

Some fun at the USO splash party at the new comment swimming pool last week. Lt. Fawcett, Gler. Edouard, Mary Burwell and Hazel Brazier braved the chilly winds to represent the fair sex in the water. Among those present were: Chester Crumpler, Life-guard, Raymond Tate, Russell Procope, Butch Burrill, Lt. Pino, Clelie Pecot, Helen Davis, Clarene Smith, Hazel Roberts. Music and refreshments were provided by the USO at Fry.

"Jungle" Jones had a gay birthday party last Saturday night. Most of the Post personnel stopped by at some time during the evening.

"Swanee" claims he's had enough. He's going to sacrifice that LaSalle for a Plymouth of unknown vintage.

Daddy-O is plenty busy nowadays. In addition to his band and orchestra work and his shoe shine stand he is starting a kiddies class in dancing with an aim towards putting on a kiddies revue in the near future.

"Better Times" have come for Babe Wallace, who coined the phrase. He becomes a Jodie this week. You'll be seeing him in the movies soon.

Congrats to the SCU Mules baseball team which had a "Mexican Holiday" in Santa Ana last Sunday, winning both ends of a doubleheader.

The Lighter Side

When you don't know what to do, govern yourselves by these general rules:

1. If it moves, salute it.
2. If it doesn't move, pick it up.
3. If it's too large to move, paint it.

Sentry: "Who goes there?"

Lieut: "Lieut. Gibson."

Sentry: "I can't let you proceed without the password, sir."

Lieut: "Drat it, man, I've forgotten it. You know me well enough."

Sentry: "I must have the password."

Voice from the guardhouse: "Don't stand there arguing all night. Shoot him."

"I shall now illustrate what I have in mind," said Sgt. Dillard, as he erased everything from the blackboard.

Pvt. Powell: "I've been trying to see you all week. When may I have an appointment?"

Lt. Whisonant: "Make a date with my WAC secretary."

Pvt. Powell: "I did, sir, and we had a grand time, but I still want to see you."

First little girl: "Dr. Jones brought our baby."

Second little girl: "We take from him, too."

Landlady: "How do you like this room as a whole?"

Gi's wife: "As a hole it's fine, as a room not so good."

Suggestion Flashers

Philadelphia—A QM employe here figured there would be more wear and less tear on GI winter drawers if the set of eyelets below the waist was eliminated. Savings effected by this simple change are estimated at $3750 per 250,000 prs of drawers.

Alamogordo, N. M.—The Suggestion committee agreed it was a good idea when Pfc Robert L. Bunge suggested that the carpenter shops at the Army air field here "make some cheap, wooden stoppers so that men can wash in a single bowl of water instead of using several gallons." His plan will save an estimated gallon of water a day per man.

"You sure all the men understand about conserving water?"
