

BRIDEGROOM STOLEN TAKES LONG TRAMP

Alleged Friends Play Unpleasant Prank Upon New Benedict

The marriage of Miss Hilma Neva of Whittemouth, Canada to Mr. Edward Kemner of Shreveport, La. occurred in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 8:30. Rev. J. E. Fry tied the nuptial knot.

The bride was attended by Miss Hendrickson, Dr. L. C. Gonzales was best man.

Even their most intimate friends had not been advised of the wedding and late Sunday night a searching party was organized to locate and congratulate the newlyweds.

Mr. Kemner was taken by surprise, and also from his bride hurriedly bundled into an auto conveniently waiting and treated to a moonlight ride to a point across the Mexican line near Naco where his pseudo friends persuaded him into bidding them farewell.

GREAT CORN SHOW

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 27.—Corn of every kind and description known to the American farmer is on display at the fifth National Corn exposition, which was opened in this city today and will be continued for two weeks.

One of the most interesting features is the exhibition of the results obtained by the boys of the country in their efforts to raise more and better corn to a given area than their fathers and grandfathers.

During the two weeks of the show there will be daily lectures, by noted agricultural experts and conferences of many farmers' organizations.

TO RELY ON INSANITY PLEA

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Jan. 27.—John H. McGuire was arraigned for trial today on a charge of having murdered Sereno Starrett of Rochelle Heights on October 3 last.

It is expected that the defense will be based upon a plea of insanity. Ever since his arrest McGuire has acted in an irrational manner.

DANCING ACADEMY

Starting Friday, Jan. 25th, at Fair Hall, Williams & Clark, teachers. Terms reasonable. Competent assistants.—Advertisement.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists.

Fleischmann's YEAST

Fresh shipments regularly received at this store. Phone your order and it will be promptly filled.

J.B. Angius

"The Pure Food Grocer" PHONE 29

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

ADOPTS ELECTROCUTION

District of Columbia Abandons Hanging as Death Penalty

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—Electrocution instead of hanging will be the punishment for first degree murder in the district of Columbia if a bill, passed by the house today and already passed by the senate, is signed by President Taft.

SENATOR GETS LOST

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—Senator Crane of Massachusetts knows as much about congressional machinery as anybody, but when he ventured to the house side capital today he got lost in a cellar and had to find an elevator man to guide him out.

Personal Mention

J. W. Ross has returned from Phoenix. Dee McKee, a Cananea business man is in the city. Charles Wiswell, manager of the Cananea Cattle company, was in the city yesterday on his way to Cananea from Douglas.

FIFTH CAVALRY NOW AT FORT HUACHUCA

First Division Under Colonel Wilber Arrives from Hawaiian Islands

The first division of the Fifth United States cavalry, in command of Colonel W. E. Wilber, arrived at Fort Huachuca yesterday, relieving two troops of the Ninth cavalry that have been stationed at the fort since the departure of the Fourth cavalry for Honolulu.

The Fifth cavalry is being transported to Fort Huachuca in two sections. The second section is expected to arrive later in the week. The regiment left its mounts in Hawaii and will have to secure mounts here.

ADOPTS ELECTROCUTION

District of Columbia Abandons Hanging as Death Penalty

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—Electrocution instead of hanging will be the punishment for first degree murder in the district of Columbia if a bill, passed by the house today and already passed by the senate, is signed by President Taft.

SENATOR GETS LOST

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 27.—Senator Crane of Massachusetts knows as much about congressional machinery as anybody, but when he ventured to the house side capital today he got lost in a cellar and had to find an elevator man to guide him out.

Personal Mention

J. W. Ross has returned from Phoenix. Dee McKee, a Cananea business man is in the city. Charles Wiswell, manager of the Cananea Cattle company, was in the city yesterday on his way to Cananea from Douglas.

C. Stiles, traffic manager of the Cananea Cattle company, was a business visitor Sunday on his way to Douglas, where his mother resides.

S. A. Goff came up from Cananea on last Saturday and returned Sunday morning to his home accompanied by his wife.

Henry Harburg, president of the Hamburg-Arizona Copper company is transacting business in the city. He expects to remain in the city for several days.

W. A. Moored, of Tempe, is spending several days in the city. O. F. Foreman, a business man of Ely, Nevada, is in town transacting business for several days.

Mrs. M. E. Gilmore, of Santa Barbara, Cal., is visiting friends in the city. Miss E. A. Stanway arrived from Chicago Saturday to visit her mother Mrs. Frank Huckleby of Bakerville.

John Olson, formerly connected with the Shattuck-Arizona Copper company but now with the McCorn Lumber company of Los Angeles, is a business visitor in the city.

Miss Jessie Goodman who is to take the place of Miss Anna Tong at the Central school, is reported ill and her place is being temporarily filled by Mrs. Rhoades.

Miss Olive Krigbaum has resumed her duties at the Central school after an absence of several days on account of illness. Howard Ward, who has been confined at his home for some time past, ill of typhoid fever, resumed his duties at the high school yesterday.

Miss Wagner is substituting in the Mexican first primary grade at the Central school until a teacher can be secured. W. A. Carson has returned to Warren after an extended business trip in Globe.

J. A. Taylor and family have returned to Warren after a several months visit in Oklahoma. Wm. Cowan, considered to be one of the largest independent stockmen of the Sulphur Springs valley, was in Lowell yesterday.

W. R. Cleary has returned from several days' visit in Phoenix. J. B. Patros, Roy Sasburn and D. E. Reinhart spent Sunday in the city coming up from Cananea for the initiation of Patron and Sasburn in to Elkdom.

Joe I. Cohn, editor of the Sonora News at Cananea, was in the city yesterday on his way home from Douglas, where he has been visiting his mother and sister.

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Assistant District Attorney Murry and William Cleary, who have been at Phoenix in the precinct case, are now at Tombstone, where court was called yesterday.

THE HAREM BEAUTIES CAPTURE AGAIN

Brief Local Items

Nine Pound Baby Arrives. A nine pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Krings, of School Hill, on Sunday morning.

Receives Sad News. Miss Hattie Malam, teacher of Latin in the Bisbee High school, recently received the sad news that her father had died in Michigan. Miss Malam is absent from her duties for several days.

Purse Found. Chief Watkins has a purse, containing some money, which will be returned upon identification by the owner. The purse had a receipt in it made out to Mrs. Walter Burkes.

Held in $500 Bonds. W. C. Cochran, alias Roy Cochran, is being held in $500 bonds to guarantee his appearance at the superior court for having passed several bad checks. It is alleged. The case was tried in the Lowell court.

Is Improving. Miss S. Townsend, formerly of the Central teaching force but now of Tucson, writes that her sister who is also well known here, successfully passed a serious operation recently performed on her and that she is now improving in health.

New Projecting Machines. New Edison projecting machines, said to embody all the latest improvements in the moving picture art, have been received by the Royal theater.

Purchases Work Animals for City. Lorenzo Wright, street supervisor, has returned from Phoenix, where he went to purchase work animals for the city. While there he purchased a fine span of horses and a span of mules. The animals have been received and are now in the city service.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

Hunters Have Luck. C. M. Gibson and C. F. Peabody, of Warren, report having had good luck while out hunting near Heretford Sunday. Many quail were shot as well as several cotton-tails.

May Not Return. It is rumored in army circles that Troop C which has been recently stationed in Warren, may not return there, according to the present outlook but will probably be sent to Forest Station. If any more troops are sent to Warren, it will probably be Troop D although the officers now in Warren expect to leave there in a short time.

Business Men Meet. In order to let the public know who are the members of the Bisbee Business Men's Protective association at a meeting held last night by the association it was decided that all members will be furnished with cards of the association, to be posted on their premises. It was also decided at the meeting that cards, showing the financial standing of members, would be issued to each member so that he may establish his credit in another city. The meeting was well attended.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adamson says that much interest in Douglas is now centered in the proposed commission form of government. Candidates have been chosen from which fourteen free holders will be chosen to form a new city charter. The proposition is being met with much favor. Mr. Adamson says.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

Hunters Have Luck. C. M. Gibson and C. F. Peabody, of Warren, report having had good luck while out hunting near Heretford Sunday. Many quail were shot as well as several cotton-tails.

May Not Return. It is rumored in army circles that Troop C which has been recently stationed in Warren, may not return there, according to the present outlook but will probably be sent to Forest Station. If any more troops are sent to Warren, it will probably be Troop D although the officers now in Warren expect to leave there in a short time.

Business Men Meet. In order to let the public know who are the members of the Bisbee Business Men's Protective association at a meeting held last night by the association it was decided that all members will be furnished with cards of the association, to be posted on their premises. It was also decided at the meeting that cards, showing the financial standing of members, would be issued to each member so that he may establish his credit in another city. The meeting was well attended.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adamson says that much interest in Douglas is now centered in the proposed commission form of government. Candidates have been chosen from which fourteen free holders will be chosen to form a new city charter. The proposition is being met with much favor. Mr. Adamson says.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

Hunters Have Luck. C. M. Gibson and C. F. Peabody, of Warren, report having had good luck while out hunting near Heretford Sunday. Many quail were shot as well as several cotton-tails.

May Not Return. It is rumored in army circles that Troop C which has been recently stationed in Warren, may not return there, according to the present outlook but will probably be sent to Forest Station. If any more troops are sent to Warren, it will probably be Troop D although the officers now in Warren expect to leave there in a short time.

Business Men Meet. In order to let the public know who are the members of the Bisbee Business Men's Protective association at a meeting held last night by the association it was decided that all members will be furnished with cards of the association, to be posted on their premises. It was also decided at the meeting that cards, showing the financial standing of members, would be issued to each member so that he may establish his credit in another city. The meeting was well attended.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adamson says that much interest in Douglas is now centered in the proposed commission form of government. Candidates have been chosen from which fourteen free holders will be chosen to form a new city charter. The proposition is being met with much favor. Mr. Adamson says.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

DIAMONDS

Examine the quality and prices of our goods, and convince yourself that the value is there.

The Henkel Jewellery Co.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adamson says that much interest in Douglas is now centered in the proposed commission form of government. Candidates have been chosen from which fourteen free holders will be chosen to form a new city charter. The proposition is being met with much favor. Mr. Adamson says.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

Hunters Have Luck. C. M. Gibson and C. F. Peabody, of Warren, report having had good luck while out hunting near Heretford Sunday. Many quail were shot as well as several cotton-tails.

May Not Return. It is rumored in army circles that Troop C which has been recently stationed in Warren, may not return there, according to the present outlook but will probably be sent to Forest Station. If any more troops are sent to Warren, it will probably be Troop D although the officers now in Warren expect to leave there in a short time.

Business Men Meet. In order to let the public know who are the members of the Bisbee Business Men's Protective association at a meeting held last night by the association it was decided that all members will be furnished with cards of the association, to be posted on their premises. It was also decided at the meeting that cards, showing the financial standing of members, would be issued to each member so that he may establish his credit in another city. The meeting was well attended.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adamson says that much interest in Douglas is now centered in the proposed commission form of government. Candidates have been chosen from which fourteen free holders will be chosen to form a new city charter. The proposition is being met with much favor. Mr. Adamson says.

Builds Reverberatories. William Gmahlung was in the city for a few hours yesterday evening on his way to Douglas. Mr. Gmahlung has charge of the reverberatory furnaces in the Four C plant at Cananea and during the past year has been superintending the installation of the reverberatory plants at the new C and A smelter in Douglas, at the Copper Queen in the same place and at the Arizona Copper company smelter at Clifton.

Texas Editor is Visitor. B. R. Blankenship, for many years proprietor and editor of the San Marcos, Texas, Times and Herald, was a business visitor in the city for the past few days. Mr. Blankenship left newspaper work last September on account of ill health and since that time he has been camping out with his family near Alamogordo, New Mexico. He is now traveling representative for a Kansas city advertising concern.

Dr. James Douglas Here. Dr. James Douglas, president of Phelps-Dodge & Company and of the El Paso & Southwestern railway system, arrived in Bisbee on Sunday. Yesterday he accompanied his son, Walter Douglas, to Arizona on one of his regular tours of the southwest where his interests lie and his present visit is without special significance.

Notice. All members of the Woodmen Circle are requested to meet at the Medigovich Hall at 8 p. m. January 25th, to attend the funeral of the infant child of J. H. Kirchner, as body is to be shipped to Kentucky, on the 9:10 train, for burial.

Owes Life to This Consumption Remedy. It is beyond human power to perform miracles. The makers of Eckman's Alternative, a remedy for Consumption, do not claim that it will restore every one to perfect health, but so many have voluntarily testified that it saved their lives, that all who have this dread disease should investigate and try it. It should stop the night sweats, reduce fever, increase appetite and in very many cases, protract life. Read what it accomplished in this case.

Hunters Have Luck. C. M. Gibson and C. F. Peabody, of Warren, report having had good luck while out hunting near Heretford Sunday. Many quail were shot as well as several cotton-tails.

May Not Return. It is rumored in army circles that Troop C which has been recently stationed in Warren, may not return there, according to the present outlook but will probably be sent to Forest Station. If any more troops are sent to Warren, it will probably be Troop D although the officers now in Warren expect to leave there in a short time.

Business Men Meet. In order to let the public know who are the members of the Bisbee Business Men's Protective association at a meeting held last night by the association it was decided that all members will be furnished with cards of the association, to be posted on their premises. It was also decided at the meeting that cards, showing the financial standing of members, would be issued to each member so that he may establish his credit in another city. The meeting was well attended.

Runaway in Naco. Returning officers of the Ninth cavalry from Naco, tell of a thrilling rescue and a runaway which occurred in the border city yesterday. The army ambulance with its team of four mules was left unattended by its negro driver in the main street in Naco yesterday and becoming frightened broke into a run. The mules were finally captured by several cavalrymen after a chase of nearly two miles. There was very slight damage done.

Three Disturbing Peace Cases. Three cases of drunkenness and disturbing the peace came up yesterday in Judge High's court. They were Jack Coins, drunk, $6; Thomas Luncau, disturbing the peace, $10; and Matt Campbell, disturbing the peace, $7.50. Frank McDonald and W. T. Carey were lodged in jail on a vagrancy charge. It is said that the two have been "punching" here.

A Douglas Visitor. W. W. Adamson, prominent Douglas citizen, came to Bisbee by auto yesterday on business. Mr. Adam