DR. JOHNSON'S COULDN'T ACTUALLY Witnessed Tell of Seeing Him Flat on His Back Alongside Roadway—Eccentric Man Boarded With Town Poor at Home of Mrs. John S. Sullivan—Will Case Hearing Again Continued Late Monday Afternoon.

Henry D. Johnson of this city was on the stand when the probate court adjourned Monday afternoon after an all day hearing on the Dr. Nathan Johnson case, and evidence introduced turned in Monday revealed the doctor's queer ways in conducting himself.

The court opened about 10:25 in the morning and closed about 4:30 in the afternoon, a minute recess being taken at noon.

Albert L. Johnson, who gave his residence as 151 East 60th street, New York, was called to the stand and testified that he had lived practically all his life here in Norwich, Conn., and that he was on business in February, when he hired his car to convey him a short distance past Fitchville.

Never Paid His Board. Mrs. John S. Sullivan, wife of John S. Sullivan, was called to the stand by Lawyer Shields.

Dr. Johnson Engaged Nurse. She said that the doctor had an injury to his knee but she couldn't tell whether it was a serious one or not.

Swelled Up Like an Animal. He appeared as if he couldn't see his feet when he was taken to the hospital and swelled up like an animal.

acquainted with him at a general. Mr. Johnson presented the court with a list of the doctor's estate as compiled in August of last year. He stated that he was with the doctor in August, 1914, at his safe deposit box and that his business connections with the doctor began in 1910. Mr. Johnson told of investing the doctor's money in stocks and bonds and told of an incident that occurred in C. W. Comstock's office when he went with the doctor to see Mr. Comstock by appointment and Mr. Sullivan was with him.

Saw Doctor in Barn. Jabez Lathrop, who is 28 years of age and lives in Borrh, claims he knew Dr. Johnson and he saw him during the year 1916 in the summer, during the month of June and at that time he saw him sitting on the boards of the Sullivan house with his overcoat on and his head bowed down, apparently asleep.

Thought Doctor Was Sober. Another farmer who resides in Lebanon, Michael Lynch, testified as to the doctor's condition when he saw him last summer at the Sullivan house in a very unbecoming position. He said he saw him in a wagon and he thought the doctor was sober or at least he acted so.

Went to Sleep Against a Tree. At the opening of the afternoon session Charles R. Butts, assistant treasurer of the Norwich society, presented reference to the power of attorney given C. W. Comstock.

Dr. Johnson Engaged Nurse. She said that the doctor had an injury to his knee but she couldn't tell whether it was a serious one or not.
