SALEM, Oreg., Sept. 18, 1871.

Home Exhibitions.
The Stimson fall meeting of the Board of Mirrors took place last Saturday, and was well attended. The Board of Directors and the Secretary, Mr. H. Stimson, were present, and arrangements were made for the sale of the exhi-

RAILROAD CELEBRATION.

Although workmen had still to be found, the celebration was a great success. The special train of the Oregon Central had arrived in time for the festivities, and all the arrangements were in good order. The train consisted of four passenger cars, with a baggage car attached. The cars were well decorated for the occasion, and a large crowd of people had gathered at the station to welcome the special train. The conductor and engineer of the train were present, and the passengers were all in good spirits.

The train left the station promptly at 10 o'clock, and started on its journey to Portland. The passengers were all well amused by the sight of the country, and the scenery was most beautiful. The train passed through several scenic districts, and the passengers had a fine view of the mountains and the rivers.

On arrival at Portland, the train was met by a large crowd of people, who had gathered to welcome the passengers. The train was then taken to the depot, and the passengers were allowed to disembark.

The feature of the celebration was the display of fireworks, which was a great success. The display was arranged by Mr. J. B. Davis, and was a great attraction. The fireworks were set off in the middle of the street, and the display was a fine one. The display was followed by a grand procession, which was made up of the members of the Board of Directors, the conductor and engineer of the train, and a large number of people. The procession was led by a band, and the members of the procession were all well dressed.
