KING CARLOS OF PORTUGAL AND CROWN PRINCE ASSASSINATED

THAW RUSHED TO MATTEWAN AS DANGEROUS

1

Daniel way go lookln. have been away lid case inan!

NEW CITY, N.Y., Jan. 1.—Several hundred persons were present at the coroners' inquest held yesterday on the body of Harry W. Himmel, the police officer killed at Mattewan, Sullivan county, N.Y., by a mob of miners, and an arrest warrant for one of the rioters, John J. O'Leary, was issued by Judge W. G. Moses.

VIOLENT PROTESTS DO HIM NO GOOD

Declares He Is Sane and Will Soon Be Out of Confinement.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2.—The National Park Police today filed charges against Edward J. O'Leary, who is charged with the murder of Harry W. Himmel, the police officer killed at Mattewan, N.Y., December 31.

WARSHIPS MAKE A MAGNIFICENT PICTURE

Japanese Reported To Have Landed For Observation, Suddenly Disappear.

JAPAN, Jan. 1.—The American steamer was cut off by a Japanese cruiser in the early hours of today. The cruiser, which was at anchor off the coast of Japan, was seen to be a warship, and the American steamer was compelled to put to sea immediately.

ROOSEVELT Will Formally Express the Grief of America Monday to the Exiled King of Portugal.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—President Roosevelt will formally express the grief of America to the exiled king of Portugal, Edward VII, at the White House Monday afternoon.

WASHINGTON SHOCKED OVER LISBON NEWS

FUNTA ANNER, PbA.—The American steamer was cut off by a Japanese cruiser in the early hours of today. The cruiser, which was at anchor off the coast of Japan, was seen to be a warship, and the American steamer was compelled to put to sea immediately.

INFANT MONTE CARLO NECKS DOUGLAS ACROSS THE BURGER

(London to Report)

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 2.—The infant Monte Carlo Douglas has been found dead in his bed at the palace in Rome. The cause of death is unknown. The infant was found dead in his bed yesterday afternoon, and the cause of death is under investigation. The infant was found dead in his bed yesterday afternoon, and the cause of death is under investigation.

EVANS STEAMS INTO PUNTA ARENAS, SAFE

THUNDEROUS SALUTES ENTHUSIASTICALLY WELCOMED WITH CHILEAN AND BRITISH CROWDS, WHILE POPULATION WATCH ON MILLIONS

JAPAN, Jan. 1.—The American steamer was cut off by a Japanese cruiser in the early hours of today. The cruiser, which was at anchor off the coast of Japan, was seen to be a warship, and the American steamer was compelled to put to sea immediately.

FIVE ARE CREMATED IN KANSAS CITY FIRE

Building a Fire Truck Minus Fire Escape.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 2.—Five persons were killed in a fire that occurred in a building on Main street in Kansas City, Mo., last night. The cause of the fire is unknown. The building was a boarding house and was occupied by persons of low estate. The building was a boarding house and was occupied by persons of low estate.

WORLD'S FIRST BROADCASTED PROGRAMME

New York.—The first regularly broadcasted programme was given last night on the new American Radio Company's station, WOR. The programme consisted of orchestral music and was broadcasted from the studios at 105th street and 5th avenue. The programme was broadcasted from the studios at 105th street and 5th avenue.

WEATHER BULLETIN

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 2.—The first regularly broadcasted programme was given last night on the new American Radio Company's station, WOR. The programme consisted of orchestral music and was broadcasted from the studios at 105th street and 5th avenue. The programme was broadcasted from the studios at 105th street and 5th avenue.