Willimantic Saw Brown Squad.

The Brown university football team and substitutes passed through Willimantic Friday forenoon in a special car attached to the regular train arriving at 11.10 from Providence and was then cut off and attached to the 11.23 Hartford train. The team was to stop at the Hotel Garde, Hartford, over night and journey to New Haven today for its annual game with Yale. The players appeared in some instances to be almost overtrained and pretty well battered up, but possibly most of the apparent injuries were nothing more than muscle bruises. They were a quiet and orderly crowd but chock full of enthusiasm to at least score and hold Yale to a reasonably close game. The men did not appear to be over husky, but all had that do-or-die spirit written all over their countenances that bodes trouble for opponents.

Independents Enter Basketball Field.

Manager Bendett is to form a fast basketball team of gridiron stars and will be out for the best there is. The Independents will start practicing Monday night. The following men are to try out: L'Heureux, Reardon, Popham, Bendett, Colligan and McIntyre, Washburn, Donovan. Out of these players Manager Bendett expects to pick a championship team. The Independents would like to hear from all fast teams, suc has Taftville, Groton, Thread City Cyclers, or the Putnam team.

CONNECTICUT'S BIG FOOTBALL DAY

Games on Three College Gridirons—Brown to Make Yale Show Her Hand—Wesleyan's Strong Team Meets Williams—Trinity Links Up With Massachusetts Aggies.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 10.—With games on the gridirons of Connecticut's three colleges tomorrow afternoon, followers of football will have their every wish gratified. The Wesleyan-Williams game at Middletown will be next to the last of the season for the former team, and Trinity will play its last home game with the Massachusetts Agricultural college at Hartford. Yale will play Brown at New Haven, and one of the hardest fought games of the season is anticipated.

Wesleyan Leads in Williams Series.

The game with Williams is looked upon by the Wesleyan undergraduate body as one of the most important of the year. The two teams have played yearly since 1896, Wesleyan in those years winning five, and two games resulted in a tie. The 1903 game with a 5 to 5 score and last year when neither team was able to make a point. Wesleyan has one of the strongest teams of its career this season and despite the defeats by Trinity and Colgate the past two weeks, the eleven has been knit together and will be at its strongest tomorrow. The Williams squad, as confident of victory as Wesleyan, arrived in Middletown late this afternoon and will spend the night at the Highland Country club in Westfield. Williams had a weak start, but picked up materially in the past three weeks under the coaching of Fred Daly, Yale's captain of last year, and a strong finish is expected.

Trinity Has Fine Open Game.

Trinity's game with the Massachusetts college is likely to be a close one. The latter team, under the coaching of Hubbard, a former Amherst captain, has shown much strength and is very aggressive. Trinity's showing this season has been even better than that of last year, when she had one of the best teams ever turned out. The team seems to have mastered the finer points of the game as now played and has developed a fine open game.

To Show Blue's Real Strength.

With Brown tomorrow Yale will have practically its first chance to show its real strength. There has been a long hospital list the past few weeks, but the injured have gradually come back one by one until what will be probably the lineup against Princeton and Harvard has been gotten together.

Shevlin to Yale's Rescue.

Shevlin, who came out of the west last year and whipped the team into shape for a victory over Princeton and a tie with Harvard, has been on the field for four days and with the aid of the other coaches has coached the team into what is expected will prove a surprise to tomorrow's onlookers. Last year's score of 22 to 0 in favor of Brown has also to be wiped out and will lend an intentness to the play that otherwise might be lacking.

Brown Quietly Confident.

The Brown aggregation reached Hartford this noon and had light practice on Trinity's field this afternoon and will leave for New Haven tomorrow in time to reach Yale field soon after 1 o'clock. While they do not look for an easy win over Yale, the men seem confident of a victory and claim to be at the top edge in their play. They do not consider that the Harvard game should be taken as showing their real form and believe that with their shifts and forward passes they will be able to outplay the Blue as they did a year ago. The fact that Yale has never developed a good defense for the forward pass is given as an added reason for a victory tomorrow.

The teams will lineup tomorrow as follows:

Yale—Bomeisler le, Scully lt, Francis lg, Ketcham c, McDevitt rg, Paul rt, Avery re, Howe qb, Camp lhb, Freeman rhb, Dunn fb.

Brown—Adams le, Kratz lt, Kulp lg, Donovan c, Gelb rg, Bartlett rt, Asbaugh, Mitchell re, Sprackling qb, Tenny, Crowther lhb, Bean rhb, Snell, Jones fb.

STRONG LOCAL TEAM MEETS THE ACADEMY.

Greeneville Heavyweights Should Furnish a Stiff Game for N. F. A.

The following are to be the lineups of the two elevens when the Academy football team plays the Heavyweights this afternoon:

Academy—Boyd le, Elliott lt, Kinney lg, Jackson c, Herbert rg, Bliss rt, Croker re, Robinson qb, Coughlin fb, McCormick rhb, Swan lhb.

Heavyweights—McIntyre lt, Rydholm rt, Corey c, Henderson rg, Quinn lg, Popham re, Sweeney le, Gadle qb, Supa lhb, Fielding fb, L'Heureux rhb, Donovan c.

Before the Academy season is over it is expected to be playing on the campus, but that field is still too soft and this game will have to be played on the Hospital gridiron.

The Heavyweights have assembled a strong and fast team of local players who should give the Academy a stiff rub, and make one of the good games of the season. It will also furnish the Academy followers a chance to get a line on what the new backfield combination will do under fire.

TRIANGULAR ROAD RACE.

Taftville Man Wants to See Wicks, Tuckey and Hendrick Meet.

Taftville, Conn., Nov. 10, 1911.
Sporting Editor Norwich Bulletin:

Now that the baseball season has ended and the football and cross country season is here, it may not be out of place to suggest that a race for the road record from New London to Norwich between Tuckey, Wicks and Tommy Hendrick would be an interesting event for Thanksgiving day. As I understand that Tuckey contemplates making another attempt at breaking the record this fall, and as I have assurance from Hendrick that he would take part in such a face, if a prize was offered, and the men were amateurs, which I understand both are at present.

So hoping to see this race arranged for Thanksgiving, I remain

Very respectfully,
J. D. NOLAN.

Taftville, Conn.

Taftville Plays T. C. Cyclers Next.

The Taftville basketball team will play its second game of the season next Tuesday in Parish hall. A good game will be expected, as Manager Fred Caron has had his team in very good practice to meet the Thread City Cyclers of Willimantic, who claim championship class. The Taftville team should make them step pretty lively. The Taftville lineup will be picked from Aberg, White, Murphy, Fountain, Desjardains, L'Heureux, Porter Semino. Captain Aberg thinks that this lineup can make the visitors go some. Manager Caron would like to hear from Mystic basketball team, and also from Putnam. He wants to arrange a game with them for Thanksgiving, Nov. 30. A good preliminary game will take place during the evening, the Wild Cats vs. the White Elephants.

Baltic Has Basketball.

The Baltic Athletic club has organized a basketball team and would like to arrange games with any fast amateur teams under 20.

No Game for Independents.

For Wright cancelled its game for the Cranberry on Sunday against the Independents, because the Fort Wright team is to play Fort Terry today. Manager Bendett was not able to find a team to fill the date.

Will Meet Burns of Putnam.

Sporting Editor of The Norwich Bulletin:

Dear Sir: Seeing in your paper the challenge of Kid Burns of Putnam to 122 pound wrestlers, I would like to meet him at catch weights anywhere he can get the bout on.

Yours truly,

MARTY O'TOOLE NOW THE STANDARD MEASURE.

Minor Leaguers With Stars to Sell Match Them Up With Marty.

Let a young minor league player sell for a phenomenal sum of money, and that player immediately becomes the standard by which all other players in that league are gauged.

There's Marty O'Toole and Joe Benz, for instance. O'Toole is the fellow who was sold to the Pirates for $22,500. Benz is the young man who was purchased by President Comiskey of the White Sox and who worked against the Detroit Tigers in three innings of the last game between the white-hosed fellows and the crew of Jennings.

O'Toole last year pitched in the Western league. Nor was he so well thought of out there. Even now the fellows who run ball clubs in that part of the country are absolutely certain that he is worth no such sum of money as Barney Dreyfus paid. A good pitcher? Yes, they answer, but not a great one.

Well, soon after the sale of O'Toole this fellow Benz was placed on the market.

Manager Hugh Duffy made a trip out to Des Moines, for whom Benz pitched, and looked the youngster over. Then he visited some of the other cities of the circuit and finally landed in St. Joseph, Mo. That's where Jack Holland is the boss. And since Holland and Duffy are friends the manager of the White Sox naturally sought the minor league manager.

"About this Benz?" queried the Chicago manager.

"You will make no mistake," was the answer of Holland. "You know what O'Toole is. Well, when he left this league last year he wasn't anywhere near the pitcher than Benz is today.

"If O'Toole is worth anywhere near the price that Barney Dreyfus paid for him, then Benz is worth more than $10,000."

That seemed to be the price that the Des Moines people were asking, too, for they wired several of the magnates offering the young pitcher for that sum. Whether Mr. Comiskey paid that amount is not known. But that he paid a good sum for the pitcher is pretty certain.

But, getting down to the first proposition. Let a man step out of the minor leagues and make good and he immediately becomes the standard by which all players are judged. Larry Doyle was among the first of the ball players to sell for a high amount. Immediately when a Three-I magnate wanted to dispose of a young player he attempted to convince the major league magnate that the youngster was just as good as Doyle was when he left the Springfield club.

In Michigan they measure their pitchers by King Cole of the Cubs. You attempt to negotiate for a pitcher in the S. M., and the first word you get from the willing club owner is that the fellow you are looking at is certainly as good as Cole ever was and that he even looks better.

Out in the Western league O'Toole has become the standard. Any old time that you attempt to buy a twirler out there you learn that he is just as good as the Pittsburg recruit.

Now that is nothing against Benz. Whether he is as good as O'Toole or not is quite beside the mark. Down on the South Side in Chicago they think they have a find. He's a big fellow. He has a lot of nerve and that was proved when he set the Tigers down one after the other in the three innings that he worked. That is after he got started. And his start was far from auspicious. The first man up singled and the next doubled. That was enough to make a youngster panicky. But Benz didn't become so. He set down the next nine men to face

CARLISLE COACH SURE OF BEATING HARVARD.

Indians Already Have Eight Scalps—Crimson Subs Will Play.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 10.—Carlisle's gridiron warriors, with the football scalps of eight eastern college elevens depending from their belts, camped tonight within striking distance of their big paleface foes, the Harvard team, whom they will meet in the Stadium tomorrow. Although the Crimson ruled the favorite in the betting around town tonight, Coach Glenn Warner of Carlisle said he was confident of success. Captain Burd and Newashe, two of the Indians' mightiest warriors, will be unable to enter the fray because of injuries.

The Crimson eleven will be composed entirely of second string men, according to announcement by Coach Haughton of Harvard tonight, following a 45 minute signal practice in which the entire Harvard squad participated.

The probable lineups:

Harvard—Howard le, Stowe lt, Keays lg, Parmenter c, Maguire rg, Cenckes rt, Hollister re, Freedley qb, Reynolds rhb, Morrison rhb, Blackall fb.

Carlisle—Roberts le, Wheeler lt, Jordan lg, Bergie c, Busch rg, Lone Star rt, Garlow re, Arcasa qb, Thorpe lhb, J. Wheelock rhb, Powell fb.

Jake Stahl for Boston Americans.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—J. G. Stahl, when seen at his work in a local bank today, verified the report that he was going to manage the Boston Americans.

"Yes, I've decided to accept the offer made by President James R. McAleer," he said. "I'll be mighty glad to get back into the game again, and especially to be back in Boston. The surroundings will be congenial with McAleer and Robert McRoy at the head of the club."

Stahl would not say what sum was named in his contract, but it is understood it was substantial.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

DAY OF FLUCTUATIONS.

Stocks Rise and Fall Within Narrow Limits.

New York, Nov. 10.—Fluctuations of stocks were uncertain and at times feverish today, but the market again exhibited decided strength. At the opening the railroad stocks showed substantial gains. The market soon fell back, and some issues, including Canadian Pacific, Erie, Missouri Pacific and Wabash preferred, lost one to three points. Heavy realizing sales kept the market in check. Prices rose and fell within comparatively narrow limits until late in the day, when buying expanded rapidly. Prices shot upward and at the close extensive gains were well distributed through the list of more active stocks, in some cases running up to five points.

The railroad stocks, especially those of the western group, were the leaders of the market. Trading in these stocks was stimulated by the action of the new commerce court in staying the decree of the interstate commerce commission for a reduction of intermountain freight rates.

A small cash loss by the banks for the week was indicated by known movements of money.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,076,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Two Stock Exchange Failures.

New York, Nov. 10.—Two stock exchange failures, resulting primarily from the recent advance in the market, were announced today. The insolvent firms are W. L. Stevens & company and Ball, Wicher & company. Neither firm was especially prominent in the market, but accounts agree that their recent operations were on the bear side.

GRIDIRON NOTES.

The loss of the Princeton game by Harvard means a harder game for the Indians, and no man appreciates it more than Warner.

Not a Brown player was injured at Cambridge which is one consolation for the Providence football authorities.

Where Yale has been beaten by the Army and Harvard by the Orange and Black, the Jungaleers have yet to feel the sting of defeat.

The password for the Harvard team Saturday was to watch Sprackling and the consequence of it was that the Brown star had little chance to move without a man being on top of him.

Thorpe will be back in the Indian lineup by the middle of the week, and a man that can run 10 yards in 11 seconds in a football uniform is one that is bound to star in the present game.
