Tan-Off—A Skin Bleach

For many years thousands of Madam C. J. Walker's satisfied customers urged her to perfect an effective skin bleach, and in response to their demands, she made arrangements to place Tan-Off on the market, and her daughter, who succeeded her as President of the Company, after three years of effort, has perfected and recommends for frequent use Tan-Off—a safe and efficient compound for brightening dark and sallow skin, an effective treatment for tan, freckles and skin blotch and for clearing dull, lifeless complexions.

AMONG NEWEST ARRIVALS FOR THE VACATION SEASON

IN WHATEVER direction vacation time calls, to whatever part of the country it leads, the tourist, on diversion bent, is sure to need a sport suit. These smart clothes, for all sorts of outdoor, prove themselves the most adaptable of all apparel. They have an informal and a pastime flavor that exactly suits vacation time. One is well enough dressed in them, and not too much dressed in them, for all the sorts of places that travel-ers visit.

The newest arrivals in pastime clothes are those suits, or one-piece dresses, of knitted wool or silk. The wool ones are very sturdy and well suited to real sport wear. Those of silk have the same smartness, but are not designed for exactly the same uses; they are well described as outdoor clothes. A chic suit of this character is pictured here. The plaited skirt is made of a white wool woven fabric, and the overblouse of knitted silk or silk jersey cloth. The blouse is finished at the bottom with a turned-up cuff, widened at the side into a scallop. It is hemmed down with heavy silk floss in running stitches and contrasting color, which is also used for the embroidery on the bottom of the blouse and about the opening at the front. Cuffs of satin finish the elbow sleeves, and the same material makes the rolled collar and vestee.

Short box-coats in high colors and made of the same materials as this blouse are found in the company of striped skirts. The skirts repeat the color in the coat, alternating it with white, and are either side or box-plaited. White hats and white shoes are sure to look well with these suits. Loosely knitted, yarn sweater-coats in white are great favorites, to be worn with plaited skirts in white and colored plaits.

WIDE-BRIMMED, TRANSPARENT HATS ONE OF THE FAVORITES

THE most beautiful of all millinery sings its swan song in August and adds a regret for the passing of the season that brings it in. Made for the warmest days, the airy hats of mid-summer vanish like a morning mist, as soon as the first hint of chill comes in September breezes; they only flourish in the balmy air and brightest sunshine; their career is brief but glorious.

Five of these dreams of summer, expressed in terms of millinery fabrics and trimmings, are shown in the group pictured here. The well-beloved, wide-brimmed, transparent hat at the top is a perennial favorite, one of the good things that every summer brings, developed in accordance with the season's styles. It is shown made of black malines on a shape that is widened at the sides by pointed curves in the generous brim. The brim is bordered with black piping braid, the crown is a soft puff of malines, and for trimming there is a wide bow, posed toward the right side and spread across the front. Always there are these peerless, picturesque black hats for mid-summer. This year they have rivals in hats of brown malines or lace.

Below at the left a hat of pale pink georgette has a soft round crown, wreathed with seeded grasses and small garden roses, that look like the heart of summer. Next a stately hat chooses black and white hair braid for its graceful body and white georgette poppies, with long, black ostrich plumes floating out between them, for covering its soft round crown. This is a lovely hat for matrons. Another hat for them appears at the left of the group; it is a small shape of white hair braid with a wreath of garden flowers, berries, foliage and grasses laid about the narrow drooping brim. They are veiled with wide lace which falls in the manner of a veil from the sides and back. The poke shape of pale pink georgette, at the right, is distinctly youthful with a sash of blue velvet ribbon that makes a fine background for poppies, corn flowers, grasses and little blossoms posed against it.
