COL. CHARLES W. GALE.

Not in a long period of time has Norwich experienced a loss that has called for such a widespread expression of sincere regret as that caused by the sudden taking away of Colonel Charles W. Gale. He was one of the community's leading citizens, a man highly honored and respected by all classes and one whose place in the community and in the hearts of the people will be most difficult to fill.

Another southern city, Mobile, has experienced the efforts of a disastrous fire by which 200 buildings were destroyed, 1500 people made homeless and property damage of from three-quarters to a million dollars caused.

EDITORIAL NOTES.
The ambition of the Huns seems to be to have a part of that treaty at least made in Germany.

OUR OWN BARBARITY.
From the recent conference that was held for the purpose of opening a stronger campaign than ever against the practice of lynching in this country, it is to be sincerely hoped that certain forces will be set in motion that will bring about a realization of the enormity of such crime and send home to those who participate or give passive encouragement to such acts the necessity of uniting their efforts in bringing about its abolition.

THE PROTEST OF THE JEWS.
There can be no wonder that the Jews in many cities of this country are adopting or have adopted resolutions calling upon this country, the president or the peace delegation at Paris to take steps that will help to put an end to the horrible massacres of Jews in Europe with particular reference to Poland, Russia and Rumania.

THE MAN WHO TALKS.
It is said 'Habit commences to bind you with a gossamer thread like the spider's web.' The man who talks is bound by the threads of his own words.

THE QUAIL TRAP.
There is no long wait between the flight of the winter birds and the coming of our summer friends—the quails.

IN THE DAY'S NEWS.
Lemberg.
"Already bearing the scars of the world war, added to the marks of sieges and captures through the first five centuries of its municipal existence, even the armistice has not brought peace to Lemberg, which Ukrainians are reported to have attacked," says a bulletin of the National Geographic Society.

THE LESSON OF MOBILE.
Another southern city, Mobile, has experienced the efforts of a disastrous fire by which 200 buildings were destroyed, 1500 people made homeless and property damage of from three-quarters to a million dollars caused.
