

State Historical & Natural History Society

THE STATESMAN.

ORGAN OF THE COLORED PEOPLE IN COLORADO, WYOMING, MONTANA, UTAH AND NEW MEXICO.

VOL. XVI.

DENVER, COLORADO, FRIDAY, DEC. 29, 1905.

NO.28

Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Sarah Pennington and Mrs. L. DeClellan entertained a few friends at breakfast Christmas morning. The table decoration was a dream of beauty. It was done in holly and Christmas bells. The guests were: Mesdames K. D. Cammack, W. M. Williams of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Manley, Mr. and Mrs. George Gibson of New York, Mr. Eugene Boone and Mr. Bryant of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Manley served Christmas dinner to a few select friends. Miss M. I. Sims, Mr. Bryant, Mr. Bess, Mrs. W. M. Williams and Mrs. K. D. Cammack enjoyed the sumptuous feast and afterwards spent the evening playing games and listening to the sweet strains of music by the talented pianist, Mrs. DeClellan.

Mr. J. Foster, accompanied by his uncle, Mr. Miller of Pueblo, spent Yuletide in the city on pleasure and business bent.

Mrs. M. L. Davis entertained at dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for Mesdames Rumford, Butler, Buckner and Messrs. Garrett, Buckner and Ross.

Mrs. Jennie Rumford gave a family dinner Christmas day. All the delicacies of the season were served.

Prof. L. L. McGruder is in Kansas City, Mo., attending the Inter-State Literary Association as a delegate from Grant Lyceum.

Mr. Henry Hurley left Friday night for Silverton, Colo., to remain indefinitely.

Mrs. N. J. Reynolds is in the city from Leadville, Colo., on business.

Mrs. Booker T. Washington will lecture at Payne Chapel January 11. Don't miss this treat.

Mr. Geo. Ross addressed Grant Lyceum Tuesday night on many timely issues of the day.

Mrs. America Williams is spending the holidays at the Seymour ranch.

Miss Katherine Hubbard of Denver is the guest of Miss Teresta Roberts and has been the recipient of many social favors. Thursday Miss Roberts entertained at a Christmas tea in Miss Katherine's honor from 4 to 6 p. m. Twenty little misses and boys were present and the parlors and dining room were a transformation of exquisiteness and beauty of Christmas decorations. The little elite enjoyed dancing afterwards. On Friday night Miss Roberts gave a theater box party in honor of her guest. One of the most unique functions was the skating party by electric lights at Prospect Lake Saturday evening, given by Miss Lola Graham in honor of Miss Hubbard.

Mrs. Susan Earl is in the city, after an absence of many years.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Emery entertained a few of their intimate friends at 2 o'clock Christmas dinner Christmas day. The table was decorated with kinnikinnick and Christmas bells. These decorations and holly being carried out throughout the house. Six courses were served and a more delightful occasion could not have been enjoyed. Covers were spread for twelve. Those present were Revs. Mesdames Tillman, Gladden, Rice, Mesdames P. H. Hubbard, Proctor, Pearl Saunders, Miss Jessie Gross and Mr. D. B. Faw. All enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Porter entertained ten of their friends and relatives at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. H. D. Earl arrived home from Chicago last Friday very ill with an attack of peritonitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Blankenship are each very ill, both being in bed helpless.

Mrs. Janie Woods, who came here a few months ago for her health, died Christmas morning at the residence of Mr. J. F. Curtis of consumption. Her husband arrived together with her aunt, who was at her bedside and accompanied the body to Des Moines, Iowa, for interment.

The K. D. Tillman Dramatic Club will present "Lincoln's Proclamation" at Payne Chapel New Year's night. This is also one of Mrs. Tillman's writings, which are proving so popular. There are fifteen characters and there will no doubt be a crowded house.

Society is agog with the view of calling upon the Pond Lily Club New Year's day from 2 to 7 p. m., at the residence of Mrs. W. E. Proctor, when the ladies of this club will keep open house to their friends in commemoration of their ninth anniversary as an organization.

Harper Union held an evangelistic meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Polk Reed, who is quite ill.

Mr. James Daughtery entertained the Secretary-Protem Dramatic Club at a fried oyster supper Tuesday night complimentary to the newly elected officers: Mr. R. B. Fleming, president; Mr. Daughtery, secretary; Mrs. Rosa Moore, treasurer.

Miss McCline Collins gave a Christmas breakfast Monday morning. Covers were spread for eight of the young elite.

Mr. Geo. Ross is down from Denver visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. George Smith of Grand Junction spent the holidays the guest of his father and sister, Miss Golden Smith.

Miss Genevieve Collier's mother is spending the holidays here.

Mrs. Hattie Simpson has been quite ill with a severe case of tonsillitis. She is much better at this writing.

Mrs. Bettie Pratt gave a family dinner Christmas day, to which twenty relatives were the honored guests.

The Christmas offering at St. John's Baptist church last Sunday amounted to $76.

The Chitterling dinner Friday and Saturday, given by the Pastors' Aid Society of the M. E. Church, under amnagement of their efficient president, Mrs. Harry Perkins, was a financial success.

Mrs. Lena Warner returned home Sunday, after visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rosa Beckwith, four weeks.

Mrs. Luther Britt and sister, Mrs. Ben Murray, visited their parents for nine weeks in Fulton, Mo. They returned Tuesday.

Mrs. Bettie Pratt had a reunion Christmas dinner of their aunts, uncles and cousins, twenty persons being in attendance of their family.

A. C. Battle went to Denver to see W. R. Rhodes on the N. B. F. meeting Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bruce visited Mrs. Thurston last week, returning home Sunday.

Mrs. Maude Macon assisted her sister, Mrs. Clara Gray, to score such a great success in the entertainment at Temple theater Monday night.

Mrs. Cornelia Fleming had a "Ole Tyme Social Kandy Pulling" Wednesday night.