THE EUROPEAN WAR

The year 1915 has been so effec- tive in its activities as to make that in all the ages to come it will perhaps appear as the world's greatest year in the history of war. The year began with a perilous situation in the Balkans, and ended with the Allies the victors of Gallipoli. The Balkan War was the beginning of the European War, and the latter developed into the Turkish War. The European War was the first of the three great wars of the twentieth century. The winter of 1915 was a winter of storms, and the Spring of 1915 a Spring of new hope. The monsoon of 1915 was a monsoon of political and military destruction. The year 1915 was a year of vast movements, of great changes, of rapid development, of deep and far-reaching results. The year 1915 was a year of the greatest and most profound changes that have ever taken place in the history of the world. The year 1915 was a year of the greatest and most profound changes that have ever taken place in the history of the world.
