Not Like Old-Fashioned Democratic Primaries—Funeral of Harry C. Jacobs.

It did not seem much like the old-fashioned democratic primaries yesterday afternoon and evening. There was the enthusiasm and excitement of contesting delegations clamoring for election lacking. In the good old days when a real live primary fight was in progress there would be a score or two of carriages flying about Fair Haven and crowds around the primary places. With only one ticket in each ward last evening the spirit of rivalry was in abeyance. The ballot boxes were open from 4 to 8 p. m., just the same, however, as though there had been two or more tickets in the field. In Fair Haven the Fourteenth ward primary was held in East Grand avenue and Jacob Frolich was moderator. Henry Shannon checker and Arthur D. Bradley box tender. The delegates elected were Jacob Frolich, Edward S. Ryan and Thomas Coleman.

There was a very large attendance yesterday afternoon at the funeral of Harry C. Jacobs, held at his late residence, 111 Grand avenue. The services were conducted by Rev. E. C. Tullar of the East Pearl Street M. E. church of which deceased was a member. In the attendance, the Adelphi lodge, F. and A. M., Crawford council, B. and E. M., and Windemere Tennis club, organizations with which the deceased was identified, were well represented and members of these societies acted as a guard of honor as the casket was borne out of the house. These members also walked to the Fair Haven cemetery nearby, where the burial took place and where the Masonic burial service was conducted. The bearers were Dr. L. T. Doolittle, Charles P. Hillhouse, Curtis Hillhouse, Elijah Ball, Lawrence Blinn and Nathan Edridge. There were a profusion of beautiful floral tributes, which included a large of white roses from L. Fowler, Mr. Clear Allen and Mrs. Etta Hunt; large wreath, Henry Konold, William J. Konold, Harry G. Konold and the Woodbridge Ice Co.; bunch of Easter lilies, Anthony De Matty and family; large bunch of pinks, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Smith; bunch of roses, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bolden; bunch of tulips, business men in Grand avenue; bunch of white pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilbert; bunch of daffodils, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jacobs; crescent, Albert Widman; standing wreath, Trinity church choir; bunch of red carnations, Frank Stoddard; white pinks, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Doty; pink carnations, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Danclio; bunch of pinks, A. G. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Johnson; large wreath of roses and carnations, Loyal circle, King's Daughters; Masonic emblem, Adelphi lodge; standing anchors, employees at White City; "Gates Ajar" from the widow; pillow from George H. Jacobs and son and Mrs. H. A. Stevens; tennis racket of mixed flowers, Windemere Tennis club.
