FIRE IN FRANKLIN STREET CELLAR

At 12:25 o'clock this (Saturday) morning an alarm from Box 25, corner Franklin and Willow streets, called out the fire department for a small blaze at No. 220 Franklin street owned by A. E. Lambert who occupies the first floor. The second floor is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Miner.

The fire was confined to the flooring and door of a basement entrance located on the north side of the house. Several small tanks of chemical were used to extinguish the fire.

The fire was discovered by people passing the house. Mice and matches were responsible for the blaze.

DIVORCES ARE GRANTED AND MARRIAGE ANNULED

Four divorces were granted and one marriage was annuled by Judge George E. Hinman in the superior court short calendar session here Friday. The morning business of the court took so much time that the hearings on the divorces were not reached until after the 1 o'clock recess.

Lawrence E. Ketch of New London was granted annulment of his marriage with Florence R. Ketch of that city, whom he married on June 5, 1917, under the name of Florence Emma Randall. Testimony was introduced to show that she was already a married woman when he married her and a wedding certificate was shown of the marriage in New London on January 27, 1913, of Frank William Germain and Florence Rockholtz.

On the grounds of desertion since July 20, 1916, Caroline Forbush Lakin of New London was given a divorce from Wilbur A. Lakin, now of parts unknown. They were married on December 18, 1914. She is allowed to resume her maiden name of Forbush. Ethel Brown and Ellen Noyes of New London were the witnesses for her in court.

Nellie E. Saunders of Griswold petitioned for and secured divorce from Frank E. Saunders, now of parts unknown. She married him on Oct. 16, 1904, and said she was deserted on Feb. 1, 1905. Her maiden name was Tinker. Following her testimony, Mary Tinker and Ann C. Soule gave evidence in support of her claim for divorce.

Agnes McDowell Franklin, of Griswold, whose maiden name was McGill, secured divorce from Albert Franklin of Sterling, to whom she was married on Aug. 19, 1900. He deserted her on Aug. 25, 1914. William McDowell and Isabel McDowell gave testimony in the case.

Robert James Long, Jr., of New London, was given divorce from Mildred Virginia Caldwell Long on the grounds of desertion on Jan. 23, 1917. They were married on Aug. 15, 1908, at Hollis, N. H. The petitioner's brother, Cedric B. Long, and Richard W. Mansfield, testified in the case.

The divorce suit of Nora Cregan Saunders, against George Elmer Saunders, was partially heard and continued. Besides the petitioner, the witnesses were Milo Page and William Hartley.

DEAN LADD IS GLAD BERKELEY IS EXONERATED

Dean William P. Ladd of Berkeley Divinity School, at Middletown in a statement bearing upon the report of the committee of the Episcopal diocese which investigated charges of radicalism against the school, said that he was glad the report had dismissed the charges brought against the school and against himself. Two things in it he said he could accept, namely, the reference to his membership in the Church League for Industrial Democracy and that which decommended control over members of the Berkeley Faculty.

The dean said that the charges sprang from a misapprehension of methods at the school. The policy had been to give the men who were preparing to preach the Gospel the opportunity in course to acquire some knowledge of the world in which they were to preach, and each year some radical speaker sent by the Intercollegiate Socialist Society had addressed the students. This plan had the approval of the late Dean Hart.

Dean Ladd names bishops and clergymen who have membership in the league and asserts that there would be disaster ahead for the school should the Dean administer it "with one eye on the general public and the other on the trustees." He says that if the faculty were to surrender their independence of action and influence and were to turn over to the trustees their responsibility as to what should be taught "the school would, in my opinion, not be long in losing the confidence of the church at large * * * I cannot, while I remain Dean, be a party to a policy so entirely at variance with my own judgment and conviction of what is right."

COUNTY MUTUAL FIRE HAD MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Officers and agents of the New London County Mutual Fire Insurance company had reason to rejoice over the best year of business when they held their 13th annual outing this week at the Griswold Hotel, Eastern Point. About 60 of the officers and agents of the company were in attendance, enjoying a banquet which was served at the opening of the afternoon session of the outing.

The address of the meeting was given by President H. H. Gallup who spoke of the progress of the company and of the prospects for the future. Secretary Walter F. Lester acted as toastmaster in his usual capable manner.

The business during 1919 was the largest ever recorded in the history of the compnay. The assets were increased nearly $100,000 and the surplus by about $80,000, which probably is the largest proportion of increase in surplus of any of the 178 companies reporting to the Connecticut insurance department. The assets of the company today total nearly $500,000. In the course of the company's experience it has paid out $1,300,000 in losses.

The officers of the company are: President H. H. Gallup; secretary, W. F. Lester; treasurer W. H. Prothero; assistant secretary A. L. Peale; directors, H. H. Gallup, F. H. Allen, S. A. Gallup, W. H. Prothero, N. D. Sevin, F. A. Stevens, J. K. Guy, C. R. Marvin, S. B. Palmer, E. A. Tracy, O. E. Wulf, W. F. Lester.

Blessed are the meek, for they get in their work just the same.

PROF. FRANK JEWETT REVISITS NORWICH AFTER MANY YEARS

Professor Frank F. Jewett of Oberlin, Ohio, was a visitor in Norwich Thursday and Friday of this week. He graduated from the Norwich Free Academy in 1866 and after graduating from Yale in 1879 returned to Norwich and was the first instructor in chemistry at the N. F. A. Later he studied a year in Germany after which he spent four and a half years in Japan as professor of chemistry in the University of Tokio. He returned to this country in 1880 to become professor of chemistry and minerology at Oberlin college, Ohio, and has acted in that capacity for the past forty years with great distinction. The professor is remembered by many of our older inhabitants, some of whom he visited. He also visited the Free Academy buildings and noted and commended the great changes and improvements which have been made in them since the days of his instructorship there.

Prof. Jewett attended the boat races hoping to see the crew from his Alma Mater win, but was disappointed in that respect.

RICH RED BLOOD

The Secret of a Robust Healthy Constitution

Thin, impoverished blood results in pale, sallow complexions, run-down anaemic conditions, and leaves one without strength, energy or ambition. Lots of people here think that the one great remedy for this condition is Vinol, that non-secret cod liver and iron tonic without oil, which with the beef peptones and glycerophosphates contained in it, acts very quickly in creating thousands of red corpuscles in the blood. It quickens the circulation, increases the appetite, aids digestion, and in this natural manner creates strength, vitality and energy. Hundreds of people in this vicinity have testified to its value.
