NORWICH CHRONOLOGY FOR THE YEAR 1914

Record of Events of Importance in Civic, Social and Political Circles Under Date of Appearance in The Bulletin—Financial and Industrial Happenings—12 Months' Fire Record.

(A list of the following are not included, owing to length of space and number of columns: Mortuary, Social, Religious, and Educational.)

(January—February—March—April—May—June—July—August—September—October—November—December)

February 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

March 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

April 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

May 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

June 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

July 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

August 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

September 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

October 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

November 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.

December 1st. — The council met at the town hall, with the following members present: Henry L. Owen, president; Charles W. Whitney, vice-president; J. M. C. MacKenzie, secretary; and J. D. MacKenzie, treasurer. The council then adjourned to the regular meeting of the police department, at which the following officers were elected: Chief of Police, J. D. MacKenzie; Assistant Chief, E. J. Wrong; and Sergeant, J. D. MacKenzie.