WESTERLY TO HONOR SELECTIVES

Big Demonstration Planned for This Evening—Committee Issues Orders—Young Men Who Have Been Certified to Leave Wednesday—Results in Children's Day Field Sports—Two Deaths in Gypsy Stanley Family—Superior Court Assignments.

Everett E. Whipple, Charles H. Ledward, the committee in charge of the exercises Monday evening in connection with the public send-off to the young men who have been drafted for duty under the selective service law, make this announcement: "The celebration is in honor of the men who will represent Westerly, Pawtucket and vicinity, in the National army. All men who have been called under the selective draft act and who have not been exempted are requested to assemble at the town hall at seven o'clock, entering the building by the Union street door. They will be received by George E. Leonard, in whose charge they will be during the evening. Each man will be given a United States flag and will have a white sash with blue edging and bearing the letters N. A. pinned on his left arm by a committee of young ladies. The men will then be formed in line on the sidewalk in front of the town hall, with civil and Spanish war veterans in the rear.

"Organizations which are to take part in the parade will take position as follows: Company C, Pawtucket; Connecticut Home Guard, on Elm street, right resting on Broad; Westervy Constabulary, on Granite street, right resting on Broad street; Westervy Sanitary squad, on Granite street, in rear of constabulary; Boy Scouts on Elm street, in rear of Home Guard. "The procession will form at 7.30 and move in the following order: Platoon of Police, Chief Thomas E. Brown. Westerly band, Charles O. Gavitt, leader. Company C, Pawtucket, C. H. G., Captain Shelby Nicholas. Westerly Constabulary, Captain Charles H. Ledward. Westerly Sanitary Squad, Dr. Frank I. Payne. Westerly Boy Scouts, Scoutmaster Charles E. Fowler. "In passing the town hall a marching salute will be given to the National army men, and they will join the procession in the left of the line. The procession will be over this line of march: Broad street, Dixon square, West Broad street to Morgan, countermarch through West Broad street, Dixon square and Broad street, then through Granite street, Grove avenue and High street, and will enter Willcox park between the post office and Memorial building.

"In the park, the band will enter the band stand, and the Home Guards the Constabulary. Sanitary Squad and Boy Scouts will form a hollow square on the lawn on the east side of the band stand, with the National Army men inside the square. Patriotic selections will be given by the band, and there will be a short address by Representative Samuel H. Davis, and the Star Spangled Banner will be sung, with band accompaniment.

"After these exercises a picnic lunch will be given to the National Army men by the ladies of Endicott and Hancock Women's Relief Corps, which will conclude the celebration.

"The general public is requested to show the families and sweethearts of the men we are honoring all the consideration possible and give them places in the front rank wherever there is a crowd.

"Residents along the line of march are requested to illuminate the fronts of their homes while the procession is passing.

"Automobilists are urged to keep their cars off of Broad street, Dixon square, West Broad street and High street between Canal and the square until after the procession has passed. "People will not be allowed to congregate on the sidewalk in front of the town hall.

"Don't hesitate to use plenty of red fire so that the men who are to represent us in the great war can be readily seen and recognized.

"If the evening is stormy the exercises will be held in the town hall, but owing to the limited capacity of the building only the selectees, their families and sweethearts will be admitted.

Westerly young men who have been selected, but not yet drafted for military service, and who are not to leave Providence for the Rhode Island contingent at Ayer, Mass., next Wednesday, have been invited to unite with those that are to go and like all others selected in the state, to participate in the big parade and reception in that city. These selected men have received letters of directions enclosing a brass band and the letters N. A. to be worn on the left arm, also transportation tickets to and from home, and two square and white and blue tags, which are to be given to relatives, entitling them to the courtesy of favorable positions along the line of march. The Westerly contingent will leave here on the 6.53 a. m. train, and will mobilize in the state armory at 9 o'clock. Special arrangements have been made for additional car and train service, for the accommodation of the selected men and those who accompany them.

The local boards of the state are completing the work of assigning men required to fill the Rhode Island increment which leaves next Wednesday for Ayer, Mass. These young men have been assigned to the adjutant general from Westerly: James Bernasconi, James Real, Angelo Rizzo, Franklin C. Smith, Vincenzo Martini, Dennis L. Jones, John Padalino, Charles M. Murray, John Coschignaro, Columbus J. Passetti, Joseph C. Lowry, Angelo Testa, Robert W. Wilcox, Louis Collins, Thomas W. Comstock, Edmund A. L. Passetti, Anthony O. Arcangle, Patrick L. Priore, James Hamilton, Jr., Hugh Alvin Roman, Frank P. Morenzoni, James Alerzo, Giuseppe Virono.

The September term of the superior court for Washington county, which will open this (Monday) morning, promises to be one of the longest sessions in years. There is a large number of criminal complaints to be acted upon, as well as an unusually large civil docket. Associate Justice Sweeney will open the session, but will be followed on the second day by Associate Justice Barrows, as the former is scheduled to sit in the chambers on the assignment calendar there are 15 new actions at law, eight new complaints in equity and 14 new divorce cases, to say nothing of the many cases carried over from the last session. There will probably be a few indictments from the grand jury.

The new complaints assigned for September 17 are as follows: Guarantee Food Company vs. James W. Burke; Kilbur v. Cheever vs. L. Castritus Company; Joseph Gabrielle vs. Joseph Alamo, alias; Frank W. Coy Real Estate Company et al. vs. Charles J. Butler; Frank W. Coy Company vs. Orlando R. Smith; Jeremiah J. Haggerty vs. Rhoda M. Brooks; Washington Trust Co. vs. Mary Datoio; John Galluccio vs. Louis Gentile; Henrietta Donnelly vs. Robert J. Donnelly, alias, et al.; Dwight R. Stillman vs. Ell Monti et al.; Mary Antonia Cimatore vs. Joseph Gabriele; Dwight R. Stillman, executor, et al. vs. Ell Monti, et al.; Arthur Fragueli vs. William M. The American Waste and Metal Co. vs. Abraham Kaplan, alias; Giuseppe Cimatore vs. Joseph Gabriele.

Complainants whose assignment day is September 17: State, Peter Mulligan, complainant, vs. William Mulligan, alias (threat to kill). State, Alida J. Mulligan, complainant, vs. William Mulligan (threat to kill). State, Peter E. Mulligan, complainant, vs. William Mulligan (assault). State, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Arthur H. Leonard, larceny. State, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Isaac C. Ellis, larceny. State, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Radolfo Yanello, alias, larceny. State, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Radolfo Yanello, alias, larceny. State, Thomas E. Brown, complainant, vs. Radolfo Yanello, alias, larceny.

Ellis and petition writers whose assignment day is September 17: State of Rhode Island vs. the Frank W. Coy Real Estate Co., et al. vs. Wilfred W. Cookayne vs. Richmond Lacey Works, Edwin Ward Vars, et al. vs. Sarah A. Kelley, et al. George W. Wainwright vs. Richmond Lacey Works.

The grand jurors who will make their appearance on the opening day are: From South Kingstown: Archie Brown, Galston, K. Congdon, Mich. Road Leslie, Charles E. Clarke and Elmer E. Booth.

From North Kingstown: Francis S. Madison, John Nugent, Esbon S. Gardner and George A. Lewis. Westerly: George L. Stillman, Geo. U. Kempf, Jay C. H. Harvey, William J. Hutt and Peter Fancora. Richmond: George A. Niles, Hopkinton: Samuel A. Greene and John S. Cole. Charlestown: Alfred H. Wilkinson, Exeter: Henry B. Reynolds, Narragansett: Frank R. MacKensie.

The petit jurors will report the second day instead of Wednesday, as has been the custom in years. This evidently means that Judge Sweeney will try the divorce docket the first day. Petitions for naturalization will also be taken up on the opening day, and all claimants who have petitions addressed to this session of the court will be on hand at 9.30 a. m.

The list of petit jurors: South Kingstown: Henry W. Partelow, Thomas A. Brophy, C. Spencer, Merrill, Clifford P. Partelow, Elisha N. Robinson and Charles S. Chappell. North Kingstown: Jesse E. Brown, Joseph S. Arnold, Arthur L. Steere, William B. Babcock, Joseph Nelson, Ziba Young and Joseph H. Bullock. Westerly: William H. Rhodes, Herbert T. Kenyon, Sydney E. Chapman, James Brown, Lyman Hall, William J. Onge, John E. Holliday, Edgar J. Slocum, Robert Bonner. Richmond: John W. Smith and Henry P. Woodmansee. Hopkinton: John W. Burdick, Nathan W. James, Frank A. Clarke and Alton P. Kenyon. Charlestown: Thomas J. Webster and James C. Tucker. Exeter: Frederick E. Knight and Charles S. Gear. Narragansett: Jacob Finestain and

William J. Comstock.

The field sports for children at the Kingston fair created much interest among the school pupils of South county. The results in the events were as follows: 100 yards dash, boys under 12, won by Howard Broadfoot, of Westerly; Philip E. Tyler of Kingston, second; Leroy Woodmansee, of Shannock, third.

100 yards dash, boys 12 to 15, won by Milton Preston, of Allentown; Galen Kinney, of Kingston, second; Clifford Bosworth, of Westerly, third.

Letter Carrier Charles St. Onge was off duty Saturday, on account of illness.

About thirty of the Westerly soldier boys were home on pass Saturday and Sunday.

A number from Westerly attended the automobile races at Narragansett park, Saturday.

A bulletin in the interests of prohibition is posted daily in front of the First Baptist church.

The adjourned annual meeting of the trustees of the Westerly Memorial Library association was held Saturday evening.

The Grand Army men of Westerly hold their business sessions by daylight nowadays, it being more convenient for the aged veterans.

The annual prize speaking and spelling contests at the Kingston fair were omitted as the only candidates for competition were from the Westerly High School.

The attendance at the Kingston fair was a trifle more than 20,000, a trifle less than last year. The gate receipts about $200 less, and the number transported by railroads was 1,000 less.

With the installation of an up-to-date modern fire apparatus at Watch Hill, the fire protection of the village of Westerly and vicinity is materially improved. This machine will be run from Watch Hill, in a quicker time than it could be done by a local steam fire engine.

A Westerly young man among the first to pass the physical test and accepted for military service, who expected to be called for service this week, immediately quit work for recreation before entering the army. His name is not among those certified for service and he is very much disappointed in consequence.

HERCULES TIRE CO.
1789 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

ands, N. Y., September 8. Mr. Root is a brother of Mrs. Grant. The bride is a niece of the late United States Senator Nathan P. Dixon, of Westerly.

Attorney Samuel H. Davis of Westerly, will assist in the prohibition campaign in Connecticut. Before he began the practice of law he was pastor of the Pawtucket Seventh Day Baptist church, and later secretary of the Massachusetts Anti-Saloon league. He is a good speaker and thoroughly conversant with all that pertains to prohibition.

A bill has been introduced in congress, which will affect Superintendent Knowles, of Wakefield, in charge of the Rhode Island stations and Fishers Island. It provides that the thirteen superintendents of the coast guard shall have the rank, pay, and allowances as provided for other officers in that branch of the service. The first three, that of captain; the next five that of first lieutenant; the remaining five that of second lieutenant.

MYSTIC

Hermes-Bumke Wedding—Capt. Elias F. Wilcox Proffers Use of Community Room for Village—Visitors to Camps.

Miss Katie Bumke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bumke and Fred Hermes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hermes, both of Mystic, were united in matrimony Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Mark's Episcopal church by Rev. A. H. Barrington. Miss Lena Bumke, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Leonard J. Hermes, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hermes left on the 12.10 express for a trip to Boston. On their return they will reside on Mistuxet avenue. Mr. Hermes is a weaver in the Roscoe velvet Co. and both young people are very popular in the village.

Proffer of Community Room.
On his own invitation and out of his own private funds, Captain Elias F. Wilson will give the village as a community hall the use of the western room in the building recently acquired by the Wilcox Fertilizing company.

Realizing the demand for such a room where the various organizations of Mystic having no regular meeting place may gather for educational, social or other purposes worth while, the captain has concluded that the necessity for such a place warrants his offer, hence his proposal. Such organizations as Campfire Girls, Boy Scouts, the Fortnightly, the Red Cross, the Men's club and societies holding cake sales will find this room available about October 1. Captain Wilcox wants no revenue from the offer which is purely disinterested and for the use of Mystic people and its various organizations which have no regular meeting place.

On Motoring Outing.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis and Mrs. William Cromwell are motoring in the White Mountains for a week.
