

NEW MOVEMENT IN TINNERS' STRIKE

Plumbers' Association and Outside Firms Take Steps to Clear Up Work in Hand.

OUTLOOK BRIGHT FOR CUSTOMERS

Masters Desire to Install Sliding Scale But Men Hold Out for Minimum Wage.

As far as the effect of the strike of the city's metal workers upon the customers' work is concerned, the outlook is much brighter, but the deadlock between the masters and men remains tight as ever with no prospect of a compromise.

BOYS LEG BROKEN

Ran Down in James Street by a Truck.

While playing in the street near his home at 63 James street yesterday evening about 6 o'clock Frank Malone, ten years of age, son of David Malone, was run over by a team driven by a driver whose name is unknown.

TRAINMEN ACQUITTED

Accused of Causing Death of New Haven Woman.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 11.—Robert Addison, engineer and John Sawyer, fireman on the Norfolk & Western switch train which crashed to death Mrs. E. G. Mansell of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Henry Holman of Springfield, Mass., on the night of Sept. 23, were today acquitted of the charge of causing the deaths, while Conductor P. H. Hayman, was held to trial with Supt. of Terminals Dubarry, charged with criminal negligence.

CAR STRIKES CHURCHILL

East Havener Brought to the Hospital Slightly Injured.

Edward Vlack, aged sixty-eight man, whose home is aboard a boat in the East Haven river, was struck by an express trolley car in Branford last evening and injured so badly that it was thought necessary to take him to the New Haven hospital.

TOBACCO HARVEST

So Thought Three Men With $100 Box of the Weid.

CAUGHT IN FAIR STREET

Belief That Booty Was Stolen From Derby Express.

Because Detective McAvoy happened to be patrolling about in the vicinity of Fair street, last evening three men with a big box of tobacco that it is thought they must have stolen from one of the express wagons of Sloan's Derby express failed to dispose of it according to their hearts' desire.

TAFT TAKES HONOR

Secretary of War's Son Near Head of Sophomore Class.

Robert Alphonse Taft of Washington, D. C., son of Secretary of War William Howard Taft, is among the twenty-two members of the class of 1910, in the academic department of Yale to receive a philosophical oration stand in his studies for the freshman year.

VALOK INJURED

Falls from Trolley Car and Breaks an Arm.

Edward Vlack, aged sixty-eight years, a cigarmaker, who lives at the Sterling house, on Chapel street, fell from a trolley car at the corner of State and Audubon street early this morning.

TWO LIGHTS GRANTED

The lighting committee held a public hearing last evening on several lighting petitions. Two of these were granted, the remainder being left for personal investigation by the committee.

CLOTHES WERE ON FIRE

A still alarm brought out Company 4 about supper time last evening for a fire at 24 Locust street. The fire was in some clothes in a bedroom. The fire did little damage, simply burning the clothes and some of the paper on the walls. The house is owned by Joseph Jonnesa and Salvatore Cregello was the occupant.

RIGHTS OF THE GAS COMPANY

Circular Issued On The Terms Of Subscription and Dates of Payment.

RIGHTS WILL BE EASILY OBTAINABLE

New Stock Issues Have Largely Increased the Number of Stockholders.

The rights for subscription to the new issue of New Haven Gas Co. debenture bonds are variously quoted at from 37 1/2 cents to $1 and as the price is so low many holders will prefer to take up the bonds as they will pay five per cent. and should be with par, being a gilt-edged security.

SUIT PROBABLY WON

George H. Clowes' Daughter Successful in $10,000 Damage Case.

Waterbury, Oct. 11.—George H. Clowes has received the following telegram from Charles N. Morgan & Sons, his New York attorneys, relating to the suit of his daughter, Miss Mary Clowes, against the Askin-Singer company for using her picture to advertise their production of "The Time, the Place and the Girl."

HEAD CRUSHED

Unknown Man Instantly Killed at South Norwalk.

South Norwalk, Oct. 11.—An unknown young man, about nineteen years of age, riding on the end of the baggage car of the Pittsfield express, coming from Danbury, leaped from the car and his head struck a fence, and he was instantly killed.

GIRL HURT BY AUTO

Machine Was Being Driven by Her Father.

Bridgeport, Oct. 11.—Jeremiah Righter, the plumbing contractor, while returning from Danbury fair last night at 6:30 p. m. an automobile, struck a boulder in the road at Jumpy Hill, Easton, hurling his pretty 17-year-old daughter, May, into the road in front of the machine, and running over her before he could bring the car to a stop.

YACHTSMEN WORRIED

Swedes Think Reply of New York Club Unsatisfactory.

Stockholm, Oct. 11.—The Royal Swedish Yacht club held a meeting today to discuss the reply of the New York Yacht club to its inquiry as to the conditions under which a challenge for the America's cup would be considered.

NEWS SUMMARY

GENERAL. Two Men Pose as One Girl's Bridgroom Sweden's Yachtsmen Not Satisfied Austria's Emperor Very Low Trainmen Are Acquitted. STATE. Young Girl Escapes from Danbury. Valuable Painting Stolen in Hartford. Freshly Man Found Dead in Orchard. Wallingford Man Rescued from Fire. Waterbury Suit Probably Won. Airship Motor Balks at Danbury Fair. CITY. Student Grievous Ripped Blakeslee Auto-Killing Laid. New Move in Tinnners' Strike. Park Department Wants Engineer. Taft's Son Takes Honor. Men Steal Big Box of Tobacco. Governor Opens Hibernian Fair. Motor Falls from Trolley Car. Boy Has Leg Broken by Team. East Havener Struck by Car. SPORTS. Sisters Struggle for Golf Championship. Cuba Make It Three Straight. Baby Wins Manhattan Handicap. Boston Americans Take Fifth Straight. N. H. C. C. vs. W. B. Burn Golfers To-day. Swedish Yachtsmen Surprised. St. Louis Cardinals Win. Sonoma Girl Champion for 1907. EVENTS TO-DAY. Yale and Holy Cross Meet. David Ward at the Hyperion. "Great Express Robbery" at New Haven. Big Vaudeville Bill at P.O.'s. "Shall We Forgive Her" at Bijou.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS AT IRISH FAIR

Tells of Fighting Bob's Commendation of Lieut. Cronan of New Haven.

MAYOR OPENS BIG HIBERNIAN EVENT

Blarney Stone Among the Exhibits at the Transformed Music Hall.

DANGER IN THE AIR

Motor of Airship at Danbury Fair Balks—Two Races.

MOTOR FELL OUT

Peculiar Accident to Trolley Car in Carlisle Street.

TWO PASSENGERS HURT

Newly Appointed Policeman Suffers Injuries About Shoulders.

WANT AN ENGINEER

Parks Department Desires One for Its Own Service.

JEWELS RECOVERED

Lebanon, Oct. 11.—John Clark, the administrator of the estate of Carrie Converse MacCormac, who, with her husband, Paul MacCormac, was killed as the result of an automobile accident in Norwalk last summer, has obtained possession of the jewels worn in a bag around Mrs. MacCormac's neck at the time she met her death.

RESCUED FROM FIRE

Sick Man Carried From His Burning Home in Wallingford.

WEATHER RECORD

Washington, Oct. 11.—Forecast: New England, rain Saturday; Sunday fair and colder, fresh northwest wind. Eastern New York, rain followed by fair and colder Saturday, Sunday fair, fresh northwest winds.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT

New Haven, Oct. 11, 1907. Temperature..... 58 A.M. 59 P.M. Wind direction..... SE S Wind velocity..... 8 10 Precipitation..... 0.0 Clear Weather..... Clear Cloudy Minimum temperature..... 50 Maximum temperature..... 64 Minimum last year..... 28 Maximum last year..... 59

BLAKESLEE AUTO KILLS LITTLE LAD

Seems That Ralph Hoxie Sprang Off Team and Ran in Front of Car.

CHOIR BOY AT THE ASCENSION CHURCH

Son of Automobile Owner on Trip During Typhoid Convalescence.

While out for a spin yesterday afternoon the automobile of Major Dennis Blakeslee, under the direction of Chauffeur Ernest J. Frye, and with Grant Blakeslee, Major Blakeslee's son, who has been ill with typhoid fever for some time, riding in it, struck and killed a little boy named Ralph Hoxie of 484 Greenwich avenue.

SONOMA GIRL WINS

Takes Transylvania Stake and Championship for Aged Trotters.

WANT AN ENGINEER

Parks Department Desires One for Its Own Service.

JEWELS RECOVERED

Lebanon, Oct. 11.—John Clark, the administrator of the estate of Carrie Converse MacCormac, who, with her husband, Paul MacCormac, was killed as the result of an automobile accident in Norwalk last summer, has obtained possession of the jewels worn in a bag around Mrs. MacCormac's neck at the time she met her death.

RESCUED FROM FIRE

Sick Man Carried From His Burning Home in Wallingford.

WEATHER RECORD

Washington, Oct. 11.—Forecast: New England, rain Saturday; Sunday fair and colder, fresh northwest wind. Eastern New York, rain followed by fair and colder Saturday, Sunday fair, fresh northwest winds.

LOCAL WEATHER REPORT

New Haven, Oct. 11, 1907. Temperature..... 58 A.M. 59 P.M. Wind direction..... SE S Wind velocity..... 8 10 Precipitation..... 0.0 Clear Weather..... Clear Cloudy Minimum temperature..... 50 Maximum temperature..... 64 Minimum last year..... 28 Maximum last year..... 59