MYSTIC

Will of Mrs. Sydney S. Brewster Presented, in Spite of Opposition of Will-Immanent Relative—Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

The will of Mrs. Sydney S. Brewster, widow of Sydney S. Brewster, whose death occurred in the latter part of May, contains several bequests of interest to Mystic people and the local Methodist Episcopal church. It was presented in the probate court on June 2 and after the hearing being continued three times, was admitted to probate by Judge Elliot B. Haddock, George Z. Chace, and in the will qualified as executor. The bequests include the sum of $1,500 to the Mystic Methodist church, to be used for repairs, improvements and furnishings of the parsonage, $1,000 to the Foreign Missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church, $1,000 to the Home Missionary of the Methodist Episcopal church and $1,000 to the Southern New England Methodist conference income fund for the benefit of conference claimants' needy ministers. The residence of the testatrix is bequeathed to the housekeeper, Mrs. Avery. The residue of the estate goes to a grandson, the nearest living relative, Henry B. Brewster of New York. Several smaller bequests were made to distant relatives. Considerable opposition was made to probating the will by outside parties, one of these being Mrs. William Brewster of Willimantic, who was represented at the hearing by Attorney Whiting of New Haven. Attorney Hadlai A. Hull of New London appeared for the executor. Several bequests were made to persons not now living.

Installation of Mystic Encampment. The following officers of Mystic encampment, I. O. O. F., were installed Friday evening by District Deputy Grand Patriarch Stephen J. Austin and suite: Chief patriarch, A. Orville Lewis; senior warden, Edgar Williams; high priest, William McCausland; recording scribe, Robert Holliday; financial scribe, C. C. Potter; treasurer, Samuel Stewart; junior warden, George H. Griswold; first watch, William Hughes; second watch, Oris Perry; third watch, Charles Craig; fourth watch, Benjamin Benditt; inside sentinel, Arthur T. Brown; outside sentinel, Edmond Taylor; guide, Charles Sweet; first guard of tent, Tracy Burrows; second guard of tent, Leonard J. Ziemann. After the ceremony cake and ice cream was served and a smoke talk was enjoyed.

Married Twenty-six Years. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Godfrey celebrated on Sunday, Mrs. Godfrey's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Kretzer and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hermes and daughter, Miss Leslie Kretzer. Her husband was the twenty-sixth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Kretzer and a very pleasant time was enjoyed at this anniversary.

Personal Mention. Mrs. Catherine Haley and daughter Miss Lucy Haley, who have spent several months abroad, have called for New York. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bradley and son of New York are at Willow Point for the summer. Mrs. E. B. Saunders, Miss Orinda Davidson and Walter Elmer and Stewart Saunders are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alden Saunders on Ashbey street. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis are on their return trip after two months stay in Spain.

Funeral of Sister Loretta Held From Convent—Local Men Fined For Over-Celebrating.

Sister Loretta of the Convent of the Holy Family who had been ill for a number of months, died at the convent on Saturday. Her name in the world was Miss Laura Follmer Remy. She was born at Fiskdale, Mass., 26 years ago. Sister Loretta entered the convent three years ago but owing to her poor health was not able to endure the fatigue of the long voyage to Holland, preparatory to taking her final vows with the other novices.

Though but a novice, in the convent her amiable, self-sacrificing disposition had endeared her to all and her peaceful, happy death was a fitting close to a young and saintly life. Sister Loretta is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Remy of Webster, Mass., and several brothers and sisters. A funeral was held on Monday morning from the convent at 10 o'clock. A solemn high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's church by her brother, Rev. Thomas A. Remy, of Holyoke, Mass. Rev. U. O. Ballesteros of Taftville was deacon. Rev. John Landry sub deacon and Rev. P. S. Desjardins of Ocean assisted. Other priests present were Rev. J. J. Pabillon, Rev. T. P. Bannon, Rev. R. P. Morrissy, Rev. W. A. Keefe and Rev. Brother Wilfred Bissell. The services were Dr. E. Couture of Taftville, Postmaster Thomas Sullivan, Timothy Day, and Joseph Lavallee. The Sisters of Charity accompanied their dead companion to St. Mary's cemetery where burial took place.

Paid Fines For Celebrating. A certain number of the sporting element of the town, who were fined four to ten dollars, and as a result were brought before Justice of the Peace Thomas F. Kelly, Monday afternoon on a charge brought against them by the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. As the charge was not of a serious nature Justice Kelly fined the law breakers a dollar and costs, and gave them some good advice. They were all willing to pay their fines.
