both sides in the informal overtures being made toward peace.

It was suggested that a speedy termination of hostilities could be effected if Dr. Gomez left for El Paso where he might communicate readily with the forces in the field. If the armistice in Chihuahua and Sonora is arranged, it is probable that similar measures will be suggested for other states where the revolt prevails. Chihuahua and Sonora were included in the armistice because it was believed quicker communication could be effected with the forces there, and it was hoped by those who suggested the plan that other sections automatically would become inactive pending negotiations. The report that a large insurrecto force was marching on Juarez and might participate in a repetition of the incident at Agua Prieta endangering Americans is said to have stimulated those who conferred with Dr. Gomez and suggested the transmission of a proposal of armistice to the Mexican government.

TACOMA MAYOR RECALLED.
TACOMA, April 18.—A. V. Fawcett was recalled today. W. W. Seymour is the new mayor-elect and will take office at the end of ten days. His majority over Fawcett was 852. ### U. S. TROOPS TO MUCH FOR REBELS

Agua Prieta, including the works on the cemetery ridge, sent in a courier to the rebel headquarters stating that they had run out of ammunition and that they could not hold back the federal advance if it were not supplied.

Ammunition Gives Out.
The rebel headquarters sent word that there was no more ammunition to go to the front and at this juncture ordered the rebel horses to be saddled and prepared for evacuation. Word was then sent by scouts to the rebels holding the important trenches to the east of the city and immediately touching the American border. The rebels here had been supplied with the largest amount of ammunition because they staked all on holding this position to prevent a flank movement which would permit the federals to get between Agua Prieta and Douglas.

Make Wild Break.
The rebels at this line of entrenchments were filled with fear that the balance of their army would get away, leaving them directly under the danger of a federal charge, throwing down their guns, many of them broke in any direction where there seemed to be safety. Only this part of the rebel force was disrupted, notwithstanding the desertions of their officers, Jefe Medina and Comandante Balastrera Garcia. The desertion at this point accounts for the hundred horses left behind in the outskirts of Agua Prieta.

Promise to Return.
The balance of the force got away in good order and as they fled past the American customs house they waved their badges and guns at Col. Shunk, who remained at this point all night without a moment's sleep, and said: "We have no more ammunition in Agua Prieta, but we have heavy stores in the mountains and we will soon be back in Agua Prieta. You will hear from us soon."

A severe blow was dealt the rebel cause when provisions as well as ammunition were so closely guarded that the garrison in Agua Prieta could not procure food. The American barrier was too strong for the brave defenders of the town. When the Americans seized the twenty thousand rounds of cartridges consigned to John Lopovitch, Col. Medina was already discouraged. The moving of the American patrol from the American line to fifth street in Douglas prevented sympathizers from passing across the line with cans of beans, loaves of bread and other provisions, and cartridges, which probably before this were pouring over the line in little dribs to replenish the ammunition belts of the rebels in the garrison.

ALLEGED REBEL PUTS UP BLUFF; KILLED

CANANEA, Son., Mex., April 18.—(Special).—Word was received here today from Bacochi that a man was killed in that town on Sunday evening after he had demanded merchandise and food stuff from a merchant there named Romeca. It is known that the man called Bacochi an insurrecto and entered the store demanding the merchandise desired. He threatened the merchant with death if he did not accede to his demands, stating that he had often been in the hills near by and that he would return with them and take what he desired.

The man then rode away, but later he was found dead. It is not known who killed him, nor who he was. No signs have been seen of the fifteen men he spoke of, and it is thought that he was simply making a bluff to get something without money. It is known, however, that he was not Romeca that killed him, as he had not left his store up to the time the man was killed.

Conditions about Bacochi remain the same. No insurrectos are reported to be in that vicinity, nor have any been seen since they went north towards Arizpe last week. The report that the Chispas mine of the Pedrazzini Mining company had been forced to close down on account of the presence of insurrectos in the camp has proved to be false. The mine has not closed down and has been operating steadily. The report was brought here by a number of men who left the camp about ten days ago, being scared off, and were giving the story as an excuse for leaving.

LUCAS PICO IN CANANEA.
Lucas Pico, prefect of Arizpe, who with his men eluded the insurrectos last week by going to Magdalena, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon accompanied by about 75 of his men. Later in the evening the remainder of his forces arrived in the city overland, in two bodies. There were about 250 in all, including about 30 soldiers which were added to his little command upon his arrival in Magdalena last week. These men have been added to the garrison in Cananea, which brings the total up to 500 in round numbers. Pico will remain in Cananea also, possibly until the cessation of hostilities.

Juarez Safe at Present.
EL PASO, April 18.—With only a small advance guard of the insurrecto army at Bache, twelve miles south of Juarez, fear of an imminent attack has been dispelled and residents of the latter city are quieting down. This much was confirmed today by scouts reporting to Gen. Navarro at Juarez. Elaborate fortifications around Juarez and defensive preparations within the city are completed and news of the evacuation of Agua Prieta by the insurrectos and the success of the federals in Sonora has inspired the Juarez garrison with greater confidence.

Historian on Deck.
DOUGLAS, April 18.—Miss Charlotte Hall, appointed historian of Arizona by Gov. Sloan, arrived in Douglas this afternoon to witness, if possible a portion of the fighting around Agua Prieta, and later come back to Douglas to gather the story of the warfare along the borderland.

STRAY SHOTS FROM THE FIRING LINE

Some of the things seen and heard in Douglas during the last few days. "My bed cost me a dollar an hour said one of the Bisbee visitors Tuesday morning—I had a dollar and a half room at the Gadsden and was in bed one hour and a half last night." "Garcia has surrendered his entire force to the American troops." "The federals have captured the entire force of rebels."

"The federals have entered the town and a hand to hand fight is now in progress." "More than three hundred federals have come to the line and surrendered to the Americans." "The federals are in the bull ring." "I just talked with Agua Prieta on the phone and was told everything was quiet there and perfect order being maintained."

"A detachment of the federal troops have taken a position on this side of the line down beyond the smelter and the colonel has just gone down there to make them surrender." "The rebels have mined their rifle pits and are going to let the federals take them and then touch off the mines." "Cabral has just gone into Agua Prieta. He brought 621 horsemen with him, I counted them as they came in."

"Madero is on the way here by forced march with 3000 horsemen." "I was just over among the insurrectos and they are in perfect order and well supplied with ammunition and food." "Lopez is in the guard house." "Lopez is drunk in a saloon down in the next block."

"The chief of police has a warrant for Lopez and is looking for him." "I was just talking to the chief of police and he said that there was no warrant for Lopez." "All the rebels are drunk." "I just came from across the line and everyone was sober." These are only a few of the reports heard on the street in front of the Gadsden in a short half hour during Monday evening. Rumors few thicker than the bullets of both sides had been during the day. Every chance remark made any place along G avenue was immediately picked up by some one and told as a fact and then reported with proof to its correctness. But the crowd seemed to enjoy it and simply ate up the rumors as fast as they were circulated. It wanted excitement and action and had plenty of it, for whenever anyone started telling anything a crowd would quickly gather and listen then after a few minutes of general discussion would rush off to get the "straight" dope from some one else. It really beat circus day, election night and New Year's eve all rolled into one big time.

An automobile taking a representative of the Review out to the United States troops encampment. Monday night came within a few feet of running into a troop of cavalry going to town on the gallop—it was uncertain which was scared the worse, the chauffeur or the horses. The newspaper men were very busy Monday night finding out that most of the reports given them were not news. One of the Western Union operators was up against it at midnight Monday when the Los Angeles Ex-

The Reason Why

The Copper Queen Store shows unequalled stocks of men's and young men's correct clothing for Spring and Summer. There are stores here selling reliable clothing of course. Some adhere to one manufacturer's lines; some buy from various more-or-less prominent makers, quality ranging from medium to fairly good, BUT, no other store can boast of such fine clothing as we have here. Think of it—we are not confined to the ideas of any one particular maker—we represent the three greatest in the country. To you, this means that your own ideas of correctness have more chance of being realized. No more convincing argument could be given in favor of our clothing than to have you come and examine them thoroughly and compare with that of other stores at even higher prices. We are giving greater values than ever in ready-to-wear clothing. We are told so every day by our customers. The prices for this better than ordinary class of clothing range from

BEARS PROFIT FROM MEXICAN WAR NEWS

Prices Are Hammered and Merry Old Time Is Had By All Present

rate cases February last, has been seen such a wide movement of stocks as occurred today. Bear traders took advantage of a variety of circumstances to inaugurate a bold and effective raid on the market was aroused from the lethargy of recent weeks. The bears were assisted by liquidation of long stocks and prices melted rapidly. Losses among active stocks such as Reading, Union Pacific, United States Steel, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific, Norfolk and Western, American Smelting and Amalgamated Copper range from 1 to 3 points. National Biscuit lost 1/2 and the Soo line 3/4. In the last hour prices rallied somewhat on covering, but only a small part of the losses were made up. The selling movement began the first hour and was directed chiefly against Missouri Pacific, International Metal and Fertilizers. During the second hour the whole list fell off sharply. The number of shares dealt in during this hour was as large as the total for the entire session yesterday, and during the remainder of the day the market was active, the day's business being one of the best of the year.

The chief factor in the market appeared to be the Mexican situation. Until today the street has not been disposed to view the situation seriously, but the tenor of the latest news enabled the bear traders to obtain effective support from this source for the first time. London has been doing little recently, which is reported today to have tapered moderately of Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, and United States Steel. Mexican issues were affected severely in London by the insurrection.
