951 MAIN ST., NEAR BANK

Good News for Men Who Want to Get More for Their Money and Pay Less for Their Time!

You have never known this men's store to "dicker" over prices because prices have always been fair, to you and to us. Men always save time here. In the season when business is coming right straight along, the first price is the only price we have but in the dull month of February we mark down everything to excite interest and liven up trade.

And we never do things by halves because it takes too long to get anywhere. So when we state herewith that our original prices on all suits and overcoats are now priced at half and less, you men may know exactly where you, and we, stand.

MEN'S CLOTHING SALE

MISS LIBBY'S REPLIES TO YOUR LETTERS

Correct name and address must be given to insure attention, not to print. Use ink. Write short letters, on one side of paper only. Address Miss Libby, 916 President Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

RULING THEIR HUSBANDS.

Dear Miss Libby: Can you tell anything about Candelina? I am to read a composition in school on the subject and cannot find anything of any interest about it. Do please help me and I will be dreadfully grateful to you.

BASHFUL WIDOWER.

Dear Miss Libby: I would like your opinion on the following: I am a widower of forty-three and childless. I have been bewailing about a young woman of thirty for the past few months. She is jolly and good company. I was thinking seriously of proposing marriage until the following took place: I had accompanied her to an affair at the home of a friend. During the evening an acquaintance remarked to her, "Do you go in for women's rights, Miss E.?" "No," she answered. "I'm going in for women's rights." "What's that?" "Body asked. Her answer took my breath away. She replied, "Widower." Was that not an insult to me? We never spoke as I escorted her home, nor when I left her at her door. Was I in the right or was I wrong? ALBERT H. C.

REPRINTING LETTERS.

Dear Miss Libby: Will you kindly reprint letters that appeared in your column under date of December 27. My paper reached me today and I cannot secure a copy. MISS HARRIET D.

I am very sorry we cannot reprint letters. The space is needed for so many letters that are being constantly received and which our readers are

TODAY'S POEM

AN ISLAND.

My dream is of an island place
Which distant seas keep lonely,
A little island on whose face
The stars are watchers only;
Those bright still stars! they need not seem
Brighter or stiller in my dream.
An island full of hills and dells,
All rumpled and uneven
With green recesses, sudden swells,
And odorous valleys deep;
So deep and straight that always there
The wind is cradled to soft air.
Hills running up to heaven for light
Through woods that half-way ran
As if the wild earth mimicked right
The wider heart of man;
Only it shall be greener far
And gladder than hearts ever are.
The place is all awake with trees,
Limes, myrtles, purple-headed,
Acacias having drunk the loss
Of the night-dew, faint-headed,
And was gray olive-woods which
The fittest foliage for a dream.

CORNER FOR COOKS

Cream of Barley.
Fry two sliced onions and one sliced carrot and two turnips and a piece of celery in butter, then add one quart of milk, six peppercorns and cook quite gently for three and one-half hours in a double milk saucepan; add two ounces of pearl barley, salt, pepper and sugar to taste, and simmer until the barley is soft. Just before serving add one quart of cream. If the soup is too thick dilute with milk.

Beef en Casserole.
Soak a pint of lima beans over night. Then cut a pound of beef into inch cubes, brown with sliced onions in three tablespoonfuls of fat, stir in two tablespoonfuls flour, salt and pepper. Place in casserole a layer of beans, one of meat, one of tomatoes, and so on. Cover with boiling water and boil in slow oven for three hours.

Cauliflower, American Style.
Pluck off the outside leaves and soak in cold salted water, top downward, for an hour, to cleanse it thoroughly. Then tie it in a twine bag to prevent breaking, and cook in salted water for about twenty minutes, or until quite tender. If it is not boiled in a bag remove the scum before it settles on the cauliflower. Serve in a shallow dish and cover it with a cream of hollandaise sauce, or add a little grated cheese; cover with cracker crumbs, moistened in melted butter, and bake until the crumbs are done brown.

The British Amateur Golf Association announced the cancellation of the golf championship contests for 1915.

CONNECTICUT CO. WON'T OPERATE LORDSHIP LINE

Trustees Refuse Application and Promoters Must Build Own Line.

The Connecticut Company is not to operate the new line which is to run from Hollister avenue in the city of Bridgeport to Lordship Park. It was learned today that though an arrangement has been sought by the Stratford real-estate operators to have the company operate the line after its completion next summer, the matter when placed before the trustees of that company, appointed by the courts to effect severance of the traction lines from the New Haven railroad dominion, was turned down.

The Lordship Park promoters still plan to build the strip of track, a distance of 2.7 miles between Hollister avenue and their casino, and will have to erect a power house or get current from the United Illuminating company. A five-cent fare will be charged with no transfer, should this plan be carried into operation, for the Connecticut Company will not permit the joining of tracks with the Lordship Park line. The Commission force a fight of way over the Connecticut company's lines as in the case of the Bridgeport & Danbury line to Long Hill.

Engineers of the Connecticut company who recently have looked into the situation, are said to have reported to the trustees that the business from Lordship Park, at this time and for some years would not justify the operation of the line by the Connecticut company. It was upon this report, it is said upon reliable information that the trustees at their recent meeting refused to accede to the request of the Lordship Park officers.

SHIP BILL, AFTER BIG DEBATE, GOES TO A CONFERENCE

Washington, Feb. 19.—The Senate today began consideration of the appropriation bills, the government ship purchase bill having gone to conference there to remain until Feb. 27. In the meantime in accordance with the agreement between Senate Democratic leaders and the Republicans, the big supply bills are to be taken up and pressed to passage in order to give the House a clean bill of lading. The first of the appropriation bills to come up today was the legislative, executive and judicial bill. The Republicans give assurance they will not obstruct against the appropriation bills.

Formal notice went to the House today by the Senate of its action in disapproving to the amended ship purchase bill and asking for the introduction of conferees on the part of the House. Senate conferees already have been appointed.

In the event that the shipping bill when it emerges from conference on Feb. 27 in still unsatisfactory to the Republicans, they probably will renew their filibuster and kill the measure.

Next Monday, which is Washington's birthday, members of the Peconock Yacht club will observe the forty anniversary of the organization of the club in the club house at the foot of California street. There will be a reception from 3 to 7 p. m. and an entertainment and luncheon from 7 to 12 p. m.

WOMAN COULD NOT SIT UP

Now Does Her Own Work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

Ironton, Ohio.—"I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedies a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough or I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also.
"I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks healthy that even the doctor speaks for. You can publish this letter if you like." Mrs. BENA BOWMAN, 161 S. 10th street, Ironton, Ohio.

Why will women continue to suffer ay in and dry out and drag out a sickly, ill-fated existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's vegetable Compound?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co., confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, and answered by a woman well held in strict confidence.
