

"The addition of a contrivance known as the Themodist has added to the already superior excellence of the instrument. If anything has been needed to bring the Pianola to absolute perfection, this new invention, musicians believe, has surely supplied it."

—New York Globe.

The Marvellous "THEMODIST"

Has Come as a Climax to All That Has Gone Before in The Development of The PIANOLA and PIANOLA PIANO

The wonderful achievement of the "Themodist" is to give the Pianola an absolutely governable touch—to bring out the melody strongly and clearly defined, with the accompaniment properly subdued.

Now, indeed, it is actually possible for anyone to play the piano with the highest artistic results, and with the least suggestion of mechanical effect completely eliminated.

Call at Steinert's Piano Store and hear the "Themodist" render pieces that are "impossible" on other Piano-Players.

HYPERION.

"COMING THRO' THE RYE."

Play Repeats Its Former Success in This City at Hyperion.

Frank Lator and his associates in "Coming Thro' the Rye" furnished a very pleasant evening for the fair sized audience which was present at the Hyperion theater last evening. Lator, the comedian of the piece, was funny, and he is particularly fortunate in being able to handle some equally amusing lines. There is not a bad song in the piece, which is rather unusual for a musical production today, all of the songs being catchy enough for the audience to whistle.

"Coming Thro' the Rye" is not burdened in the way of a plot. Brown, an artist, is in love with Loleta, his model but has been unfortunately enough to have become entangled with a matrimonial agency which has procured a countess for him. Just at the right time, Nott, Brown's tailor, appears on the scene, and is forced to impersonate the artist. A series of amusing situations follow which end by Nott's discovering that the model whom Brown is in love with proves to be his daughter, and so all ends well. One of the best of the cast was Fred L. Tilden, in the character of Lord Battersbee. His work in the first act was especially good.

Miss Evelyn Dunmore made a very satisfactory "Loleta" and sang "That's What the Boss Said to Me" and "Honey Boy," both tuneful melodies in a most pleasing manner. She received a number of encores on the latter song. One of the best of the cast was Fred L. Tilden, in the character of Lord Battersbee. His work in the first act was especially good.

"Coming Thro' the Rye" is very well staged and possesses a good singing chorus and a well drilled ballet which, if it was small could at least dance. The first act is by far the best as far as fun-making is concerned, and the second is help up by the catchy songs which come in rapid succession.

"The Ranger"—Dustin Farnum in the Big New York Success Tonight.

"The Ranger," direct from its run at Walkack's theater, New York, with Dustin Farnum in the leading role and the same excellent company and atmospheric scenery and beautiful effects, will be seen at the Hyperion tonight.

The success of Charles Frohman's company in Augustus Thomas' big American play, "The Ranger," has surprised many of the theatergoers in New York who thought that life in a Mexican town would fail to interest the public. The strong dramatic moments and the acting of Dustin Far-num have made this artist a full-fledged star. For instance, the audience is put into good humor with the hero almost as soon as he appears, we know about his love affair, and unconsciously we wonder how he will begin to reveal it. Thought of other plays prepares us for an inane soliloquy, but this is not the Ranger's way. He walks out to his horse, returns with him and instructs the men to protect their little home, and the woman, as he puts his feet in the stirrups to mount the saddle, just before he starts to overtake his gallant hand and return with them to protect his people, nothing prettier or more poetic than his appeal to the stars in telling her of his love, has been heard on our stage in many a day.

"The Man on the Box."

James Lee Finney, who is on his starting tour in the company "The Man on the Box" will be seen here at the Hyperion Saturday matinee and night, which will signalize Mr. Finney's first visit to this city in this popular play. "The Man on the Box" is too well known by those who keep in touch with theatrical affairs to necessitate an extended reference to it. For two years or more it has been one of the most popular comedies that has been brought out for a long time. James Lee Finney, the star, is as well known as the play, however. He has been prominent in the dramatic horizon for the past ten or twelve years. Mr. Finney's leading woman, Miss Elsie Leale, like the star, is entitled to high consideration by playgoers. She will be remembered as the marvellously brilliant young girl who created and for four years played the title role in "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

NOTICE

To the People of New Haven, Conn. All persons in New Haven must hold themselves responsible for any weakness or suffering caused from old age, chronic coughs or colds, bronchitis, weak lungs, run-down conditions, stomach troubles, nervousness or poor blood when we are willing to sell them the real cod liver preparation, Vinol, and return their money if it does not benefit.

The reason Vinol is so successful in restoring health and creating strength is because it contains in addition to tonic iron all the medicinal elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cod's livers, but without oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work.

Unlike old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, it is deliciously palatable, agreeable to the weakest stomach, therefore, unequalled as a strength creator and tonic reconstructor. Wm. H. Hull of Hull's Corner Drug Store says: "It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made that we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in New Haven, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee." Hull's Corner Drug Stores, cor. State and Chapel Sts., cor Howard and Congress avenues.

Mr. Montgomery Phister, Cincinnati's famous dramatic critic, says: "Dollie Dimples, a two-act musical comedy, was given its local premier at the Walnut street theater, yesterday, and met with so friendly a reception that it may be characterized as one of the hits of the season at this popular playhouse." Dainty Grace Cameron is the star of "Little Dollie Dimples," and it is said she is doing the best work of her career in this very successful musical entertainment. She is assisted by such well known artists as Al Lawrence, mimic and monologist; Phoebe Cardwain, the terpsichorean expert; Eva Speer, the celebrated throat whistler, singing with the larynx one octave higher than Metha. Parti, Ellen Beach Yaw or Edith Helena; Orah Faber, the renowned Hungarian girl violinist, brought over from Budapest as a special feature of Miss Cameron's company; the Criterion Musical Four, playing brass quartette, string, saxophones, etc.; the Two Musical Emperors and many others. This attraction appears at the New Haven theater, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, next week, and at the matinee on Wednesday.

BIJOU.

"Peaceful Valley" With Double Souvenir To-day.

There will be a grand double souvenir matinee at the Bijou this afternoon in connection with the performance of "Peaceful Valley" by Poll's own stock company. Mr. Poll has made preparation to distribute a large number of books descriptive of the work entailed in operating the string of theaters which are under his control. It is a very interesting book and contains a world of interesting information relative to matters theatrical. "Peaceful Valley," this week's offering, is attracting large audiences at each performance. The play is unusually entertaining and the characters, being typical of New England, are made thereby all the more interesting.

Next week the stock will be seen in "The Undertow." This play is along the same lines as "The Man of the Hour," and is of vital interest to all persons interested in problems of the times. It is a very strong play and one that, produced at popular prices, should draw packed houses at each performance.

POLL'S.

Three Feature Bill With Ethel Levey a Hit.

The three feature bill is making a hit at Poll's this week. Ethel Levey and her songs, Reynard and his "dumpty" family, the greatest ventriloquist act on the stage, Valadon, direct from London with some of the best feats of magic and illusions ever presented, make a combination that is bound to attract the attention of crowds at this theater this week. Crowded houses have been the rule thus far this week and the sale for the balance of the week is reported every large.

The olio has Abram and Johns in a sketch, Harper, Desmond and Hilliard and a host of others.

Blonde Typewriters Coming.

Johnnie Stanley and the Blonde Typewriters are to be the headlines of the Poll bill next week with a spectacular musical fantasy, "Rice and Pretext," in "Bumpy Bumps" after a two years' run at Hammerstein's New York city theater have decided to tour at this theater. They will be at Poll's all next week. Big olio is coming.

Food Poisons.

90 Per Cent. of All Diseases the Result of Undigested Putrefying Foods.

Men of affairs, women of society and children with active brains are too often sedentary in their habits, giving little time to exercise. To this evil is added that of high and irregular living—as a result, the stomach cannot stand the demands made upon it. The abused and overtaxed stomach does not properly do the work of digestion, food taken in ferments and the poison permeates the whole system. The body loses in weight and becomes a prey for the attack of whatever disease it may encounter.

Did it ever occur to you how busy that stomach of yours is? It only holds three pints, but in one year you force it to take in 2,400 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation into the blood. No wonder it rebels when overworked. We crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids, and expect the stomach to do its work. It can't do it.

All over the inner layer of the stomach are glands which secrete the juices necessary for digestion. The entrance of food into the stomach is the signal for these glands to do their work. The more the food, the more indigestible, the greater the demand upon them and upon the muscles of the wall adjoining.

Think of the tons of high-seasoned game, sweetmeats and appetizers crammed into this little four-ounce mill, and then wonder, if you will, why you are dizzy or nauseated or constipated. Don't blame your stomach or curse your fate that you should be born so unfortunate. Blame yourself and apply the remedy.

First, get a small package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taking one after each meal and at bed time. They are not a medicine, but a digestive. Your stomach is worn out and needs help, not medicine. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work that the stomach fails to do. There's enough power in one grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to digest 3,000 grains of ordinary food, so you needn't fear that anything you eat will remain in your stomach undigested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will rout the poison because they remove the cause—food fermentation. They are nature's own cure for dyspepsia. The host of troubles dyspepsia is father of cannot be numbered, for a healthy stomach is the source of all health.

Seize your opportunity before worse conditions confront you. Send to-day for a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will bring you stomach relief. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. The 5-cent size for sale at your druggist's.
