ENDORSED AT HOME

Such Proof as This Should Convince Any Canaan Citizen

The public endorsement of a local citizen is the best proof that can be produced. None better, none stronger can be had. When a man comes forward and testifies to his fellow-citizens, addresses his friends and neighbors, you may be sure he is thoroughly convinced or he would not do so. Telling one's experience when it is for the public good is an act of kindness that should be appreciated. The following statement given by a resident of Canaan adds one more to the many cases of Home Endorsement which are being published about Doan's Kidney Pills. Read it.

Lee R. Wickwire, Railroad St., says: "I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for I have used them with wonderful results. I am subject to pains across the small of my back and when they come on, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and am relieved almost immediately. I know from experience that they are a wonderful medicine." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Wickwire had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BRYAN ASSAILS COX AND H. S. CUMMINGS

Calls Choice of Democratic Convention Chairman a 'Tragedy' for the Party.

COX CANDIDACY A DISGRACE

His Nomination Would Be an Insult by the Liquor Forces, Nebraskan Asserts.

Special to The New York Times.
LINCOLN, Neb., May 13.—William Jennings Bryan turned his political battles tonight on Homer S. Cummings, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and Governor Cox of Ohio. In a statement given out here he says: "The selection of Chairman Cummings to sound the keynote of the Democratic National Convention is worse than a comedy. It is a tragedy. It is a melancholy beginning if the Democrats have any intention of making a campaign this year. If the Democratic Party is to be wrapped in a wet shroud, locked up in a wall Street safe and buried at sea, Cummings is just the person to officiate, but his selection is a serious handicap if the party proposes to appeal to the progressive sentiment of the country. Mr. Bryan calls the Cox candidacy a disgrace. He says: "The fact that the Democrats of two dry States, Ohio and Kentucky, have instructed for Governor Cox makes it proper to consider his position on the liquor question. It is becoming every day more and more apparent that he is the man about whose standard the wet forces will gather. "Governor Edwards is a joke. A drunkard in the last stages of delirium tremens would have sense enough to know that Edwards has no chance of nomination. Senator Hitchcock did not have any chance even before the Nebraska primary, hence he had nothing to lose. Governor Cox is their man and he has fairly won the dishonor that he seeks. "After disgracing his State he aspires to a position in which he could disgrace a nation. For years the men engaged in the liquor business have been the anarchists of the country, far more dangerous than the professional anarchists. Governor Cox has become their candidate. "His nomination would make the Democratic Party the leader of the lawless element of the country and his selection, if such a thing were possible, would turn the White House over to those who defy the Government and break law in contempt. "There is no likelihood of his nomination and no chance of his election if nominated, but why should any Democrat be willing to support a man whose nomination would insult the conscience of the nation? For the triumph of prohibition is a triumph of the nation's conscience."

ANTONIO MORENO

Antonio Moreno was a small boy when his father died. Eager to assist his mother by sharing part of the family burden he obtained a position as baker's clerk. For this service he received the princely sum of two dollars a week. Although he liked his position, this Spanish lad had dreams of making a fortune. He had seen wealthy American tourists in his native town and their awakened ambition in his breast. He resolved to save his money and go to the land of promise.

The Americans who visited Campamento were all supposed to be millionaires. Into the mind of Antonio Moreno came dreams, dreams of wealth that he crossed the great ocean. He became determined to go to the United States and make a fortune.

When Antonio Moreno, at the age of fifteen, walked up the gangplank from the Gibraltar docks to an American steamship, he was in reality crossing the bridge from nonentity to fame. Aboard the boat was one of America's most distinguished actresses, Miss Helen Ware. Her attention was attracted to the handsome lad with the fiery eyes, and she became interested in him. "What do you intend to do when you reach America?" inquired Miss Ware.

"To make a fortune," promptly replied young Antonio. "Ware smiled at his confidence and replied, "I think you will find both fame and fortune in the theater if you choose to become an actor."

The prophecy is now being realized. Antonio Moreno as the star of such Vitagraph serials as "The Iron Test" and "Perils of Thunder Mountain," is earning international fame and a considerable fortune. While in New York recently he signed a two year contract with the Vitagraph Company and recently finished a serial production dealing with secret service, entitled "The Invisible Hand."

Obsolete Word.

What has become of that good old word "earns"? Folks are "getting" are "paid" and are "making" so much a day. But nothing is said about anybody "earning" anything.—Los Angeles Times.

Might Charge the Valet.

A South Wales miner charged with trapping three birds was found to be wearing three coats. As this might have been due to an oversight on the part of his valet it was not included in the charge.—Punch, London.
