

HEAVEN-SENT CURES.

NEW LIFE INFUSED INTO THE SICK BY THE VITAPHATIC HEALERS.

People Shout with Joy - Bent and Crippled Paralytics and Rheumatics Walk, Run and Dance, after a Few Moments with These Wonderful Men - Another Free Lecture and Clinic To-day at Warner Hall.

At the wonderful sight of cripples throwing away their canes and crutches, walking and fairly dancing after being bent and crippled for years. An immense audience could not restrain its shouts of joy during the clinic of yesterday. Mrs. Mary Solik was racked with rheumatism for eight years, yet in less than five minutes she walked and ran like a girl. Eben Howe had neuralgia with which he had suffered for two years, was cured almost instantly. Partial blindness and rheumatism was cured in a few moments by a few passes for Mrs. George Van Setter. Mrs. Albert G. Brownell was cured of pains through chest and lungs with which she had suffered for six years. Mr. H. Cullum had paralysis of arm since he had the grippe, about four years. He, too, was given the use of his arm quickly. About twenty-five people all suffering with various ills of mankind were relieved or entirely cured at yesterday's clinic, and every patient went away thanking God for the noble work which these divinely endowed physicians are doing. The work at the hall is free to all. Those, however, who are able to pay, will lead these doctors at the Elliott house, 639 Chapel street, Friday a special illustrated lecture and clinic will be given at 2:30 to ladies only.

A. M. Palmer's company will present "Tribby" at the Hyperion on Saturday evening, May 16.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

The world loves to laugh. It is a sad age. Every serious-minded person seems to possess within himself or herself the mechanism for sorrow, so arranged that it can be turned to the full force of morbidity at the slightest suggestion. It is upon this truism that Hamilton Alde, the adapter of the French comedy "Docteur Jo" into English as "Dr. Bill" relies for success, and those who are in attendance at the Grand opera house Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 7, 8 and 9, will be able to judge just how far he merits it. The play will be given for the remainder of the week, commencing Thursday, May 7, including the Friday and Saturday matinees. It is one of the most unique and novel farces ever diluted from the French, and besides being absolutely free from all suggestive tendencies, it is said to be in the hands of a thoroughly competent company. "Michael Strogoff" will be presented the first three days of next week.

POLL'S WONDERLAND THEATRE.

Professor Macart's dog and monkey comedians are still the sensation at Poll's Wonderland theatre, astounding all who see them by the brilliancy of their acting in the several scenes of the melodrama and circus they present. It is undoubtedly true that no exhibition of animal intelligence ever given here can compare with what these wonderful dogs and monkeys present. An excellent specialty bill also helps to make the entire entertainment exceptionally attractive. Miss Katie Rooney in particular shining with the brilliancy of her imitations of her lamented father, Pat Rooney. Next week the Rays, the great eccentric entertainers who for three years past have been the headliners of Hyde's comedians, one of the greatest and best vaudeville organizations in existence.

WALLINGFORD.

Death of Mrs. Lucy T. Aills - A Lady Much Esteemed - Other News.

Mrs. Lucy T. Aills of Fair street died at 12:30 yesterday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Stanley Botsford, on Main street, after a ten weeks' illness with brain troubles, aged forty-eight years. She leaves two daughters, Lulu and Florence, and one son, Frank, a student at Yale. For the past ten years she has been teacher at the Cottage school on Washington street and has been a very successful one and the school prospered under her charge. She was very popular among her pupils. She was a member of St. Paul's church and of the Women's Relief corps and for two years was presiding officer of the organization. There will be services at St. Paul's church at 12:30 Friday. The body will be taken to Stamford on the 1:47 train for burial. An opportunity will be given to view the remains at the residence of Stanley Botsford from 11 to 12 o'clock on Friday morning.

One of the attractive features of the Ramblers' minstrel show in the opera house next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings will be a laughable farce entitled "Fun in a Restaurant." The tickets are meeting with a ready sale. Reserved seats can now be procured at Pixley's.

The transfer of the property of the Maltby Stevens & Curtis company to The Watrous Manufacturing company was recorded yesterday at the town clerk's office.

Hodson Oddy, who has had charge of the wheel making at the wheel shop, will soon retire from his position and will be succeeded by Charles Hill.

The hollow ware workers at Simpson, Hall, Miller & Co.'s works are out until Monday.

A. B. Pixley and family are expected home from Great Barrington, Mass., to-day.

REAL ESTATE.

Valuable Residence Purchased. The fine residence on Orchard street built by the late Colonel John E. Earle, was sold yesterday through the agency of John C. Pufferford to L. A. Betcher of the firm of D. M. Welch & Son for about $15,000. Mr. Betcher will occupy the premises shortly. The property has a frontage of 130 feet.

A WINDOW BLAZE.

John F. Shanley's Dry Goods Store on Grand Avenue the scene of a fire. A piece of window decoration caught fire from a gas jet in the window of John F. Shanley's Grand avenue dry goods store and was the cause for calling out the fire department last evening. A small boy saw the blaze and shouted to Officer M. J. Hayes, who ran to the store and attempted to extinguish the fire. Mr. Shanley, who was in the rear of the store, knew nothing about the fire until the officer appeared. He ran to the officer's assistance, but they could not extinguish the flames and the officer ran to the nearest fire alarm box and sent in an alarm of fire. The fire department responded quickly and the blaze was quickly extinguished by the chemical engine. The damage was about $500 and is fully covered by insurance. The window was gutted with water and the plate glass destroyed.

GONE TO WEST HAVEN.

Contractor Blakeslee Takes the Road Roller and Gang of Men. Ansonia, May 6.-Contractors Blakeslee & Son of New Haven have removed their road roller and taken a large part of their street gang from Ansonia and placed them in West Haven on a contract laying macadam pavement. It was found that they could not work here to advantage at present, as the parties setting the curbs and laying the gutters could not keep out of the way of paving. As all the material for the contract in West Haven were on the ground it was decided to transfer everything there and by the time that is completed the city will have everything ready for the contractors to go ahead with the paving here.

Contractor Blakeslee thinks he will not take over a week to complete the West Haven contract, with good weather, and while the road roller is away he will have some men employed, excavating for the macadam, so that when the road roller returns he can at once resume work.

NORTH HAVEN.

May 6.-Mrs. Charles Palmer, who now stays in North Madison with her husband, who broke his hip last fall, was in town one day last week and spent the night at her home looking after things there. A neighbor called on her and Mrs. Palmer returned the call, showing that she has not lost her interest in North Haven people during her absence. It is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will both be able to take their place among the North Haven people again soon.

The North Haven Republican club will meet in the court room on Saturday evening and listen to one or two short addresses. Light refreshments will be served free to all. Admission is free and all republicans are cordially invited.

The newly elected officers of the Y. P. S. C. E. are: President, W. A. Hyde; vice president, M. Louise Bradley; recording secretary and treasurer, Mabel Howarth; corresponding secretary, Clara E. Bradley; vice president of union, Arthur B. Thorpe; chairmen of committees, Lookout, Martha S. Hyde; prayer meeting, G. E. Bassett; social, Edith B. Smith; Sunday school and church attendance, Rev. William G. Lathrop; missionary, William H. Todd; moral, M. Louise Bradley; organists, May and June, Bertha Bunnell; July and August, Edith B. Smith; September and October, Martha S. Hyde. It is hoped that those who gave their names as new members of the W. C. T. U. will be present at the session on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock and sign the constitution and take part in the exercises.

Reporter Killed in Battle.

Fort Jervis, N. Y., May 6.-Mrs. Joseph Petrivsky of Milford, Pa., has just received news of the death of her husband, who was shot in the battle which resulted in the capture of Pinar del Rio, Cuba, by the Spaniards. Petrivsky was a Russian by birth, and was employed by the Russian government as a reporter and became an American citizen. Four months ago he married and went to Brooklyn, N. Y., to live. Soon afterwards he got orders to go to Cuba as war correspondent.

Ada Richmond's Story.

Providence, May 6.-The assertion of Ada Richmond, the actress, that she married John Stetson, the dead Boston theatrical manager, in this city in 1871, has no official record here to support it. The names of Ada Richmond and John Stetson do not appear among the records of marriages from 1868 to 1874. Neither was there a clergyman of the name of Ransome in this city nor anywhere else in Rhode Island in those years.

Signed by the President.

Washington, May 6.-The long-talked-of extension of civil service rules, which takes in chief clerks and nearly all the high grade department officials so as to prevent their removal except for cause, was signed by the president to-day. It is estimated that about 30,000 officials are included in its provisions. The new rules cover all employees excepting those requiring confirmation by the senate and mere workmen. Everything between these two extremes goes under civil service.

Colechester's Canning Industry.

Colechester, May 6.-Thirty-five acres of tomatoes have been pledged to the Colechester Canning company for the coming season. Thompson Brothers of East Haddam have leased eight acres of land within a mile of the canning factory, which they will set to tomatoes. Willmantic farmers want to contract for twenty-five acres. By these figures it looks as though there would be from 30,000 to 60,000 bushels of tomatoes canned here, and the beauty of it is Boston men stand willing to buy the entire output of the plant. Colechester tomatoes have an enviable reputation.

The Market is Still Under Control of the Professionals.

New York, May 6.-There was a moderate increase in business at the stock exchange to-day but the market is still under the control of the professionals. Outside interest, much to the regret of the commission houses, is at a very low ebb and the changes that occur in prices from day to day simply reflect the operations of a half dozen or so room traders.

At the start the tendency of prices was downward, the comparatively heavy withdrawals of gold from the sub-treasury, $2,300,000, the bulk of which is for export, and rumor that President Cleveland intended to send a warlike message to congress on the Cuban question having assisted local bears in their work of depressing prices. As of late, the greatest impression was made in the industrials. These issues broke from 1 to 2 1/2 per cent. Bay State Gas, Electric and Rubber common suffered the heaviest losses. The railway list yielded only 1/4 to 1 per cent., notwithstanding the pressure brought to bear by a well known operator. It is alleged that this trader sold nearly 5,000 shares of the stock dealt in to-day. At the afternoon session a firmer tone prevailed, the result of covering of short contracts. Washington advices indicating an early adjournment of congress led to the closing up of contracts by certain bears. The afternoon rally was equal to 1/4 @ 2 1/2 per cent. Speculation closed about firm in tone. Not changes show losses of 1/4 @ 1/2 per cent. in the industrials. In the inactive stocks Great Northern preferred jumped 5 to 118, and Edison Illuminating of New York 2 1/2 to 104 1/2. Bonds were lower. The sales were $1,128,000.
