THE JOURNAL-COURIER.
Meet the readers and patrons of this newspaper this morning with a new enthusiasm born of a large opportunity to serve the community which it has been printed for one hundred and forty-one years.

More long messages in sight. Toledo, San Francisco and Boston have chosen literary mayors.

ENCOURAGE.
This country is now in its seventh week of "panic," and it is standing it pretty well. The scare has long been over, and the attempt now is to get at the actual facts of finance and business.

TAFT IN CONNECTICUT.
Secretary Taft is lucky in the quality of his Connecticut friends. They know a good thing when they see it and they know how to get after the good thing when they want it.

NOW THAT ENDURES.
New Haven's snowstorm was a good one, and a bad one, but it won't have any such far-reaching effect as the snowstorm which came down on Chicago in January, 1905, and doesn't seem to have been cleared away yet.

NEWSPAPER INSURANCE.
This is a lively country, but England is away ahead of it in some branches of insurance. The manager of a London insurance company points out that most of the companies are prepared to accept risks which a short time ago would have been considered ridiculous.

WRATH THAT BLESSED.
Vardaman of Mississippi hasn't been looked on as a very warm friend of the negro, and it isn't probable that he intended to do him a good turn when, as Governor, he vetoed the legislature's appropriation for the State Normal School for negro students at Holly Springs, Mississippi.

LOOK FOR THIS ONE.
New Haven has some flourishing and useful clubs, but there is room here for one more. Big Brother clubs are being organized in several cities.

EASY PAYMENTS.
I thought my fine gold watch on time. Terms on an auto wrote for me. And I purchased one, the same one I'm just due to pay a note for.

SAVING AND DOING.
It costs nearly as much to pay the salaries of the municipal servants of New York city as it does to support the entire army of the United States.

HAVE YOU FOUND IT?
It isn't, perhaps it will prove worth your while to take a look at our store—at comes and ties and umbrellas and studds and trunks and jewel cases and scarf pins and gloves and dressing gowns and smoking jackets and plush robes and rubber waistcoats and briar pipes.

HAVE YOU FORGOTTEN THE FURNITURE GIFTS?
Still some very handsome Work Tables, Ladies' Desks, Library and Parlor Tables, Armchairs, Rockers, etc.—the kind that, by their beauty as well as their usefulness, are sure to delight those to whom they are presented.

20% DISCOUNT
Furniture gifts are very reasonable. No trash that we are trying to get rid of—nothing but what is worth having—our entire stock to select from. Gifts of inferior quality would reflect upon the giver and our store.

newspaper which is a newspaper first and before it is a newspaper made subordinate to the possible greed of the publishing office; a newspaper which owns itself and has no axes to grind other than those which contribute to a better appreciation of the obligation involved toward the public.

established reputation. Sir A. Conan Doyle and Mr. Kipling could obtain a policy insuring that any book they wrote would have a sale running into hundreds of thousands of copies.

Wonder if any of those English insurance companies would insure shrinking and protesting inhabitants of the United States against being nominated for President.

THE JERSEY MOSQUITO.
The Jersey mosquito has been in danger ever since it was discovered that by cleaning-up and abolishing his breeding places he could be abolished.

The etheral oils are first mixed with the wine spirits, and the mixture after two months' digestion, is distilled at low heat. The preparation is then placed in kegs and removed to the cellar, where it lies five or six years, and only then is placed on the market.

The United States government was recently represented by Governor General Smith of the Philippines at a celebration of an almost medieval custom, that of enriching favorite shrines and religious images with costly offerings.
