TO HOLD GLIDER MEET.
 BOSTON, Mass., May 26.—A dozen colleges and schools have entered inquiries for the first intercollegiate glider meet and the first large meet of any kind for gliders in America, which is to begin tomorrow under the auspices of the Harvard Aeronautical society. The entrants include the University of Pennsylvania, Harvard, Dartmouth, Williams, Amherst, Columbia, Cornell, Tufts, the Worcester Polytechnic Institute and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

For the purposes of the meet the Harvard Aeronautical society has constructed at Atlantic Field a movable glider slope which is said to be an entirely new thing anywhere before. It is 25 feet high with a slope of 52 feet and is equipped with a light truck and rack, which run on a track down the slope and launch the gliders. A weight and pulley attachment serves to increase the initial velocity.

St. Paul, Minn., will have three stock companies this summer. One will be James Neill's, with whom will be Ida Conquest, Robert Drouster, John B. Maher and Frances Adler.

SILVER LEAF CLUB RAIDED BY OFFICERS YESTERDAY MORNING

Three Arrests Made Following Illegal Sale of Intoxicants

COMPLAINT AGAINST PLACE

The Silver Leaf club was raided by City Marshal Bassett Watkins and Officer Lowe Wright yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and Sam Washington, president of the organization, and two others, John Mingo and Doc Jones, arrested.

Washington was arrested on a complaint charging the illegal sale of liquor, and the two others were arrested on the charge of vagrancy.

Washington will be tried this afternoon at 2 o'clock before Judge Morris High.

Jones and Mingo were arraigned on the charge of vagrancy and given two days in which to find work.

Shady Transactions

The raid resulted from the appeal of well known negroes to the board of county supervisors to have the place closed, as it was bringing the race into disrepute through the shady transactions being carried on there. The supervisors told the negroes that if a petition was obtained, protesting against the place, it would be closed.

The matter was brought to the attention of city officers through Deputy Sheriff White and the two officers named made the raid, confiscating a number of bottles of various intoxicating drinks found on the premises.

The bar of the club was closed over a month ago by Sheriff Jack White, who warned them of the full penalties of the law if the bar was not closed and kept closed. The closing of the bar followed closely upon the killing of Wesley Johnson, a negro, by Henry Murphy, another negro, at the club several months ago. Murphy has since been arraigned on the charge of murder and sentenced to twenty years in the territorial penitentiary.

TROOPS ARE EAGER TO COME TO BISBEE

Will Likely Be Here July 4—Troop Comes Up Yesterday

A troop of United States cavalry, from departmental headquarters at Douglas, were encamped at Warren yesterday. They marched overland from Douglas yesterday morning and will return to Douglas this morning.

The troops were in charge of Lieutenant Archie Miller, J. W. Brown and J. T. Kennedy. The officers were taken in charge by the Fourth of July reception committee and shown over the proposed camp site for the troops under Col. O'Connor when they came to Bisbee to participate in the Fourth of July festivities. They were shown over the site by James Yeakum and other members of the committee and expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the ground selected as a camp site.

Eager to Come Here.
 The officers stated that the members of the colonel's staff were eager to come to Bisbee, as were the soldiers themselves, and it is more than likely that Col. O'Connor with his staff officers and troopers will be Bisbee's guests that day unless the troops are ordered away by the war department before that time.

The detachment in Warren yesterday numbered fifty. Their camp was furnished with water by the Warren company and wood for camp fire was also furnished. During the afternoon all of the men, except one, who remained at camp to guard the horses, came up to Bisbee and proceeded to see what there was to be seen.

Dr. J. T. Kennedy also accompanied the troops to Warren. The officers and Dr. Kennedy were the guests of the reception committee last evening at dinner at the Copper Queen cafe. They were greatly pleased with the reception given them yesterday.

There are 248 men camped at Douglas, some of whom went to Naco and other points on hikes yesterday. The local troop will return in the morning.

BENEFIT FOR HORAN'S FAMILY.

CHICAGO Ill., May 26.—An unusually large crowd flocked to the American league grounds this afternoon to witness the baseball game played by the Chicago and Philadelphia teams for the benefit of the late Fire Marshal James Horan, who lost his life in the stockyards fire last winter. The dead fireman was an ardent baseball enthusiast. The Chicago club, with the sanction of the league officials, decided to donate the entire receipts of the game to the Horan family.

HOW RILEY, SOUTH CAROLINA, LEAVES ALL OF THEM BEHIND

Jennie Carr, Who "Fights Like a Panther," Puts Town in Limelight

IN CLASS BY HERSELF

Exit Agua Prieta, Juarez, Naco and El Paso from the front page positions in the daily newspapers, and make ready for the entry of Riley, North Carolina.

The city is the home of Jennie Carr, a lady of color, who admits that once she gets to fighting she can't stop. "I fights like a panther," she told Judge Morris High yesterday afternoon, while she was testifying in the case against Irene Campbell, charged with stealing a piece of dress goods from Jennie. "I ain't no Texas nigger," she told the court. "I fights jes' like a panther."

"Where are you from?" asked the court, who wanted to settle the question of nativity.

"Who, me?" she cried. "Me? I'm from ole Riley, North Carolina."

Riley's Call to Fame

Thus does Riley get in the newspapers. Those who are inclined to blame Riley should reserve opinion until the facts of the case are heard and the court gives its opinion.

A complaint was sworn out against Irene Campbell, alleging that she stole a piece of dress goods, valued at $2.15, from Jennie Carr, and the case was heard yesterday afternoon, the court with due regard for the present possibilities of rendering a decision off the reel withholding decision until 10 o'clock this morning. The defendant made a denial of the charge. The North Carolina Amazon alleged that the defendant was employed to make the yard for the case against Judge High herself rather than the masculine figure of Jennie Carr of old Riley, North Carolina, U. S. A. (Not to be confused with Texas.)

"Whatever you decision is, Judge, don't you let dem niggers come near me when I gits outen dis court room. I sho would crawl dem niggers and I know dem officers 'ud put me in dat jail and I'd stay there a long time, cause when I fights I doan' know when to stop."

"Were you afraid to go to the defendant's house to get the dress?" asked the court.

(Turn of the thunder and lightning, Mr. State Manager, and professor, bring on your avvil chorus.)

Some Class, That

"Who me? Me 'raid? Who, me? Me, Judge? Me 'raid to go ter dat nigger's house? Lawd, Judge, I ain't 'raim no 'oman in dis town or Bisbee what's got my color. What I want ter be 'raid ter go to dat house for? Not me, Judge. If dat 'oman wants ter crawl me jes' let her meet me out there on the street an'—"

"Just so you don't pull it off in court," interjected the court.

At the conclusion of the case the woman from old Riley strode from the court room and Geromino in all his bravado was not braver than the representative of old Riley (Clayton U. S. Not to be confused with Riley, Tex.) The defendant strolled away from the court room.

Not satisfied with her probabilities of victory in Judge High's court, the Amazon asked to be shown "Judge Burdock's" office, but with the departure of "dem niggers" she cooled down and now awaits the decision of the trial court.

BIG DANCE TO BE GIVEN BY ELKS

There is every indication that the coming dance will be the most successful ever given by the club, which is saying a great deal.

TONAN AGAIN FREE AFTER TWO TRIALS

Insurrecto Soldier Released by Douglas Authorities on All Charges

Antonio Tonan, late of the army of King Alfonso of Spain, of the army of the Cuban insurrection, and of the United States army of occupation in Cuba, and now a soldier in the army of Madero, under General Lomeli, is a free man. He was arraigned at Douglas yesterday on the charge of stealing three horses from an insurrecto captain and two companions, but was released.

Having passed safely through the courts of the territory of Arizona and of the United States without having to strike his colors, he now returns to his command at Agua Prieta.

Tonan was the bone of contention between Deputy Sheriff Hilburn of Douglas and Customs Inspector Tolan several days ago. Hilburn promissarily took possession of Tonan and the three horses and saddles, alleging that Tonan had smuggled them across the line without paying duty on them.

Tonan was arraigned before United States Commissioner Taylor of Bisbee on this charge and released. He was no sooner released on this charge than he was held by Bisbee officers for Deputy Sheriff Hilburn of Douglas, who came to Bisbee the next day for his man. He was arraigned at Douglas yesterday and acquitted on the horse theft charge.

AGED MAN SUFFERS STRANGE AFFLICTION

Was Sent to Poor Farm, but Left There; Sent to Hospital

J. R. Birch, who was sentenced to the county poor farm at Douglas on May 12 by Judge Morris High for a period of 55 days after his arraignment on a charge of vagrancy, was sent to the county hospital at Douglas yesterday.

Birch returned to Bisbee yesterday morning and as he stepped from the train, he fell on the depot platform in a faint. He was picked up by officers and taken to Judge High's court room. The old man was a pitiable spectacle. Each hand was sore and his face was inflamed, as if he had been burned. His eyes were bloodshot. All efforts to learn from Birch why he left Douglas and what was the matter with his hands and face were fruitless. He was evidently seriously ill at the time. Deputy Sheriff White went to see Supervisor J. J. Bowen, who authorized sending Birch to the county hospital at Douglas.

Mystery About Leaving.

Local officers were unable to learn how Birch got away from the county poor farm. He was sentenced on May 12 and, according to the sentence imposed, his time at the farm would not expire until June 16.

When he was arraigned in Judge High's court on the charge of vagrancy he stated that he was not a vag, that he had a home and something to eat, and that he was not working because he could not use his hands on account of a skin disease which he had contracted. The condition of his person was such, however, that Judge High thought it best to send the old man to the poor farm, where he would be compelled to take better care of himself.

When he arrived in Bisbee his hands were bleeding and his face was swollen and disfigured with the disease. His whole countenance looked as if it had been submitted to a steady, burning heat.

Evidence of "Dope" Transactions in City's Red-light Section

Pete Cook was arrested yesterday afternoon by Marshal Watkins on the charge of vagrancy and fined $50 or 60 days when arraigned before Judge Morris High. He was unable to pay the fine and unless it is paid in the meantime, he will join the chain gang this morning.

Cook was arrested at a house in the tenderloin district and belongs to that class of undesirable which officers are trying to run out of town. Officers believe that the "dope" is being obtained from Los Angeles by mail.

TELEPHONE LINE TO EL PASO FINISHED

Will Be Open in Few Days—Long Connections Are Made

The long distance telephone line of the Tri-State company between Bisbee and El Paso has been completed and will be opened to business in a few days. Several weeks ago it was announced that long distance service between Bisbee and El Paso, and many other towns in the two territories, would be installed by June 1 and it is more than likely that the promise of the company will be kept to a day.

The line between Bisbee and El Paso was tested several days ago and found to work fine. This line will also make connection with Douglas last soon, as the wire is being laid for the extension and will be a great improvement, it is said, over the present service. The completed line, with its connections, will give service to Denver and Los Angeles.
