A Battle

'Twas 4:30 p. m. by the watch on my chain,
When the locals and their foes lined up for the game.
With Selleck in the box, and McLeod with the mit,
We felt sure we could make our foes hump quite a bit.

Look! here comes the ball sailing straight for the bat,
Crack! It's a hit too by gracious at that.
"Whoa" says the coach, "one base is enough
For if you get caught now it certainly would be tough.

What the first half over and nothing gained,
Well, poor Jim Casey, no wonder it gave him a pain,
After his hitting the first such a swack,
To put down 0 Just think of that.

Quick give me my glasses, Who's that in the box,
A pitcher I'll bet from the Great Red Sox's.
O well, he's easy, just look at his poise,
Wow! strike 'I called the umpire, rubbing his nose.

I'm a wee bit shaky I heard on the side,
For Canaan, Do you feel so? "I should say not," said I.
O well That's the ending of the first only, you see
Just wait 'till the innings rise up in the 3's.

And so from inning to inning it passed,
Until "Come Home! Come Home! and he's coming fast,
Hip, hip hooray! and caps wave high

Louie Either, Louie Either and 1 for our side.

But sad for us it must be told,
The short little wise saying old "He who laughs last, laughs best".
Proved its test.

For at the end of the decisive game,
The score was 4-2 in favor of—Well, not us.

But better luck next time,
To the good old Canaan Baseball Nine.
