A sign that a Regiment cheered

Just a painted sign on the wall of an ancient building in France! "Not much of a thrill in that," you'll say

YET a regiment of American soldiers, dog-weary from a long hike, dripping wet from an all-day downpour, broke into cheers at sight of it. You'd have thought they had come unexpectedly on a Statue of Liberty in Brest other ports of embarkation in France, they hoped the signs would be more than merely messages that let the boys know they'd find Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes—stylish, all wool, guaranteed—ready for them when they got home

That sign represented "God's country"—a glimpse of home that had gone across the sea to meet them

The fighting men did see them as more than advertisements too; they gave the boys a little glimpse of "back home" that cheered them on. Hart Schaffner & Marx say that if those signs don't do one other thing than that, they're more than repaid

When Hart Schaffner & Marx placed their signs in the prominent locations in Brest, Bordeaux, St. Nazaire, Nantes, and the

DEMPSEY BACK TO BOXING PARTNERS

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
TOLEDO, June 21.—Jack Dempsey, matched to meet Jess Willard for the heavyweight championship here July fourth, got back into the full swing of boxing today, after a ten-day lay off, due to a cut over his right eye, and stepped five brilliant rounds with Terry Kellar, Sergeant Bill Tate and the Jamaica Kid.
The sun-burned Dempsey wore a patch over his damaged eye but pulled it off before boxing two rounds, and ripped into his sparring mates to the delight of the throng. Kellar left the ring with a puffed and bruised eye.
Willard confined his workout to eight rounds. The champion was benient with his sparring mates, Jack Helmen, who was knocked out for the third time yesterday, was unable to don the gloves because of an injury to his neck, caused when his head struck the floor of the ring.
"Steamboat" Bill Scott, a 150-pounder, took Helmen's place for the

MRS. WIGHTMAN GETS TITLE

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—Mrs. George Wightman of the Longwood Cricket club, Boston, won the women's national lawn tennis singles championship today by defeating Miss Marion Zinderstein, also of Boston, in the final round of the annual tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket club. The score of the match was 6-1; 6-2.
This is the fourth time that Mrs. Wightman has won the premier American honors of the women's tennis circle. In 1909, as Miss Hazel Hotchkiss of California, she gained the championship on the same courts. She repeated her victory in 1910 and 1911.
While defeated in the singles, Miss Zinderstein came back strongly in the finals of the doubles with Miss Eleanor Goss of the West Side Tennis club, New York, and retained her title as national doubles champion by winning from Mrs. George Wightman and Miss Eleanor Sears of the Longwood Cricket club. The champions were forced to a 9-7; 9-7 score before winning.

Miss Zinderstein, with Vincent Richards, defeated Miss Florence Ballin and W. T. Tilden, in the mixed doubles title, 2-6; 11-9; 9-6; 6-2.
Miss Elizabeth Warren and Miss Penelope Anderson, Country Club of Virginia, defeated Miss Katherine Lander and Miss Mary Heaton, Greenwich Field club, Connecticut, in the final of the girls doubles championship 6-2; 6-0.

RAY WINS MARATHON
CHICAGO, June 21.—Jote Ray, crack

distance runner of the Illinois Athletic club, today won the first annual Chicago Daily News modified marathon of 6 1/2 miles on the boulevard in time of 35:42:02.
