POL'S

Manager Pol has arranged a very attractive bill at Pol's for the first three days of the week. Crowded houses greeted the opening performance on yesterday and every-day seemed highly pleased with the entertainment offered.

PLAZA

"Mrs. O'Reilly's Reception" is the title of an extraordinary farce in the hands of May Westworth & Co. at the Plaza the first half of the week and it was responsible for a veritable riot of laughter that kept up for twenty minutes at yesterday's performance.

EASTON

Mrs. Edward A. Hawkins will entertain the Dorcas society of the Baptist church, Tuesday afternoon.

Preliminary arrangements are underway for the annual Farmers' Institute next month at the Greenfield Country Club.

HOLIDAY VISITORS DELIGHTED WITH LYRIC OFFERING

Calburn Players in "A Woman's Way" Are at Their Best-Sherman Resting.

Because of the holiday, a matinee performance was given yesterday at the Lyric theatre and two record houses resulted at the first performance of "A Woman's Way."

Lowell Sherman is not in the cast this week, but in enjoying such a needed rest, according to Manager Callahan.

Other members of the cast who lend able support to the principals this week are Miss Emma DeWale as Mrs. Livingston, Miss Beverly West as Mrs. Bobby Livingston, Fred Roland as Bobby Livingston, Thomas Swem, the director of the play, as Edward Rowland Morris, John T. Dwyer, as General Livingston, and Frank Melrose as Wilson.

COMMERCE CHAMBER HEAD IS BOOSTING FOR FOREIGN TRADE

Washington, Feb. 22—John H. Fahy, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, whose 519 members have just ended a convention here, which was addressed by President Wilson and other men of national repute, is heading a campaign to boost America's foreign trade.

The Higher Education. Teacher—A monologue is a conversation in which one takes part. A dialogue one in which two take part. Any other word ending in "logue" Johnny—Ma'm, is a catalogue one in which cats take part—Exchange.

How She Did It. "So she refused you?" "That's the impression I received." "Didn't she actually say no?" "No, she didn't. All she said was just 'Ha, ha, ha'—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Difference. "My husband says he's going to have a cooking good time at his club tonight."

Perhaps He Would. "I led my class in Greek three successive years."

"That's fine. But wouldn't you much rather have carried the ball sixty-five yards for a touchdown just once?"—Exchange.
