If you don't see, don't believe. A good safe rule—apply it when you come to us for glasses. Remember, we make no charge for advice, and guarantee a perfect fit—spectacles that will not deform your appearance, but rather improve it, making the old appear young as possible and the young no older than they are.

Arrival of Rubber

Our fall stock of rubber goods is here, and they are the kind of goods that everybody wants—the kind you always pay for whether you get them or not. These are high grade goods, made exclusively by makers who have a reputation for turning out reliable products. A little difference in quality makes a very great difference in durability, so get the best. Costs you no more than the poorer sort.

tended to all. Strangers cordially welcomed.

A BIG SALE—It is said that the Norton sale west of town is the largest sale ever held in the valley. The sun went down before the household goods and blacksmiths' tools were sold. The sale will be continued on Monday.

A BROKEN RAIL—There was a curiously broken rail on the Santa Fe track at the Second avenue crossing last night. The rail was not broken in two, but a large curved section, eighteen inches long and as deep as the flange, came out of it. The rail was replaced with little delay.

PIMA SUPERVISORS—Andreas Rebell and Ed Vall, supervisors of Pima county, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Rebell is the hold-over member and Mr. Vall has been re-elected. The former is a wholesale liquor dealer of Tucson and Mr. Vall is a well-known stockman, a brother of Walter Vall.

PROBATE COURT—The estate of Guadalupe Imperial was before the probate court yesterday. Jesus Leon of Tempe has been appointed administrator, but he has so far been unable to furnish the bond. The annual account of the administrator of the estate of Jared Woodbridge was approved, as was the annual account of the guardian of Emma Florence Walker, a minor.

ON MINING BUSINESS—George McFall left last night for Chicago, where he will remain for several months on mining business, with headquarters and offices at the Sherman house. He will represent several properties in the territory among them, the Copper Cliff group in the Tonto basin country, which he discovered last summer. He has offers from three mining companies of permanent employment and may accept one of them.

CRITENTON HOME—The annual donation of the Florence Crittenton Home is to be held Thursday, Nov. 20 at the Home. Money, provisions of such articles as will be used at the Home will be gladly received. The lady managers on that day will have their annual reception at the Home. Refreshments will be served. All those interested or who care to look into the work will be cordially welcomed and much pleasure will be taken in showing the Home and explaining its work. Reception hours 2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Corner of Second avenue and Monroe street, Rev. C. V. Cowan, pastor. Services tomorrow as follows: Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. Theme, "The Bread of Life." Junior League at 6:20 p. m. Subject, "Present Opportunities for Methodist Missions." Leader, the pastor. At the regular evening service the pastor will address mothers, wives and daughters on "Some Properties of True Womanhood." New talent and increasing interest is manifest in the large chorus choir each week.

JUVENILE GOOSE EXCHANGE—The Goose Exchange held in the parlors of the Fifth Avenue Christian church on Tuesday evening last excited considerable curiosity and interest on the part of the children and the ladies have yielded to numerous requests to repeat it for the benefit of the youngsters. The exchange will be open today from 2 o'clock till 4 and the children will have the pleasure of seeing old Mother Goose swallow coppers as well as nickels. Ten pennies will make her smile and entitle the donor to a piece of cake.

FOUR MILES FINISHED—Four miles of steel have now been laid on the Phoenix and Eastern railroad and it will be but a few days till the track having force is up with the graders which will be practically on the banks of Salt river. The graders will continue their work on the other side of the river so that as soon as the bridge is constructed tracklaying will proceed rapidly. It is estimated that it will take forty days to build the bridge which will be a temporary structure erected on piles, and the company confidently announces that the trains will be running into Mesa early in January.
