cession in an instant. He blew his whistle which he always carries and said something about the law which, he said, is general in New England. It provides a heavy penalty for any one who interferes with religious services. "I suppose a word to the wise is sufficient," he added.

CALLS FOR ENTHUSIASM

Dr. Cadman Preaches in Calvary Baptist Church.

Dr. S. Parks Cadman, the noted orator-preacher of Brooklyn, delivered the big sermon of the day yesterday afternoon in the Chapman movement at the Calvary Baptist church. To comment on his method of preaching is unnecessary in so noted a minister. Sufficient is it to say that he showed he could out-cream Dr. Ostrom in his power and thunder, that he could out-Dawson Dr. Dawson in his vivid word-pictures, and that he could out-Chapman Dr. Chapman in his clarity of expression.

The Brooklyn preacher could not have better characterized his own methods of preaching than when he complained in the course of his remarks of the cosmopolitan and polyglot quality of the congregations he has to preach to in the big city, he said that he found it often took him twenty minutes before he got a good chance to "turn the guns on them."

Dr. Cadman was introduced gracefully by Dr. Chapman. He took no text, nor did he announce any subject. Nevertheless there was little doubt as to where his mind was centering before he had spoken many words. It was "The Need in America."

"I'd be willing to go farther, much farther than New Haven, to be able to help along a Chapman evangel," he said in beginning. "I take great joy in giving great glory to God for Dr. Chapman, for I believe he is pregnant with the gift of God and that he preaches from knowledge of a more excellent way of living. When Hugh Bruce Hugh, the great platform preacher, died he left none behind him who understood the vitality of the gospel so well. He was born of a Welsh father and a Hebrew mother, and there is a combination that is hard to beat. He was a strong preacher."

"Just at present we are told we are in the midst of a wave of reform in this country. We are told to give thanks because we have such a strong shield in the White House. We do give thanks for that. But I can tell you something that is better than a strong mind in the White House. It is a strong mind in every house in the land—men who do not want protection, like sheep bleating in the shepherd. There will be no result to this reform unless it is deep rooted in the spirit as was Hugh Bruce Hugh.

"Men pin their faith in the ethical tendencies of politics. I tell you that without God the end of it all is disappointment and waste of the time of the followers of the movement. The blood-red need of America is not education but the good old, unadorned idealism resuscitated.

Dr. Cadman said there were those who believed, like Carnegie, that we would be all right if we only had more culture. "If they could give New Haven enough Yales we are told," he said, "New Boston enough Harvards, and New York enough Columbias, if we could have enough good music, enough good symmetry of architecture and all the rest, then we would be all right. Why, my friends, you might as well try to hold Admiral Bob Evans flag-ship in a gale with a daisy chain from Vassar as to do that. If culture made success then Greece to-day would stand at the head of the world. What was it transferred the balance of power from south of the Alps to the Thames and the Potomac? Shall I tell you? It was the evangel of Jesus Christ, the spiritual resistance to the outward vanity and pomp.

"I do not say; diminish intellectualism. Jesus was the grandest tribute the world has ever known of the dignity of truth, to what I have elsewhere called aboriginal identities." Dr. Cadman then took up the subject of enthusiasm in preaching and its near-neighbor, which has been so often referred to by the Chapman preachers, emotionalism. "Is enthusiasm a deadly sin, let me ask you," he said. "I believe Dr. Chapman is following John Knox and I do not think that John Knox was lacking in what they call in the highlands the fundamentals. Oh, I can tell you, I wish there would come a mighty wave of enthusiasm to New Haven and at 10:30 o'clock next Sunday morning precisely too. And why not the golden tongue? When you think you are restraining your emotions you are not doing an intellectual act. You are suffering intellectual paralysis."

MR. MUNRO'S FLOWER TALK

Dr. Dawson Urges the Final Step Forward in Sermon at Dwight Place. Rev. D. D. Munro, the convener in the West Chapel district, had a little fun last night out of his announcement of the plans for the Day of Rejoicing, which will be next Tuesday. It seems that each of the Chapman districts will be asked to supply one thing. Dr. Ostrom's district, for example, will be called on for apples. Each person will be expected to bring one. In the West Chapel district flowers are asked for. "And I see before me," said Mr. Munro, "Presbyterian carnations, Episcopal roses, Congregational century plants, and Baptist water flowers."

Dr. Dawson took for his text Matthew xxiv, 29, "And He went a little farther." The text referred to Jesus in the garden of Gethsemane. He had left all behind Him—the home and his loved ones, the brother, eight of the disciples at the outer gate of the garden and finally the three best beloved, Peter and James and John, and "He went a little farther" into the gloom in the way to the cross. "It was a little farther," said the preacher, "and yet that little farther meant the redemption of the world. If He had not taken that last step of sacrifice, all He had spoken in Galilee would have been forgotten, not a parable would have been left for human memory, all would have been swept down the current of time and there would be to-day no story of Jesus Christ and the cross. It was then and it is always the last step that counts. This fact is constantly illustrated in the lives of men. We have many brave men but few heroes, many politicians but few statesmen. It is courage to take the last step that makes the hero and the memorable man."

IN ORANGE STREET DISTRICT. A special meeting for the men and boys will be held in the First Baptist church, Edwards and Livingston streets, to-night at 7:45 o'clock. Dr. Frank Granstaff will be the speaker. Mr. O. P. Pugh, tenor, soloist, and Master Frank Aldridge, boy soprano, will sing. At the same hour a meeting for women and girls only will be held in the Epworth M. E. church, Edwards and Orange streets, at which Mr. Pugh will speak and Master Aldridge sing. At 9 p. m. the two congregations will gather in the First Baptist church, and Dr. Chapman will address the gathering. Dr. Granstaff's text was St. Luke, xvii, 5, "And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. The topic was "How to Become a Christian."

STOUGH ON CARD PLAYING. Mr. Stough gave a talk on the subject of card playing at the Grace M. E. church at the Howard avenue district last evening and had a large congregation out to hear him.

THE SATURDAY NIGHT PARADE. When asked last evening of the announcement that the abandonment of the proposed march on Saturday evening through the lower section of the city in the hopes of getting some to church who might not get there oth-

THERE IS NO SECRET About Our Cod Liver Preparation—Vinol.

So many patent medicines and advertised cures are now offered to the public that we want to call the special attention to the people of New Haven, Conn., to the fact that Vinol is not in any sense a secret or patent medicine.

For centuries medical men the world over have recognized the great tonic and curative elements contained in the cod's liver, but how to extract these medicinal elements from the useless and repulsive oil which enveloped them has been the problem hitherto unsolved.

This was finally accomplished by two eminent French chemists, and the result is Vinol, a delicious modern cod liver preparation without oil, made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cod's livers, thus combining with peptonate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness and for Chronic Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. Try it on our offer to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. Hull's Corner Drug Stores, cor. State and Chapel Sts., cor. Howard and Congress Ave., New Haven, Conn.

WESTVILLE. The text chosen by Mr. Sheldon in the Westville district last evening was from Job xxii, 21: "Acquaint thyself with God and be at peace." The services last evening were very largely attended. Mr. Mitchell sang as usual.

Brooks Club. President J. Earl of the Brooks club, announces that the members of the club are invited to meet the mission fathers at the Edwards house on Elm street Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock. The mission services held under the auspices of the Episcopal churches were again largely attended yesterday. At Trinity Father Huntington preached the third of the special sermons to women, his subject being "Childhood." The children's service at 4 o'clock was attended by nearly 200 little ones. At the evening service Father O'Connor preached the sermon and took for his text, "Lord to whom shall we go? Thou hast the gift of eternal life." Father Huntington followed with instruction on the "Incarnation." The subject of the afternoon special service for the women at 3 o'clock will be "Youth."

St. Paul's Church. The attendance at the morning services at St. Paul's was lessened somewhat by the storm. Father Anderson gave an interesting instruction after the second communion. At the children's service over 150 were present. Father Sill gave the instruction on the result of the first sin, the story of Cain and Abel, and Father Anderson gave an address on the same subject, enlarging on the suffering resulting from sin. The women's service also well attended, the subject being on "Childhood," and the subject to-day will be "Youth."

Christ Church. The services at Christ church were well attended, in spite of the storm. At the women's service the subject was "Youth," and to-morrow will be "Charity." In the evening Father Hughson preached on the "Incarnation" with purpose in sending Christ into the world. Father Schuster in his instruction took the parable of the wedding supper for his subject.

POLICEMAN HEENAN BACK. For the first time since July 4, when his leg was broken by a fall, Policeman James C. Heenan was able to report for duty yesterday. As he is still lame he will be excused from work about the central precinct station.

TWO REMARKABLE CURES OF ECZEMA. Over Twenty-three Years Ago Baby had Severe Attack—Years Later Grandfather Suffered Torments with the Disease—Virulent Sores Developed from Knees to Toes.

BOTH OWE COMPLETE RECOVERY TO CUTICURA. "In 1884 my grandson, a babe, had an attack of eczema, and after trying the doctors he became an invalid, the extent of heavy bills and an increase of the disease and suffering. I recommended Cuticura and in a few weeks the child was well. He is to-day a strong man and has not had a relapse of the disease. A few years ago I contracted eczema, and became an invalid. A whole winter passed without once having on shoes, my ankles and nearly from the knees to the toes being covered with virulent sores. I tried practitioners, specialists, dermatologists, etc., to no purpose. My daughter-in-law reminded me of having prescribed Cuticura for my grandson more than twenty years ago. I at once procured the Cuticura Soap and found immediate improvement and final cure, till to-day, though well along in years, I am as though I had never had that disease. I am well known in the vicinity of Louisville and Cincinnati, and all this could be verified by witnesses. M. W. LaRue, 845 Seventh St., Louisville, Ky., April 23 and May 14, 1907."

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema, the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis, the loss of hair and crusts of scabs, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in acne—all demand remedies of extraordinary virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven by testimonials of remarkable cures when many remedies and even physicians have failed. One set is often sufficient to cure.

Cuticura Soap (25c) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (25c) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Pills (50c) for the Form of Chronic Eczema, Psoriasis, and other Skin Diseases. Sold throughout the world. Waterbury Drug & Chem. Co., Waterbury, Conn.

JUDD RE-ELECTED HEAD OF Y. M. R. C.

At His Home Ill When the Members in Annual Session Chose Him to Head Them Again.

MEMBERSHIP NOW 1,657

All Reports Show the Organization to be in an Exceedingly Flourishing and Hopeful Condition.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club last night brought out much hope for the continued prosperity of the institution. Reports read and otherwise expressed by the officers showed that the club is in a good condition financially and as to number of members.

The total membership on November 30 was 1657, which was a slight decrease for the year, but everything considered, the record is encouraging, as several men on the rolls had been dropped through non payment of dues.

The organization will be as active in the campaign this year as it has been in campaigns of the past. The officers of the club for the ensuing year, elected at the meeting last night were the following named: Seymour M. Judd, president, Frank L. Shay, first vice-president, William J. G. Myers second vice-president, John A. Hull, treasurer, A. Oswald Pallman, secretary, Arthur S. Russell, assistant secretary. The only changes made were in the election of Mr. Pallman as secretary, who succeeded Edwin P. Lyon, and Arthur S. Russell who succeeds Hawley W. Lincoln as assistant secretary. Both Mr. Lyon and Mr. Lincoln declined reappointment. Three members of the executive committee were chosen, they being Senator D. A. Blakeslee, Frank J. Rice and Senator Frank S. Butterworth. Their terms run for three years. Messrs. Blakeslee and Rice are re-elected. Senator Butterworth succeeds L. Banta Sperry.

President Judd, because of illness, was unable to be present at the meeting, but he sent in a letter in the nature of a report. Brief addresses were made by John A. Hull, Judge Mathewson, Senator Blakeslee, Senator Butterworth, Police Commissioner L. M. Ullman, Frank J. Rice, William Merrells and Edward J. Maroney.

Senator Butterworth for the Lincoln day banquet committee reported that the outlook is for the most successful banquet ever held by the club. It is assured that Secretary Taft will be here, and others who will respond to toasts are President Flavel S. Luther of Trinity college; and Rev. George H. Eris, of Philadelphia, formerly pastor of Calvary Baptist church, in this city.

Eight new members were admitted to the club last night, they being Joseph I. Robins, James Sayles, Ernest C. Woodcock, Charles G. Chamberlain, James A. Perry, William C. Nystrom, Rev. William P. Downes, Frank E. Bolman.

The club held its bi-monthly whist last night. There were twenty-one tables in use.

NO WORK FOR WALSH JURY. Chicago, Jan. 16.—Eight hours after the jury, which is considering whether John R. The twelve men began their deliberations on the evidence shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon.

FARMER CLUB DINES

GOV. WOODRUFF THERE Rural Jest and Laughter Rife at the Union League Banquet.

Grand Old Hymn Brings the Services of the Evening to a Close.

The Farmers' club, made up of New Haven merchants who spend their summers in the country raising various products, sometimes at a higher cost than they could easily buy them for, held a dinner at the Union League last evening. The tables were decorated with various products of the farm, apples with a tubercular flush, tomatoes long since deprived of their bloom, but the dinner itself was prepared by the chef of the league.

Following the dinner the farmers present made brief addresses on their experiences and promised to do better during the coming year. The affair came to a close with the singing of the grand old anthem: "For we are farmers—yes, jolly farmers; We have to plant the cash to make things grow. But that's no matter, we all get fatter, So laugh and sing, and swing the rake and hoe."

Among the members of the club who were present were: Governor Rollin S. Woodruff, of Walnut Grove farm; Phelps Montgomery, of Mountain Glen farm; F. G. P. Barnes, of T'Other house; Frank A. Corbin, of Scotland farm; Frank A. Corbin, of The Hill; Samuel A. Flight, of Golden Glow; N. W. Kendall, of Kenmore; Wilson H. Lee, of Fairlea farm; R. H. Nesbit, of Rosehurst farm; Charles W. Scranton, of Scranton homestead; William R. Shaffer, of Nuteleigh; Charles M. Jarvis, of The Maples; W. H. Lyon, of The Central; Lucien Sanderson, of Ridge Hill farm; James A. Howarth, of Lily Brook farm; W. Sid- ney Downs, of The Mapledale; J. L. Nesbit, of Clover Hill farm; J. E. Hubinger, R. J. Woodruff and Ward Bailey.
