"NOT GUILTY" PLEA OF MANILA RIOTERS

Manila, Feb. 15.—Eight of the men who were arrested charged with participation in the abortive uprising in the suburbs of Manila on the night of Dec. 23 were arraigned today and pleaded not guilty. Their trial has been set for March.

Disorder occurred at a number of Manila suburbs on the night of Dec. 23, with the chief zone of trouble at Navetas. The police and military were prepared and the trouble was quickly suppressed. Many arrests were made. Artemio Ricarte, who was banished from the islands by Governor General Forbes, is said to have returned and was the leader of the seditionists.

HEAVY SNOWFALL IN ALPS

Turin, Feb. 14.—Via Rome.—The snowfall in the Piedmont region this winter is heavier than heretofore known, according to available records. This is especially true in the Alps where all wires are down and even the telegraph poles are invisible because of the depth of snow. At the famous St. Bernard Hospice the snow is more than 25 feet deep.

Basketball is highly popular this winter as usual, and all the boys have to do to win is to get their opponents down at critical moments and pound their heads on the floor.

Opens Safe of Dead Man Who Never Told of Its Combination

Walter E. Marsh, the champion catch-as-catch-can safe opener of Fairfield county, performed to the mystification of a large audience in the store of the late Harris Rahn, last week, when he was called on to open a safe the combination of which was unknown save to the dead grocer.

Marsh was summoned by H. Bogen, administrator of the Rahn estate. With a kit of safe breaking tools—not the sort the yeomen use—Marsh took a South Main street car for the grocery. A number of relatives and friends were gathered about the safe to witness the trial.

Rahn had never told the combination of the safe to anyone. With a few deft movements of the dial, Marsh soon had complete mastery of the safe, and in five minutes of actual time, he succeeded in flinging open the ponderous iron doors, exclamations of surprise and wonderment greeting his accomplishment.

Members of the Western Union Society of Connecticut of which Manager J. M. McMahon of the local Western Union Telegraph office is president, held an entertainment at Odd Fellows' hall, New Haven, Saturday night. About 10 employees of the company from this city attended.

OUR NEWTOWN NEWS LETTER

(Special to The Farmer)

Newtown, Feb. 15.—The ladies of Newtown are invited to join the Woman's Missionary Travel club Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 17 at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. C. Morris, when they start to blaze out a trail over a hitherto unbroken wilderness. Suitable guides have been selected with great care. They will see that each one returns to his own camp fire in time for the evening meal. Mrs. Minnie T. Castleon besides giving her paper on "The Indian of Yesterday," will conduct a rapid fire government drill in which thirteen ladies take part. There will also be the call of the natives, by ten girls in Indian costume. Mrs. Arthur Reynolds is arranging Indian melodies. If weather is unfavorable meeting will be postponed one week.

Forty-five young friends tendered Miss Esther Kilbride a surprise party on the eve of St. Valentine's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Bale of Port Worth, Texas, are the parents of a daughter, Julia Elizabeth, born Jan. 2. This happy event invests Mr. and Mrs. David H. Bale of Hawleyville, with the halos of grandparents.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jillson of Hawleyville was granted a divorce from W. H. Jillson in the superior court by Judge Webb on last Friday. The cause was desertion. Mr. Jillson resides in Hawleyville.

Martin J. Hourigan of Middle district and Robert D. Smith of Taunton were drawn as jurors for the February term of the superior court, criminal side, which comes in Wednesday, Judge William presiding.

The selectmen have ordered one hundred new chairs for the town hall which are expected this week.

Thomas J. Carey of Queen street who was confined to the house by illness, few days last week is able to return to work.

Saturday, Thomas H. Bolmer, E. S. Lovell and Joseph Wojcchowski filled their ice houses from the Fogarty Pond of W. C. Johnson. The latter completed the filling of his ice houses earlier in the week.

Mrs. Kate Ward of Bridgeport was returned to her home after a visit with her sister, Miss Mary J. Leavy of Walnut Tree Hill.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. John F. Lynch of Bridgeport which appeared in Saturday's Evening Farmer, gave sorrow to many relatives and friends in town. Mrs. Lynch, nee Miss Catherine McMahon was native of Newtown where she was married to her husband, also native Newtowner. Several years ago both her parents and her own family moved to Bridgeport where they reside at 119 George St. Besides her husband she is survived by four children, her father, one sister, Mrs. James Keating of Danbury, and one brother, John F. McMahon of Norwalk. The funeral will occur Wednesday from her late home at 3:30 a. m. and from St. Augustine's church at 9 a. m. The interment will be in St. Michael's cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wootson of Platts Hill received a precious Valentine from the stork Sunday morning, in the way of a girl baby.

Only a moderate sized crowd attended the auction at the sunset cottage, Saturday, but there was brisk bidding and prices ruled high. C. B. Johnson wielded the auctioneer's hammer.

The Camp Fire Girls will produce the play "Miss Fearless & Co." tonight at the Town Hall for the benefit of the Belgian babies.

Mrs. Dwight C. Hough of Norwich is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. H. Patterson of South Center. Walter Latham of Cheshire is also a guest of his wife, the Patterson's housekeeper.

Hans P. Boyson's new barn built on the foundation of the barn destroyed by fire five weeks ago, was finished Saturday, and the stock installed in the new quarters that night. Edgar Northrop and Thomas Perkins built the building by day work, and it is a satisfactory job.

John Fickett is carting the sand from the sand bank at Sandy Hook for the concrete foundations, and Charles E. Blakeman is drawing the timbers for the model barn which Mortimer Smith will build in the spring on his Mount Pleasant farm. It is under stood that Contractor Thomas F. Brew will build the frame work of the barn.

Joshua A. Tilson was in New Milford, Thursday, attending a horse sale, in which he was interested with a friend, the owner of the horses. They are reported as bringing home good money.

POL'S

Charles Chaplin, the funny "drunk" who is now producing director for the Essena company, is featured in the photoplay program at Pol's to-day in a two-act comedy, "A Night Out." The picture is over 2,000 feet in length and is one of Chaplin's funniest. It will be shown after the matinee and twice every evening. In addition, there will be other first-run photoplays which can be seen only at Pol's.

Heading the vaudeville program are Marc Diamond and Mme. Grant, New York society's favorite in their artistic dancing program. Mr. Diamond is 30 years old; Mme. Grant is 70. Their age, their grace, their pleasing mannerisms; Carson and other things that count have made them the sensation of ballroom entertainments in New York this winter. Their vaudeville tour is proving even more of triumph than were their engagements in New York's select private residences. They will present the newest dances in the most approved style.

J. C. Nugent, the author-actor who has written and produced fifty successful vaudeville skits, will bring his own company here in his newest playlet, "The Regular." The play is in two scenes and deals with night life in New York.

The Six Yokohama Japs, presenting feats of magic and acrobatics, will have an important place on the program. This is one of the best Japanese outfits in the varieties and they have a very entertaining program.

Richards and Brandt, in hand-to-hand balancing feats; Carson and Willard, in an unique nonsense skit; and Jennings and Dorman, offering the newest songs and dances, complete the big vaudeville program.

PLAZA

"Hogan's Aristocratic Dream," one of those famous two reel Keystone special productions that make you laugh in spite of yourself will be the main attraction in the "movie" program at the Plaza the first half of the week and two other Keystone: "Gentlemen of Nerve," one of Charlie Chaplin's greatest laughing successes that made such a hit when recently shown and "Fatty and Mabel's Married Life."

The vaudeville program has been carefully selected and contains many attractive features. Madam Sumilko is a charming little lady and she has gathered around her a group of talented Gensha girls who present their numbers in a manner that cannot fail to bound them into popular favor.

The act is a deck of novelty and the scenic equipment, all of Oriental design and handworked, is really gorgeous.

Lawrence and Edwards will have an option on a large portion of the laughs in their original skit entitled "The Pension Office." They will offer fifteen minutes of breezy Irish wit that will serve to keep the audience in the best of spirits.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jillson, an exceptionally clever ventriloquist who has a new way of presenting a very difficult type of act is scheduled to be enthusiastically received for Walter has met with unprecedented success in other cities.

"The Doctor's" is the title of a merry musical melange of pills and puns in the hands of Beaumont and Arnold, a pair of capable comedians. The sketch is full of life, worked out along comedy lines and should get over in big style.

The Harrison West Trio, a very clever singing, talking and dancing diversion in which the dancing of a little fellow in the trio is an unusually pleasing feature completes the bill.

"The Volunteer Fireman" will be shown in conjunction with the Keystone.

LYRIC

"The Only Son" Cohan and Harris big New York success, will be given for the first time in stock at the Lyric theatre this week, beginning with the performance this evening. That the play will be one of the biggest attractions the Lyric management has been able to offer, the theatre-going public of Bridgeport this season goes without saying. The record which "The Only Son" made in New York is all the endorsement needed to make it one of the biggest stock successes ever presented by the Calburn players.

The play is one which will appeal to every mother, every mother's son, and every other member of the family. It is a play of filial affection and youthful love, with enough of the "wild oats" element in it to make the plot generally interesting.

Lowell Sherman will play the leading role, and Miss Suzanne Jackson, Miss Violet Burney, Edward Darnay, and the rest of the Calburn players will be seen at their best in the production. Manager Frank L. Callahan has staged the play with as much care as though it were the original Broadway presentation of the piece, and as the play has been thoroughly rehearsed there is no reason in the world why it will not "go big" for the entire week.

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but powerful laxative. The action of the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination to find a safe and effective substitute for calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects.

Feel Young Again
CERTILAX (The-Certified Laxative).

Beware of the habit of constipation. Coax the overworked bowels muscles back to normal action with CERTILAX, "the certain laxative." It is the favorite prescription of an eminent New York City specialist, selected by five hundred physicians, who have tried out thousands of laxatives and decided upon CERTILAX as the best. They believe in gentleness, effectiveness, and Nature's assistance. CERTILAX opens the bowels; their action is gentle yet positive, never accompanied by griping or pain. One at night will give positive relief. CERTILAX IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES, or will be sent direct upon receipt of price. CERTILAX CHEMICAL CO., 137 E. 34th St., NEW YORK. PRICE, 10c, 25c, 50c. One at night makes you right.

About now the newspapers reflect the popular taste by sending their star correspondents south with the ball team, while the cub reporters cover Washington.

Some one asks what has become of the neighborhood club of young people, who used to chirp in a dollar each to buy a croquet set, and have a lot of fun for a whole season? Well, apparently they have grown up, moved to some large city, and are paying $100 dues and big incidental expenses in some country club.
