

PITTSBURG Of the WEST

PUEBLO, COLORADO.

Pueblo is experiencing some spring rain.

Miss Thornton was down from Colorado Springs Sunday.

Mrs. Virginia Smith is down from Denver visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. P. Watson.

Mrs. Holland is able to be out again after being confined to her home since New Year's night.

Mrs. Phillips of Iowa is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Beulah Baker and sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Watson.

Rev. J. C. C. Owens, who took a trip to Kansas City to see a sick sister returned Thursday of last week. Mrs. Owens was called to Denver this week to the bedside of a sick aunt.

Persons having items for THE STATESMAN will send the same to 1124 13th St. A postal card will answer the purpose.

Mrs. Anderson of Denver and Mrs. Wilson of Creed, who have been visiting Mrs. C. Maloney, have returned to their homes.

Albert Tolliver is slightly improved after six months confinement to his bed with rheumatism. C. P. Williams is able to be out again after an attack of lagrippe.

Three little girls came to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Brays, of the A. M. E. Church, Bessemer, last Tuesday evening. It is seldom that a Methodist minister is so abundantly blessed at one time.

Rev. Hardy of the Bessemer Baptist Church is in the midst of a revival and many wandering ones are being gathered into the church. About 20 candidates were baptized Sunday afternoon at the 8th Street Baptist Church the result of a revival at that church.

J. W. Young is able to be around again after two months illness of pneumonia. He and his wife take this method of thanking Sunrise Lodge, No. 3, Pythagoras Lodge Lodge, No. 3, Leadville, members of the A. M. E. Church, and the friends in general for their kind devotion in their hour of need.

W. C. T. U. held its first platform meeting Thursday evening of last week at St. John's Church. A paper by Mrs. North, "The Father in the Home," led to a discussion by the ladies. Refreshments were served.

H. T. Brown of Salida, and Miss Alma Hart of Pocatella, Idaho, and who were recently married in LaJunka, stopped in this city to visit friends. They are enroute to Wellsville where they will make their home. The contracting parties are from Missouri and came to Colorado from Garden City, Kans. Mrs. Brown is a sister of Mrs. J. O. Robinson of Pocatella, and Mrs. Thos. Carney of LaJunka.

Last Sunday was quarterly meeting at St. John's Church. Presiding Elder Watson preached in the morning and Rev. Brag of Bessemer in the afternoon when the communion was administered. In the evening the Mother's Club held a platform meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. J. P. Watson. The program consisted of several interesting papers which was closed by a brief address by Rev. Watson. Much can be said of the broad-mindedness of Rev. J. C. C. Owens along the line of woman's work, the home culture of mothers and the loyalty of husbands and fathers to their homes and families. The Christian Endeavor is marked for its large attendance and devoted interest. Rev. Owens is president.

No Executions In Switzerland.

Capital punishment still exists in Switzerland, but all death sentences imposed within the last half century have been commuted.

Surely.

A Pittsburg rabbi says Adam was a myth. But there must have been a first man some time and somewhere.—Buffalo Express

God's Love is Beautiful.

God approves of beautifying. If not, why did He take such great pains to make the tiny snowflake so fragile and perfect?

INCREDIBLE BRUTALITY.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at James Hullinger & Co., drug store.
