

Mrs. Nellie Steele of 2404 Welton street, who underwent an operation at Park Avenue Hospital, is getting along nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brasher returned home last Friday from Topeka, where they were called to attend the funeral of Mr. Brasher's mother.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Parteit, formerly of Denver but now making their home in Chicago, a nine-pound son. Mother and baby doing nicely.

F. D. McPherson returned to his ranch at Dearfield December 14th and expects to remain until February 1st, when he will return to Denver for the remainder of the winter.

B. C. Curtis arrived home last Wednesday from a two weeks' recreation trip to points in Arizona and California. He reports a very enjoyable time.

Gillespie and Robert Barnes, little sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnes of 2938 Glenarm place, are now employed at Gano-Downs. They not only attract attention in their little uniforms, but the manner in which they execute their duties deserves the highest commendation.

If you want to purchase goods for the holidays and pay for same as you like cut out the ad of McClanahan's, which appears elsewhere in this paper, and take it to this big credit store and it will serve as a deposit for all the clothing you want. Read their ad.

Bolden Brothers on the scene again. This time a lunch room and café—with meals at 5c and upwards. These popular young men being known to achieve success in their attempts, solicit the patronage of everyone, as they guarantee entire satisfaction in the art of cooking which will delight the choicest and most critical taste. Give them a trial, at 924 19th street.

Through the indefatigable efforts of Miss Edith Sampson, advertising manager of the Daniels & Fisher Stores Company, the business is rapidly increasing, and from her original methods and specially attractive advertisements these stores have become a center of attraction. Shopping for the holidays is beginning earlier than heretofore and the patronage that is being given to this old reliable firm can be accredited to the continuous information being given to the public of the latest and up-to-date goods through their advertising agent.

Mrs. Lula Bates of 2841 Californi street entertained Monday of last week in honor of the birthday anniversary of her cousin Miss Nina Simpson, late of Topeka, Kans. The afternoon was most enjoyably spent in music and cards, and at a proper hour the guests were invited to the dining room to partake of a sumptuous menu. The table was very artistically decorated with flowers while the souvenir place cards comprised pairs of pink and white. After congratulating Miss Simpson and wishing her many happy returns of the event the guests dispersed for their respective homes.

Mr. J. A. Ball, advertising agent of the Knight-Campbell Music Company, one of the oldest and most popular firms of the West, is still keeping the business to the front, thereby gaining greater patronage than hitherto, owing to his unique system of advertising. Mr. Ball, by his long experience knowing the results from advertising, engages the minds of the public by always presenting something new and up-to-date, and the Knight-Campbell Music Company can congratulate themselves on having the services of a man who has made the firm a household name in the homes of Denver and other Colorado cities. The Colorado Statesman wishes a longer career of usefulness for this gentleman and a greater success for the firm through his highly-valued efforts.

friends who wish them a long and happy matrimonial voyage. They are at home to their friends at 2352 Humboldt street.

COURT SUSTAINS RESTRAINING ORDER ON CITY OFFICIALS OF "BIRTH OF THE NATION" PICTURE SHOW.

The temporary injunction issued by Judge Dennison on Tuesday, in which the police authorities were prevented from further interference with the exhibition of the moving picture, "Birth of a Nation," was sustained after two days' hearing before Judge Butler, another of the District Court judges.

Our representation to the Board of City Commissioners last Monday afternoon by a delegation of white and colored citizens and on evidence being given as to the harmful effect the showing of this picture would have on the Negro race and also the tendency to disturb the public peace, the City Council passed a resolution suppressing the play—Messrs. Pitcher, Greenlee and Dr. Sharpley voting in the affirmative—and Messrs. Nibset and Hunter in the negative.

Instructions were given to the police authorities to suppress the show, which were carried out Monday evening, when on Tuesday the movie owners, through their attorney, John T. Bottom, applied to the Court and received the restraining order against the city officials, which was confirmed later.

The city, who were the respondents, was ably defended by Messrs. Lieberman and Sanborn, members of the city attorney's staff, but the opinion of the Court resulted as above. Much interest was evinced by the community, as during the whole proceedings there was a large attendance of white and colored citizens.

It is the opinion of some of the legal fraternity that the matter may be taken to the Supreme Court.

5 p. m.—"The Dignity of Doing Small Things in the House of God."

The pastor finishes the series of discourses in Advent tomorrow. These pulpit utterances have been very helpful to all who heard them. It is hoped that as many of the members and friends who possibly can be with us will do so tomorrow.

The public is advised of the following activities at this church during the coming week: Christmas tree with an appropriate program Christmas eve night at 8 o'clock. Annual Christmas service when Christmas carols will be sung and the communion of the Lord's supper celebrated Christmas morning from 6 to 7 o'clock. Christmas Sunday an unusually strong program of vocal, instrumental and literary selections will be staged at 5 p. m. At the forenoon services the Christmas sermon will be preached. Orchestra in attendance. Membership is kindly reminded to make their annual Christmas offering on Christmas day. The Rev. L. B. #### SHORTER'S CHAPEL NOTES.

Rev. Robert L. Pope, B. D., Pastor. "Christmas King," the popular cantata by Fred B. Holton, will be rendered Christmas morning at 5:30 by Shorter's chapel choir. This promise to be the biggest and the best Christmas exercise in the history of the church. The music has been in hand and preparation has been in progress for several weeks. The church will be decorated most artistically and everything will be at its best. Come early so as to get a comfortable seat.

The Rev. Dr. F. S. Snelson of Chicago preached a most excellent sermon for us last Sabbath morning and in response to the invitation Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones of 2220 Clarkson came forward and united with the church. At the evening hour a hymn tune recital was rendered to the great delight of a splendid congregation. Not only were the musical numbers well received, but the hymn stories given by Mrs. Gerlie N. Ross came in for special commendation. Give us another, choir.

Our sick list this week embraces the following persons: Messrs. Henry Brown, 1187 South Pearl; J. P. Perkins, 1025 Bannock; Mesdames Lottie Martin, Park Avenue hospital; Anna B. Hicks, 548 Columbine; Sarah Smith, 1646 Pennsylvania, and Miss Jessie Andrews, 1825 East Thirty-second. We are glad to report that all are convalescing.

In the death of Sister Martha Anderson which occurred on the evening of the 9th, Shorter lost one of her oldest and most devoted members. Her funeral service was held from the church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Brother Edward Fountain, another pioneer of Denver, was laid to rest the same afternoon, the funeral being held from Shorter at 2 o'clock. Grand Masters P. E. Stratton and Titus S. Rector were in charge of the Odd Fellows' service and Rev. R. L. Pope officiated, assisted by Revs. Dr. R. A. Randolph and Jas. Washington.
