

STATE VOTE OF ARIZONA IS MISSING

Three Democratic Electoral Votes of the Forty-Eighth State Not Received in Washington in Time

NO TRACE FOUND OF MESSENGER WEBB

Last Heard from in St. Louis and Was Due in Washington Saturday But Has Yet Failed to Appear.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—Lost—The electoral vote of Arizona and bearer. Finder please send at once to office of vice president of the United States.

The senators and the representatives of the baby state of Arizona sent broadcast tonight the foregoing notice, when at 6 o'clock, the time limit expired for receiving the returns for the National election of November.

For twenty-four hours before the vice president's office closed for the night, with every electoral vote except Arizona's on file, a systematic search of Washington hotels and clubs had been conducted in vain for Elector Webb, who, it was known, left Phoenix with his credentials more than ten days ago, and was due to arrive here Saturday. Until a late hour tonight the wires were kept singing with messages to points between here and St. Louis where he was last heard from.

CONCENTRATION OF REBELS CAUSES CARE

Extra Watchfulness Shown by United States Troops Along the Border

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 27.—Rebels are concentrating at Guadalupe, 20 miles east of here on the Texas border, according to advices received today at Fort Bliss. The rebel general, Salazar, has more than 800 men under his immediate command while Gen. Caraveo remains below Juarez with about 500 additional rebels.

The activity of the rebels along the border has again put the U. S. military on the alert. To facilitate the prompt transmission of reports along the line away from telegraph and telephone connection, General E. Z. Stever has instituted a novel system. Non-commissioned officers on motorcycles cover many miles of the border as message bearers, greatly increasing the efficiency of the patrol service.

The rebels are said to be short of ammunition, and great precautions are taken by General Stever to prevent ammunition from running low short.

SUPREME COURT IS DIVIDED FOR FIRST TIME IN ARIZONA

Cunningham Dissents from Two Colleagues and Writes Opinion Diametrically Opposed to Theirs.

STEINFELD CASE IS ORDERED REVERSED

PHOENIX, Jan. 27.—(Special)—For the first time since its creation the state supreme court was divided today on an opinion. In the Steinfeld-Zeckendorf-Neilson case, which has been in the courts for several years, the court reversed the Pima county decision which had annulled a contract between Steinfeld and Neilson for stock in the Silver Bell Copper company and remanded the case to Pima county with instructions that judgment be entered for Steinfeld. The amount involved is said to exceed thirty-five thousand dollars. A special verdict establishing the facts in the case was also entered.

Justice Cunningham wrote a dissenting opinion in which he held that the examination of the complaint and prayer for relief of Neilson disclosed sufficient authority to warrant the judgment previously entered in the lower court upon a theory of a trust relation.

STRIKE MAY TIE UP ALL EASTERN ROADS

Despite Conciliatory Tone of Managers Ballot Is Not Discontinued

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 27.—East coast railroad managers said tonight that they had received no intimation that their conciliatory statement issued yesterday had stopped a strike vote being taken by their firemen. In a statement tonight, signed by Enoch Lee, chairman of the conference committee, he said: "The men are continuing to vote to determine whether or not to strike. The railroad's concede the vote to be favorable to striking. A strike means that probably every railroad east of the Mississippi will be tied up."

ADMITS PROFESSIONALISM

Indian Athlete Writes Letter and Quits the Game

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 27.—James Thorpe, the Indian athlete and Olympic champion, admitted today that charges of professionalism made against him are true. He has formally retired from American athletics. Thorpe's confession was contained in a letter to the registration committee of the Amateur Athletic union which met today to investigate his case.

COCHISE COUNTY ANNUAL REPORT

Exhaustive Presentation of Operation of the County Government for the Year 1912.

EXPENSE IS HEAVY

(By Oscar K. Goll)

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Jan. 27.—Perhaps one of the most exhaustive and voluminous public documents ever filed for record in Cochise county in the way of an annual report, was completed yesterday by Arthur C. Karger, clerk of the board of supervisors, and will be submitted to that body at its next regular meeting in February for approval.

The report covers many typewritten pages, and to publish the report in full at this time would occupy considerable space, therefore making it necessary for your correspondent to make an abstract of the same covering each department of the county government from the Superior Court down to the office of constable.

During the year 1912 there were authorized to be paid by the Board of Supervisors over a quarter of a million dollars in county warrants, and to be more exact a total of $285,926.12 and set apart as follows: Salary fund $113,076.40; General Fund $41,150.79; and Road Fund $131,714.95.

During the past year it took $57,565.01 to operate the various justice precincts throughout the county. This amount including all fees paid by the county prior to the time of placing all precinct officers on salary basis, in addition to paying the salaries of the justice of the peace, bailiffs, prison board and miscellaneous expenses of each and every judicial precinct, and being aggregated as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Department and Amount. Includes Justices ($22,955.87), Constables ($2,625.58), Jailors ($3,525.75), Prison Board ($1,034.20), Miscellaneous Expense ($4,349.61), County Treasurer ($1,250.00), County Recorder ($1,957.80), Probate Court ($66.15), County Assessor ($7,265.61), County Surveyor ($3,976.10), County Stenographer ($1,064.17), Population Officer ($9.00).

Table with 2 columns: Department and Amount. Includes Douglas ($1,101.27), Bisbee ($1,891.26), Lovell ($6,626.63), Pinalville ($3,331.31), Naco ($2,424.10), Lordsburg ($1,957.80), St. David ($2,782.24), Courtland ($1,924.00), Benson ($5,854.83), Wilcox ($8,889.65), Pearce ($1,049.31), Paradise ($91.25), Cochise ($1,516.95), Tombstone ($1,654.55), Fairbank ($42.25), Hereford ($12.25), Light ($350.00), Serrano ($1,800.00).

It will be noted from the figures relative to the operation of the Superior court that the same totaled $32,449.25, of this amount it was necessary to charge the sum of $2,379.86 to the salary column of that branch of the county government, on account of the fact that the former administration of the Old District court system having left unsettled that amount when Arizona was admitted to statehood, and further, that the same was not chargeable to the operation of the present administration of the Superior court.

Another item is that of the operation of the judicial precinct at Benson, wherein the sum of $5,854.85 was expended during the past year. In this amount is also included the sum of $1,638.86, the cost of a new jail building at that place, to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

During 1912 $29,631.41 was expended in the operation of the county Hospital and Poor Farm at Douglas, or a decrease over the year 1911 of $5,372.97. The expenditures of the past year are classified as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Department and Amount. Includes Building material ($1,019.85), Medical assistance ($165.90), Labor ($3,232.03), Supplies ($13,652.24), Salaries ($6,498.54), Expenses of State ($58.67).

County Roads and Bridges.

A total of $13,364.41 was spent in this department during the past year, the same having been expended by the Board of Supervisors in a most judicious and businesslike manner, the result being that at present Cochise county boasts of more substantial roads than any other political subdivision of Arizona. FINANCIER WHOSE VOICE TOO WEAK FOR INVESTIGATORS TALK WITH FAMILY

William G. Rockefeller.

William G. Rockefeller, Wall street financier and brother of the Standard Oil magnate, who so successfully included the process servers of the Pupo investigating committee for several weeks, was not so lucky in his attempt to escape from the camera man. The picture was taken at Palm Beach, Florida, a few days ago. Rockefeller still insists that his voice is too weak to permit him to talk to the money trust investigating committee, but at Palm Beach he has been seen daily conversing with his wife and son. His voice is low and husky.

WANTS CONTROL STOCK EXCHANGE

New York's Governor Asks for Laws to Give State Supervision of All Transactions

TO ERADICATE EVILS

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 27.—State supervision and regulation of the New York Stock exchange and other stock exchanges was advocated by Gov. Sulzer in the message sent by him to the legislature tonight. The time is ripe, in the governor's opinion, for the state to step in and end the "ragged abuses, shifty schemes and clever combinations to catch the unwary and to mislead the public." To effect this he recommends the enactment of a group of laws, at least one of which will provide for imprisonment as a penalty for violations. These laws, the governor says, should apply to certain practices which have been shown to exist by the Pupo committee of the house of representatives and other investigators.

The testimony of some of the governor's of the exchanges, Sulzer says, "leaves no doubt in the minds of men of judgment that the exchanges have been incapable or unwilling to devise measures that will effectively eradicate the evils. It is now obvious to me of the state it seems to me, to devise remedies. If the state neglects to do its plain duty the state should find no fault if the federal government acts in its premises."

Propose Stringent Laws

Among the measures Governor Sulzer would have enacted are: A law to distinguish clearly proper transactions of purchase and sale from those the result of combinations to raise or depress artificially prices of a security without regard to its value or legitimate supply and demand.

A law to prohibit brokers selling backward and forwards among themselves blocks of a particular stock with the intent to deceive or mislead outsiders.

A law making it a criminal offense to issue a statement or publish an advertisement as to the value of a stock or other security or as to the financial condition of any corporation and company issuing or about to issue stock or securities where any promise or prediction is contained such as a statement or advertisement known to be false or to be not fairly justified by existing conditions.

WILL NAME SENATOR.

CARSON CITY, Nev., Jan. 27.—Assembly and senate will elect a United States senator to succeed the late W. S. Nixon at noon. Senator Pittman was chosen at the November election.

CONFEDERATES TO AID SICKLES

Widow of Gen. Longstreet Promises to Raise Fund to Extricate Aged Union Veteran

FORGETS DEAD PAST

NEW YORK, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the famous Confederate general, came to the aid of her husband's civil war foe, General Daniel K. Sickles, today with an offer to raise $25,476 among the "ragged and maimed followers of Lee" to pay Sickles' alleged debt to the state of New York. Sheriff Harburger, who arrested Sickles, in a civil suit brought by the state to recover the amount of the debt, had written to many of the richest men in New York asking them to aid the aged veteran. The sheriff addressed his letter to J. P. Morgan, John Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, and 100 members of the state's wealthiest families.

Harburger dealt gently with his prisoner. Instead of serving the order of arrest this morning, he waited until Saturday, Daniel P. Hays, had arranged with a surety company for $20,000 bonds for the veteran's freedom. Hays brought it to the sheriff's office and they went to Sickles' Fifth Ave. home this afternoon.

"Well, general," the sheriff greeted him, "as a bit of formal business today you know I have to serve these papers, but I have no choice."

"All right," Sickles replied, tossing the unopened order and complaint on his library table. "You're one of the best friends I have, sheriff."

The bond was placed before the general and he signed it in a flowing hand.

"That handwriting is not so bad for a man more than 72 years old, sheriff," he commented.

When the sheriff left, Sickles shook hands and renewed his declarations of friendship.

ON ELECTION EXPENSES

Measure to Proceed to Last Campaign Is Approved by Committee

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—The proposal made by Senator Clapp to end the investigation into campaign expenditures to cover the general election expense of 1912 was approved today by the senate committee on congressional expenses. The senate investigation committee thus far has covered the campaign of 1904 and 1908 and the primary campaign of 1912, but had not the authority to look into the expenditures of the presidential fight ending Nov. 5.

Clapp will make another effort to secure the apportion of his resolution by the senate this week.

WILL BREAK CONFERENCE SAY BALKANS

Note Is Sent to Turks That Negotiations for Peace are Proposed to Cease Unless Terms Accepted.

SITTINGS SUSPENDED PAST THREE WEEKS

Ottoman Plenipotentiaries and Minister Term Act One of Intimidation and Speak of Concessions.

LONDON, England, Jan. 27.—The special committee appointed by the Balkan plenipotentiaries drafted today a note notifying the Turkish plenipotentiaries that they proposed to break off the peace negotiations. The note was not submitted to the Balkan delegations, which held no meeting today. Instead the delegates gave a luncheon in celebration of the Saint day of Sata, the patron saint of the Orthodox church.

The note, as drafted, is very brief. It reminds the Turks that the sittings of the peace conference have been suspended since January 6, without Turkey making any move toward a resumption, while events at Constantinople are the best proof of Turkey's answer to the demands of the allies, concerning Adrianople and the Aegean islands, to be negative. On this account, unless the Turkish delegation has fresh proposals, the note points out, the allies see no alternative but to break the negotiations definitely.

Terms Allies Observe.

Rehad Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation, in an interview tonight said that he regretted deeply the obstinacy of the allies, which he declared, are not only against Turkey's interests, but against their own. He added: "This obstinacy is more regrettable because, while Bulgaria does not need Adrianople. Either for defensive or offensive purposes, the town is indispensable to Turkey on account of historic sentimental and religious associations. It is a fact that Turkey will be weaker from a military point of view by retaining possession of Adrianople than without it. For a whole army is now immobile inside that fortress."

Wants Mutual Concessions.

Turkey has shown a yielding spirit toward the allies, ceding a larger area than their own countries before the war. What is the use of assembling a conference if the allies are determined to make no concessions whatever. The object of conferences has always been to find a compromise through mutual giving way. If the allies played the noble part by renouncing Adrianople, Turkey might become the friend and ally of Bulgaria, as Austria became the friend and ally of Germany after the war of 1866. If Bulgaria ever gets Adrianople it will be an insurmountable rift between the two countries and races. The spirit revenue in Turkey will be stronger and deeper than that which is still left in France over the loss of Alsace Lorraine forty-two years ago."

INTIMIDATION IS ALLEGED.

Acting Foreign Minister of Turkey Terms Course in Line with Other Conduct.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Turkey, Jan. 27.—Prince Said Halim, president of the council of state and secretary of the committee of union and progress has been appointed minister of foreign affairs.

The first industrial act of the new government was the granting of a concession to a German group for the construction of an underground railroad from Bayezid, in Samboul, to Chichi, the farthest quarter of Pera. The railroad will run under the Golden Horn. It is understood that the German bank will give Turkey financial aid in return, but the bank denies this report.

The acting foreign minister characterizes the allies' proposal to renounce the armistice as another example of the attempted intimidation to which Turkey is becoming accustomed.

DIES OF PNEUMONIA.

KINGMAN, Ariz., Jan. 27.—James Arthur, the fifteen year old son of E. F. Thompson, Arizona commission er to the Panama-Pacific exposition, died here today of pneumonia.
