EDITORIALS

The battle for United States Senator from Colorado still continues. At the present rate of affairs there is liable not to be any senator elected unless one is smuggled in. Looks like they would come to an agreement pretty soon.

The Mexican Rebellion seems to be a kind of sea-saw affair. One day the Rebels whip the Federals, and the next day the tables are turned with not much damage done either way. At this rate the war will last a hundred years, unless Uncle Sam puts a stop to it. Mexico needs some one to show her how to run a government, just as Cuba did.

The Editor has gone out side again, and I'm the Editor, Printer, Devil and Door mat all combined more. Anyone who works in a newspaper office has got to be anyway a ninespot high to all trades to get along.

passengers on the stage for Walden Mr. and Mrs. Dean and Mother passed through here today on their way to the Homestead ranch. Also two strangers for Pinkham canon.

The L. H. P. & P. arrived at Fox-park one hour and ten minutes late on account of having a heavy train.
They brought the stock cars up for Blevins cattle.

Montie Blevins loaded 400 head of steers at Foxpark March 22nd, for the markets.

Geo. Post loaded two four horse teams with freight for Pinkham creel.
March 22nd.

James Allard was in Foxpark with a load of Beef the 23rd, of March.

John Knight has resigned his position as sheep herder for Dean and Chappel at the Homestead ranch and has moved to Laramie.

Three Dagoes in Cherry's camp while picking out a missed shot were plown up. One was seriously hurt but the other two were not hurt bad.

March 31st

A. H. Law passed through Fox-park today on his way outside.

One more outfit with 10 teams have come in to work on the L. H.
P. & P. grading.

The tie hacks have started cutting ties for the Laramie Plains line and business will take one more spurt here in this camp again.

April 1st.

Mr. F. Crane arrived here today with his grading outfit, which comprises fifty spans of horses and mules, and a lot of machinery. Requiring ten cars to haul them. He also has seventy men. He will work on the grade in the neck of the Par and will have his camp near Geo.
Clarks.

Mr. Best also arrived with his outfit which consists of three car loads.

Geo. Post, W. J. Dawson, Chas. Purcell and Post's hired man all arrived at Foxpark today and loaded for the grading camps, Walden and elsewhere.

A. E. Dwinell loaded with provisions at Foxpark today.

Geo. Clark brought in two of the dagoes that were hurt at Pinkham canyon the other day, and they took the train to Laramie.

G. W. Linger was a passenger on the stage going out today.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Stewart made a trip of inspection over the railroad to Foxpark Monday. After spending a few hours in the city they returned to Laramie.

WEST SIDE NOTES

(From our special correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Will Holden spent Sunday at Mr. Wattenbergs.

The two Mrs. Fliniaux's and Myrtle were visiting at Mrs. Leeks Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Norell was visiting at Mrs. Wattenbergs one day last week.

Arthur and John Payne were moving part of their cattle home from the Norris ranch Monday.

Lost between Walden and the Dawson ranch. One Stetson hat. On an about the 17th of March. Finder will be liberally rewarded by owner Walter Deevers.

Messrs Brands, Norell, Fliniaux, Svedlund, and Briggs have all been getting coal from Mr. Monahan's this week. The coal is fine and the bank is one of the best in the Park.

That gentleman on the trail betwee Haworth's and Fliniaux's. had the misfortune to be kidnapped last Wedneday by the Marr cowpunchers. He was only missing a few days, and is now back at his old post. "A bad penney always returns."

SPARKS From HEBRON

Last week's items.

(From our special correspondent.) Miss Ester Trounself is on the sick list this week.

James Peterson is up at the Le-sheur ranch this week.

C. F. Staples was down at Hebron after supplies Wednesday.

The Hebron bridge is completed, so much more for good roads.

Two insurance agents were taking in the sights at Hebron Tuesday.

We had quite a little snow and cold snap Monday night and Tuesday.

G. W. Linger and Wm. Hill are in the Hebron neighborhood looking after two bar cattle.

Shorty Dierson passed through Hebron Wednesday, on his way to Denver for a short visit.

Guess spring is coming. We can see some bare spots and we heard a Meadow lark singing the other day.

Joe Shearer and Alex Dunbar went wolf hunting Monday, but the wind was strong and they blew in Tuesday.

This weeks items.

Say that new bridge looks fine.

Billy McArthur and Billy Hill move a bunch of cattle from the Staples ranch to Joe Shearers Tuesday.

Ed. Van Volkenburg, Ray Tucker and Geo. Dean spent Sunday afternoon at Eli Petersons ranch.

Wm. and Ester Trounself went up to Spicer Sunday. Dub returned Monday, leaving Ester for a few days visit.

L. M. Boyd and Fate Mahan from Joe Chedsey's took a lay off and went to Walden Friday, retrning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell visited at Mr. Mellons Saturday, returning by Andrew Petersons for dinner Sunday spending most of the afternoon.

James and John Peterson and Calr Ross came down from the Leshuer plac Friday. Where they have been dehorning and otherwise looking after the cattle.

COWDREY TIMES

(From our special correspondent.)

Quite a little snow fell yesterday morning.

Mr. Holliday is plowing on his out farm this week.

Mr. Payne went to Walden Monday and came back Tuesday.

Henry Mobley who worked for Mr.
Dwinell last summer returned to the Park Monday.

Victor Hanson and Hilder Norell went out on the Laramie Plains after oats Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark went to Walden on Monday night's stage and returned Wednesday morning.

Montie Blevins delivered a bunch of cows to Ed Hartman at the Clark ranch last Thursday.

There was a nice little party at Mr. and Mrs. Chapples last Thursday in honor of Miss Mildred's birthday.

There was a surprise party in Cow-drey Saturday night. The surprise was on Miss Wilford. Those present had an enjoyable time.

Victor Hanson and Arthur Payne returned from the Laramie river last Thursday. They say the Park has the Flajns beat a month for nice weather.

The Payne boys went to Walden Saturday. We didn't see anything of them until Tuesday night, when they returned with some cattle from the Norris Ranch.

RAND RELIABLE

(From our special correspondent)
"Spring" we really believe is with us at last.

Fred Donelson dined at the home of C. P. Lieuallen Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. G. Shearer, spent the day with Mrs. John Slask on Thursday.

Mrs. John Slack and children took dinner with Miss Lieuallen Wednesday.

Forest Snupervisor, A. M. Cook of Fraser is in Rand on business this week.

Mrs. C. C. White and Miss Jonson spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. D. K. Smith.

The Never Sweat Club had the largest attendance on Friday evening that they have had for some time.

Mrs. Rose Stanley has been home with her mother Mrs. W. L. Howard for a few days visit.

Everyone in town is cleaning up the rubbish since the snow is gone.
Mrs. D. K. Smith and Mrs. Maude Allen are on the sick list this week.

Joe Shearer is taking in the sights at Rand again this week. Joe can see quite an improvement in just one weeks time.

Rand wishes to extend their sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coyte, because of the loss of one finger of their eldest son Joe last Friday.

Wednesday evening, Leslie ad Guy Ish, Chester and Roscoe Scruggs, and Tom Slack took a sleigh ride and stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
E. A. Arnold.

The business of the meeting was postponed until some other time, also the initiation of one new member, on account of the presence of "it".

The guests at the hotel from the West side Saturday were: Miss Flina Ridings, Miss Ethel Kelly, Bent and Troy Ridings and Oscar Kelly also Harry Ridings.

There was a very pleasant little April fool dance given at the Willis Sutton house Friday night.

Its the first dance in the history of Rand that all the ladies present were single and none over the age of twenty-five. They say the good things to eat are without number and that they were not April fool dishes but the real things to eat. The boys furnished the supper and waited on the tables.
They tipped the light fantastic until five A. M. Saturday morning. The only spoon there, was the one Leslie Ish whittled out of a pine board for the salad.

The Utopia Embroidery Club was having a very enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. A. Arnold when without invitation or announcement "it" made its appearance on the scene. The club tried numerous ways to get rid of "it", but "it" couldn't take a hint and had the nerve to stay for lunch. The lunch was fine and the ladies certainly enjoyed the repast, while "it" got an April fool, had to drink one mug of salt tea, and a pepper sandwich, one of the real Spanish kind.

Those present were: Mrs. Ida Donelson, Mrs. C. C. White, Mrs. C.
E. Howard, Mrs. H. L. Howard, Mrs.
J. L. Ish, Mrs. W. L. Howard, Mrs.
John Stanley, Miss Winnie Johnson, Miss Susie Lieuallen, Miss Katie Myers, Miss Minnie Howard and the hostess.
